

3.15.1 EYES TO SEE, MOUTHS TO SPEAK

Unit Focus: Students will identify just and unjust situations in the world and examine ways in which they can be a Christian and work for justice.

Lesson Focus/Aim: To help students name injustices in their everyday lives.

Students are challenged to:

- Act responsibly in response to God's call.
- Reach out to others in love as Jesus did.

In class: Students have explored how "Justice is fairness in the way people are treated or the way decisions are made." Students have learnt how Jesus taught us how to live our lives by giving us The Beatitudes.

Family supplement activity: Students write their own beatitudes for kids.

3.15.1 EYES TO SEE, MOUTHS TO SPEAK

“Justice is fairness in the way people are treated or the way decisions are made”

The Sermon on the Mount

Jesus taught us how to live our lives by giving us

The Beatitudes

God blesses those people who depend only on him.

They belong to the kingdom of Heaven!

God blesses those people who grieve.

They will find comfort!

God blesses those people who are humble.

The earth will belong to them!

God blesses those people who want to obey him more than to eat or drink.

They will be given what they want!

God blesses those people who are merciful.

They will be treated with mercy!

God blesses those people whose hearts are pure.

They will see him!

God blesses those people who make peace.

They will be called his children!

God blesses those people who are treated badly for doing right.

They belong to the kingdom of Heaven.

God will bless you when people insult you, mistreat you, and tell all kinds of evil lies about you because of me. Be happy and excited! You will have a great reward in Heaven. People did these same things to the prophets who lived long ago.

Write your own “Beautiful Attitudes” for Kids.

God bless the kids who _____

They will _____

God bless the parents who _____

They will _____

God bless the teachers who _____

They will _____