

Sunday 17 November 2024
 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
 Mark 13:24-32

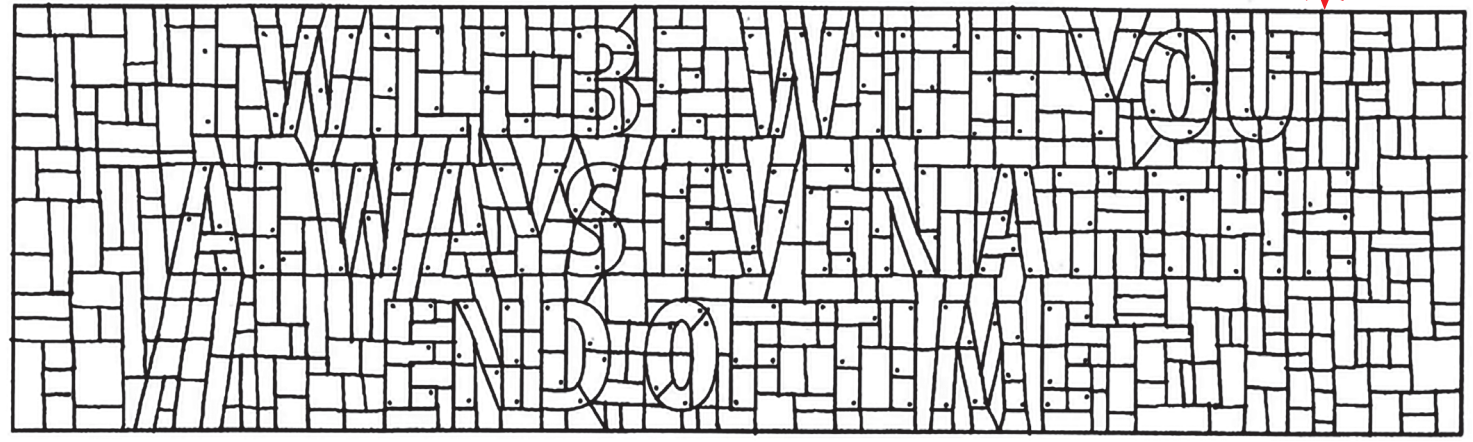

In the
GOSPEL TODAY

HOPE IN JESUS!

Jesus tells us that the world might look frightening, but we must not worry. Jesus will come again.

Puzzle

Colour in the shapes with the the dots to find a message from Jesus.

Sudoku

Can you complete this table?

Use each picture just once in every column, row and mini grid.

Who will come back?

Join the dots together to find out. When Jesus returns, the sun, moon and stars will shine brightly. Can you draw them in?

People from four points of the compass

Jesus will send his angels to gather the chosen from all four directions. Can you fill in the letters to find out which directions they will go in?

A PRAYER TO SAY

Sometimes I am frightened by what I hear about the world. Help me to remember, Jesus, that you are always with me. Help me to trust you. Amen.

Answers: I will be with you always even at the end of time. South, West, North, East.