Today's Readings & Responses

Entrance Antiphon	Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will. For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.
First Reading	Genesis 2:18-24 They were two in one flesh.
Responsorial Psalm	(R.) May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.
Second Reading	Hebrews 2:9-11 He who sanctifies, and those who are sanctified have one origin.
Gospel Acclamation	Alleluia, alleluia! If we love one another, God will live in us in perfect love. Alleluia!
Gospel	Mark 10:2-16 What God has joined together, no one must divide.
Communion Antiphon	The Lord is good to those who hope in him, to the soul that seeks him.

Pope's Prayer Intentions for October For a Shared Mission

We pray that the Church continue to sustain in all ways a Synodal lifestyle, as a sign of co-responsibility, promoting the participation, the communion and the mission shared among priests, religious and lay people.

Annual Festivities of Our Lady of the Rosary:

A warm thank you to Fr. Carmelo for being with us over these past few days, sharing his insights, wisdom, and the inspiring challenge to journey together in faith under the patronage of Our Lady of the Rosary. Your presence has been a true blessing.

A heartfelt thank you to Cynthia Nolasco and Vicente Guzman for dedicating countless hours to the research, organization, and production of the latest version of our Parish history. Their hard work has brought our story to life in a beautiful way. The video will be launched this weekend as part of our Parish festivities—don't miss it!

Once again, the church was adorned beautifully with natural flowers, generously donated by several parishioners and skilfully arranged by the talented Meryn and Maureen. A heartfelt thank you to everyone for your generosity and effort in making our space so special.

Prayer to Our Lady of the Rosary!

O Virgin Mary, grant that the recitation of thy Rosary may be for me each day, in the midst of my manifold duties, a bond of unity in my actions, a tribute of filial piety, a sweet refreshment, an encouragement to walk joyfully along the path of duty. Grant, above all, O Virgin Mary, that the study of thy fifteen mysteries may form in my soul, little by little, a luminous atmosphere, pure, strengthening, and fragrant, which may penetrate my understanding, my will, my heart, my memory, my imagination, my whole being. So shall I acquire the habit of praying while I work, without the aid of formal prayers, by interior acts of admiration and of supplication, or by aspirations of love. I ask this of thee, O Queen of the holy Rosary, through Saint Dominic, thy son of predilection, the renowned preacher of thy mysteries, and the faithful imitator of thy virtues.

Amen

Pope calls for a day of prayer and fasting for peace

This Monday 7 October, Pope Francis has called for a day of prayer and fasting to mark the one-year anniversary of the outbreak of the Israel-Hamas war. Throughout his pontificate, Pope Francis has consistently encouraged days of fasting and prayer to ask for God's mercy and intervention during times of escalating conflict, including those in South Sudan, Afghanistan, Lebanon, Ukraine, and Russia. May this day be a reminder of our shared hope for peace and healing in all war-torn region. Click here to read more.

“There is no problem, I tell you, no matter how difficult it is, that we cannot resolve by the prayer of the Holy Rosary.”

Ven. Lucia dos Santos

Appeal for Catechists

We are seeking Scripture teachers to help share the message of faith in our parish community. Opportunities are available on the following schedule:

- Every alternate Thursday at Ourimbah: Kindergarten, years 1 and 2 (combined), years 3 and 4 (combined), years 5 and 6 (combined)
 - Every alternate Wednesday at Niagara Park Kindergarten, years 1 and 2 (combined)
- Your prayers are also essential. Throughout this month of October, please join us in praying to the Holy Spirit and Our Lady of the Rosary for the success of this ministry, which has been a cherished part of parish life for 50 years. We need your help to nurture the spiritual growth of our young ones. If you feel even the smallest call to serve, I encourage you to pray about it and consider joining this rewarding ministry. Together, we can make a difference in these young lives. Please contact Norah Marland in the Parish office.
