As part of this broader initiative, the Broken Bay Diocese has launched the campaign "A Catholic Response to Domestic Violence". This effort seeks to provide resources, educational materials, and events designed to raise awareness about domestic violence within Catholic communities. The diocese encourages congregations to engage with these resources to understand how faith-based support systems can be a pillar of strength for victims and survivors. General resources about domestic violence and safeguarding can be found here, some hard copies are available in the church's foyer.
