Jubilee of Deacons

This weekend, we joyfully celebrate the Jubilee of Deacons, honoring their steadfast service and commitment to the Church. Called to embody Christ's servant heart, they minister with compassion, humility, and love. Through faith and service, they uplift communities and guide us closer to God. Let us give thanks for their ministry and pray for their continued strength and grace.

Jubilee of Voluntary Workers

This weekend, we celebrate the Jubilee of Volunteering, honouring those who selflessly give their time and talents to serve others. Their dedication uplifts communities, supports the Church's mission, and embodies faith in action. With gratitude, we recognize their invaluable contributions and the joy of giving that transforms lives.

"You are among the most precious things the Church has, you who every day, often silently and unassumingly, give shape and visibility to mercy. You are crafters of mercy: with your hands, with your eyes, with your hearing, with your closeness, by your touch..."
