On Occasion of Australia Day:

My Dear Parishioners and the Wider Community of Wyoming,

This weekend, we come together to celebrate Australia Day, a day to reflect on the blessings of our nation and give thanks to God for the privilege of calling this Great Southland of the Holy Spirit our home. This beautiful title, "Great Southland of the Holy Spirit," was first bestowed in 1606 by Captain Pedro Fernández de Quirós, long before Captain Cook sailed along our eastern shores. It reminds us, as Christians, of our calling to uphold the values of integrity, justice, and the flourishing of all life on this sacred land.

We also honor the deep and ancient heritage of the First Nations peoples, the traditional custodians of this land, whose cultures and stories enrich the fabric of our national identity. Australia Day is an opportunity to reflect on how we, as a nation, can continue to build bridges of understanding, respect, and unity.

Australia is a nation of stories, resilience, and growth. We celebrate the unique qualities that make this land home—a place of opportunity, freedom, and a shared commitment to building a brighter future.

This Australia Day, let us give thanks for the opportunities we enjoy and recommit ourselves to making a positive difference in the lives of those around us. Together, we can continue to build a nation that reflects the best of who we are—compassionate, inclusive, and united in hope.

May God bless you, your families, and this Great Southland of the Holy Spirit.

Blessings,
Fr. Peter

From Father Peter:

On this joyous day three years ago, I was entrusted with the incredible privilege of serving as Pastor of Our Lady of the Rosary (OLR) Community and the greater Church of Broken Bay. Reflecting on that moment, I may not have fully understood why I was chosen, but I now recognize it as a profound blessing. It was especially meaningful as it coincided with the 25th Jubilee year of my Priesthood. Since that day, I have walked this journey guided by my mother's first prayer to us as siblings, "Que será, será" – what will be, will be. This prayer became a comforting melody in my daily life and a reflection of my Ordination motto: "Called to joyful service, for God loves a cheerful giver."

Our shared Australian story continues with this beautiful Community of Faith. Today, I bow in deep gratitude to each of you, my parishioners, and to the wider community of believers who have journeyed alongside me over these past three years. Together, we have grown in faith, service, and love for one another.

I also extend my heartfelt thanks to the official bodies of the Church at OLR Wyoming, whose support has been instrumental in our shared mission to serve this community. Your dedication and collaboration have been invaluable.

As I prepare to move on to the next chapter in my life, I carry with me a suitcase brimming with memories – the good, the challenging, and everything in between. It is these experiences that make the tapestry of life so rich and complete.

May the Holy Spirit, whose presence fills this Great Southland, continue to inspire us with confidence and determination to build a brighter future for our nation. And may Our Blessed Mother, under the patronage of Star of the Sea, hold us all tenderly in the arms of her Son.

Blessings to each of you and your families, always.

Fr. Peter

Jubilee Prayer

Father in heaven,
may the faith you have given us
in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother,
and the flame of charity enkindled
in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your Kingdom.

May your grace transform us
into tireless cultivators of the seeds of the Gospel.
May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos
in the sure expectation
of a new heaven and a new earth,
when, with the powers of Evil vanquished,
your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee
reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope,
a yearning for the treasures of heaven.
May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer
throughout the earth.
To you our God, eternally blessed,
be glory and praise for ever.
Amen
