Diocese of Broken Bay

TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

13 - 10 - 19

This week: 2 Kg3:14-17; 2 Tim 2:8-13; Lk 17:11-19

Next week: Ex17:8-13; 2 Tim 3:14-4:2; Lk 18:1-8

Challenging assumptions. Breaking down stereotypes. That's what the Gospel constantly does – and it does it again today:

only one leper acknowledges the work of God and that leper is a Samaritan:

and there's a double-edged sword to that message:

the Samaritans were seen as both racially and religiously impure:

the Samaritans and Israel had parted ways centuries before – Samaritans were foreigners and they were heretics.

And yet again and again in the Gospel they're shown to be the ones most in touch with God and what God asks.

God doesn't work within the boundaries of our stereotypes and judgements, and our challenge therefore is to see people as God sees them: in terms of their depths, not their surface difference from ourselves.

Vale Dr William (Bill) Bye

On Friday 4th October, the feast of St Francis of Assisi, we lost a precious member of our parish community. Bill Bye was a man with a passion for his faith, for the living of it, and for our parish community.

Bill has served in so many ways over so many years but perhaps I could just list some of the ways he has been active in recent years: a co-leader of our RCIA team who has guided the faith development of so many who have joined our Church, an avid member of the Parish Study Group and other adult faith education initiatives, part of Alpha, an Adult Server, the faithful lighter of the Easter Fire every year, an enthusiastic supporter and leader of our Parish Revitalisation project, and co-chair of our Parish Pastoral Council. And that is just a partial list. Throughout his illness Bill continued his involvement in as many of these ministries as he could, still co-chair of the PPC even at the time of his death.

He was a healer too, perhaps reflecting his professional life as a medical specialist. When some were hurting as a result of the plans to develop the carpark at Killara, Bill was deeply concerned to listen to people, to give his time participating in the forums provided for people to air their concerns, so committed to doing all he could to ensure that no-one was left behind.

We have lost someone who was part of the very soul of our parish, who loved it, and who was passionate about its growth and its future.

I personally have lost someone whom I deeply admired and respected, and who provided me with tremendous support and encouragement. I am so grateful that I returned from my recent holidays in time to visit Bill in hospital last week.

We also lost another precious member of our community recently in Beryl Cates (about whom I would also like to write in an upcoming bulletin). Beryl and Bill were very close with a shared passion for theological discussion and argumentation. We can be sure that these two wonderful souls are now swept up into the mystery of God, all questions removed, all suffering overcome, revelling in the light and joy of the God who is Love. May they pray for us.

Bill loved Latin and a highlight of his year was his participation in a Latin summer school each January. It would be appropriate then to say farewell to our beloved Bill with the haunting salutation of the Latin poet Catullus to his departed brother. For Catullus they were words that spoke only of loss. For ourselves as Christians, they offer the promise of an eternal reunion in the God Bill loved and served so well. And so, dear Bill:

Ave frater, atque vale.

FR RICHARD ROHR OFM'S MEDITATION: The Minores

For the past eight hundred years other men and women, inspired by the simple genius and freshness of Francis and Clare, have been developing and popularizing the original Franciscan revelation. This continual aggiornamento, or updating, has had a profound humanising effect within Christianity, Western civilization, and other cultures.

It is not easy to put into a capsule the spirit and gifts of Franciscan thinking. Its hallmarks are simplicity, reverence, fraternity, ecumenism, ecology, interdependence, and dialogue. Its motto and salutation is "Peace and All Good!"

Francis believed that God was nonviolent, the God of Peace. This belief may be a simple presupposition for us today, but at the time when the Christian church was waging a Holy Crusade against its enemies, the Saracens, Francis's interpretation of the gospel life and its demands was revolutionary. Francis saw it from the viewpoint of the poor, especially from the place of the poor, naked, suffering Christ. He had deep devotion to the God who is revealed as nonviolent and poor in the stable of Bethlehem, as abandoned on the cross, and as food in the Eucharist. God's meekness, humility, and poverty led Francis to become "perfected as his Heavenly Father was perfect." [1] Francis identified with the "minores," the lower class within his society. . . . And he passionately pointed to the Incarnation [of Jesus] as the living proof of God's love. He frequently cried out in his pain that "Love is not loved!"

This week's meditation is written by Fr Richard Rohr's fellow Franciscan, Father John Quigley, OFM,

Our new bishop

Last Monday it was announced that Pope Francis has appointed Bishop Anthony Randazzo as the new Bishop of Broken Bay.

Bishop Anthony, who originally hails from Queensland, is currently one of the Assistant Bishops in the Archdiocese of Sydney. We look forward to him taking up his ministry of service in the diocese.

You can find out more about Bishop Anthony by clicking on the hotlink box on the homepage of our parish website.

Fr David Ranson, who has been our Diocesan Administrator, since August last year writes:

My dear brothers and sisters,

To our great joy, our waiting is over! The Holy Father, Pope Francis has appointed us a new Shepherd to guide us into the future. How extraordinary, too, that this would occur on 7 October—the Patronal feast day of our Cathedral, Our Lady of the Rosary.

With open arms and hearts, we welcome Bishop Anthony Randazzo to our diocesan family! I am confident that you will receive him enthusiastically and warmly. We are enormously blessed by his appointment. Bishop Anthony is young and energetic. In fact, on the day of his appointment he turned just 53. Yet, he brings remarkable experience of leadership already—from his pastoral experience in the Archdiocese of Brisbane, his studies in Canon Law, his service in Rome at the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, his time as a Seminary Rector in Queensland, and more recently his term as an Auxiliary Bishop in Sydney during which he has enjoyed significant involvement in youth, education and clergy.

I have known him personally for many years and have enjoyed his very personable, engaging and humorous personality on many occasions, most recently during the Ad Limina pilgrimage in Rome. On behalf of our Diocese, I express our profound gratitude to Pope Francis for gifting us with a leader of such calibre and stature. We can be confident in the future that opens before us.

Food for the soul

Ten were cleansed, were they not? ... Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God? (Lk 17:17b,18).

PRAYING WHEN WE DON'T FEEL LIKE IT

Most of us find it difficult to pray. We want to pray, make resolutions to pray, but never quite get around to actually praying. Why?

It's not so much that we are insincere, ill-motivated, or lazy, it's just that invariably we are too tired, too distracted, too restless, too emotionally preoccupied, too angry, too busy, or feel ourselves too distant from God to feel that we can actually pray. We have too many headaches and too many heartaches. And so we come home after a long day and simply can't work up the energy to pray and instead call a friend, watch television, rest, potter round the house, or do anything to soothe our tiredness and wind down from the pressures of life, except pray.

How can we pray when both our bodies and our hearts are chronically stressed and on over-load?

By understanding what prayer really is. Prayer, as one of its oldest definitions puts it, is "lifting mind and heart to God."

That sounds simple but it is hard to do. Why?

Because we have the wrong notion of what it means. We unconsciously nurse the idea that we can only pray when we are not distracted, not bored, not angry, not emotionally and sexually preoccupied, and not caught up in our many heartaches and headaches so that we can give proper attention to God in a reverent and loving way. God then is like a parent who only wants to see us on our best behavior and we only go into his presence when we have nothing to hide, are joy-filled, and can give God praise and honor. Because we don't understand what prayer is, we treat God as an authority figure or a visiting dignitary, namely, as someone to whom we don't tell the real truth. We don't tell the authority what is really going on in our lives but what should, ideally, be going on in them. We tell God what we think he wants to hear.

Because of this we find it difficult to pray with any regularity. What happens is: we go to pray, privately or in church, and we enter into that feeling tired, bored, preoccupied, perhaps even angry at someone. We come to prayer carrying heartaches and headaches of all kinds and we try to bracket what we are actually feeling and instead crank up praise, reverence, and gratitude to God. Of course it doesn't work! Our hearts and heads grow distracted because they are preoccupied with something else, our real issues, and we get the sense that what we are doing—trying to pray—is not something we can do right now and we leave it for some other time.

But the problem is not that our prayer is unreal or that the moment isn't right. The problem is that we are not "lifting mind and heart to God." We are trying to lift thoughts and feelings which are not our own to God. We aren't praying out of our own hearts and own heads.

If we take seriously that prayer is "lifting mind and heart to God" then every feeling and every thought we have is a valid and apt entry into prayer, no matter how irreverent, unholy, selfish, sexual, or angry that thought or feeling might seem. Simply put, if you go to pray and you are feeling bored, pray boredom; if you are feeling angry, pray anger; if you are sexually preoccupied, pray that preoccupation; if you are feeling murderous, pray murder; and if you are feeling full of fervor and want to praise and thank God, pray fervor. Every thought or feeling is a valid entry into prayer. What's important is that we pray what's inside of us and not what we think God would like to find inside of us.

That's why the Psalms are so apt for prayer and why the Church has chosen them as the basis for so much of its liturgical prayer. They run the whole gamut of feeling, from praising God with our every breath to wishing to bash our enemies' heads against a stone. From praise to murder—with everything in between! That is indeed the range of our thoughts and feelings. The Psalms are a keyboard upon which we can play every song of our lives—and our songs aren't always all happy or pious. The Psalms give us an apt language to help us raise mind and heart to God.

What's so unfortunate is that, most often, because we misunderstand prayer, we stay away from it just when we most need it. We only try to pray when we feel good, centered, reverent, and worthy of praying. But instead we can try to pray precisely when we most need it, that is, when we are feeling bad, irreverent, sinful, emotionally and sexually preoccupied, and unworthy of praying.

All of these feelings can be our entry into prayer. No matter the headache or the heartache, we only need to lift it up to God.

常年期第二十八主日

13/10/2019

讀經一 (納阿曼回到天主的人那裡, 承認了上主。)

恭讀列王紀下 5:14-17

那時候, 納阿曼便下去, 按照天主的人的話, 在約但河裡, 浸了七次; 他的肌肉就復原了, 如同嬰兒的肌肉一樣, 完全潔淨了。

納阿曼於是同他的全體隨員, 再回到天主的人那裡, 站在天主的人面前說:「現在我確實知道: 全世界只在以色列有天主。現在, 請你收下你僕人的禮物吧!」

厄里叟回答說:「我指著我所服事的永生上主起誓: 我決不接受。」納阿曼再三催促他接受, 厄里叟卻堅決拒絕。

納阿曼於是說:「你既不接受, 至少請你讓你的僕人, 將兩隻驢子所能負荷的泥土, 運回家, 因為你的僕人, 從此不再給別的神, 只給上主, 奉獻全燔祭和犧牲。」——上主的話。(默想片刻)

答唱詠 詠98:1, 2-3, 3-4

【答】: 上主已將他的救恩顯示給萬民。(參閱詠98:2)

領: 請眾向上主高唱新歌, 因為他行了奇事。他的右手和他的聖臂, 為他獲得了勝利。【答】

領: 上主已經宣布了自己的救恩, 將自己的正義, 啟

示給萬民。他記起了自己的良善和信實, 即向以色列家族廣施的寬仁。【答】

領: 全球看見了我們天主的救恩。普世大地, 請向上主歌舞; 請踴躍, 請歡樂, 請彈琴演奏。

【答】

讀經二 (如果我們堅忍到底, 也必與基督一同為王。)

恭讀聖保祿宗徒致弟茂德後書 2:8-13

親愛的:

你務要記住: 根據我所傳的福音, 達味的後裔耶穌基督, 從死者中復活了。為了這福音, 我受苦, 以至帶上鎖鏈, 如同囚犯一樣; 但是, 天主的道, 決束縛不住。

為此, 我為蒙選的人, 忍受一切, 為使他們也獲得那在基督耶穌內的救恩, 及永遠的光榮。

這話是確實的: 如果我們與他同死, 也必與他同生; 如果我們堅忍到底, 也必與他一同為王; 如果我們否認他, 他也必要否認我們; 如果我們不忠信, 他仍然是信實的, 因為他不能否認自己。——上主的話。(默想片刻)

福音前歡呼

領/眾: 亞肋路亞。

領: 事事感謝: 這就是天主在基督耶穌內, 對你們所有的旨意。(得前5:18)

眾: 亞肋路亞。

福音 (除了這個外邦人, 就沒有別人回來歸光榮於天主。)

恭讀聖路加福音 17:11-19

耶穌往耶路撒冷去的時候, 經過撒瑪黎雅及加里肋亞中間, 走進一個村莊。有十個痲瘋病人, 迎面而來, 遠遠地站著。他們大聲喊說:「師父, 耶穌, 可憐我們吧!」耶穌定睛一看, 向他們說:「你們去, 叫司祭們檢驗你們吧!」他們去的時候, 便潔淨了。其中一個, 看見自己痊癒了, 就回來, 大聲光榮天主, 並且跪伏在耶穌腳前, 感謝他; 那人是一個撒瑪黎雅人。耶穌便說:「潔淨了的, 不是十個人嗎? 那九個人在那裡呢? 除了這個外邦人, 就沒有別人回來, 歸光榮於天主嗎?」耶穌於是給那人說:「起來, 去吧! 你的信德救了你。」——上主的話。

MASS FOR OUR HSC/IB STUDENTS LAST WEDNESDAY EVENING

Pictured here are our HSC and IB students who, along with their families, shared in our parish Mass last Wednesday evening.

Many thanks to Jean Shatek for organising this wonderful evening.

After Mass all came upstairs to have pizza and conversation, where the HSC students were joined by members of our parish Young Adults' Group.
