8th May—Fourth Sunday of Easter

From Fr Paul

Happy Mothers' Day

We pray for all the mothers of the parish and wish you each a very special day, thanking you for your love and for the important role you play in our families, our Church and our society. A mother understands that the love for her children is so like Christ's love for us: generous, selfless, and unconditional.

For those who find Mothers' Day difficult

We acknowledge that Mothers' Day can be a painful and difficult for some: for those whose mother has died, for those who have lost a child, for those who are estranged from their children or their mother, for those who are experiencing great stress within family life. As a Parish Community, let us be mindful of those who experience this pain, and let us pray that this may be a time of healing.

A Mothers' Day Reflection

As a final gesture of love in his own Passion, Jesus turns to his mother, and says to his beloved disciple John: "behold your mother". And from that time, John (representing all disciples) made a place for her in his heart, in his home. Pope Benedict observes: "Mary is a woman who loves.... We see it in the humility with which she recedes into the background during Jesus' public life, knowing that the Son must establish a new family and that the Mother's hour will come only with the Cross, which will be Jesus' true hour (John 2:4, 13:1). When the disciples flee, Mary will remain beneath the Cross (John 19:25-27); later, at the hour of Pentecost it will be they who gather around her as they wait for the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:14)." (Encyclical Letter Deus caritas est (25 December 2005), 41.)

May: Month of Mary We are reminded that May is the month dedicated to Mary, whom we honour as the first disciple, Mother of God and Mother of the Church. We recognise Mary as the one who listened and responded to the call of God. How will you honour Mary during this month of May?

Vocations Sunday: Good Shepherd Sunday – a link to Mothers' Day

This Saturday's Vigil Mass will be celebrated by Bishop Anthony. We warmly welcome him and the Seminarians visiting from the Good Shepherd Seminary to our Parish, and we assure them of our prayers and support.

Every year, World Day of Prayer for Vocations is an opportunity to celebrate vocations to ordained ministry and religious life in all its forms. While the Church appreciates all vocations, this is an opportunity to concentrate our attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), consecrated life in all its forms.

'Feed my sheep,' says Christ to Peter (in last Sunday's Gospel), and each day he says this to you and me as well. We too, must be the voice and presence of the Good Shepherd - as disciples, and as priests and deacons and Religious – and also as mothers and parents, as we celebrate today. May the Lord give us the grace to truly listen and respond to his voice, to his call.

To "feed" those entrusted to our care is to offer them only what will nourish them in body, mind and spirit.

With my prayers and best wishes for all the Parishioners of Holy Name, Fr Paul

What does the Word of God say to us this Sunday, 4th Sunday of Easter, Vocations Sunday?

First Reading (Acts 13:14, 43-52). Paul and Barnabas preach the Gospel firstly to the Jews who reject it; then they preach it to the Gentiles who receive it with joy.

Second Reading (Revelation 7:9, 14-17). This contains a beautiful vision of those who will come through times of persecution to share in Christ's glory in heaven.

Gospel (John 10:27-30). Jesus, the Good Shepherd, will not allow anyone to snatch from his care the sheep the Father has given him.

Referring to his flock, Jesus says of himself: "no one can steal them out of my hand". Someone (or something) is constantly trying to snatch or grab us from the care of the shepherd.

In today's Gospel Jesus, the Good Shepherd, says to us, "I know my sheep. They listen to my voice and follow me."

We live in a world where there are many voices.

Do we know his voice?

How do we listen for the voice of the Good Shepherd?

Let us reflect on how we listen for his voice, his calling, in our daily lives.

Quote for the Week

The Shepherd's Calling - Read Psalm 23.

"The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want"
(verse 1).

Remembering the context of the time when the psalmist wrote this beautiful prayer, shepherding was a common profession. The shepherd provided everything that the sheep needed to survive. The sheep trusted the shepherd for everything.

The sheep were actually dependent upon the shepherd and followed him. The sheep even recognised the sound of the shepherd's voice and would respond to his voice only.

Even if many shepherds would call to the sheep, the sheep were obedient only to their shepherd; they knew his voice.

Do you recognise the voice of your shepherd among all the other voices in the world - among all the other voices claiming your time, energy, money, love, and devotion?

Do you hear God whispering into your heart how much He loves you? Do you hear God saying, "Be still, and know that I am God" (Psalm 46:10)? Do you hear your shepherd calling?

May—Month of Mary

We are reminded that May is the month dedicated to Mary, whom we honour as the first disciple, Mother of God and Mother of the Church. We recognise Mary as the one who listened and responded to the call of God.

How will you honour Mary during this month of May?

On 24th May we celebrate the feast day of Mary, Help of Christians, Patron Saint of Australia. This feast day was instituted by Pope Pius VII in 1815, in thanksgiving for the deliverance of the Holy See from the tyranny of Napoleon.

In the same way, we pray for Mary's intercession that God would continue to bless and protect our parish, our families and our nation.

God entrusted his Son to a woman, a mother. Jesus could have come into the world in any number of ways. However, God placed his Son into the arms of a mother. He knew that Mary would be devoted to Jesus as a mother always is to her child. And from the Cross, Jesus gives his mother to be our mother, the mother of the Church, mother of the faithful.

Prayers to Mary:

Hail Mary Memorare

Key teachings, titles and feasts reminding us of Mary's place of honour in our Catholic tradition:

*Immaculate conception
Mary's Perpetual virginity
Annunciation
Virgin birth of the Lord
Assumption
Mother of God
Mother of the Church*

Three key appearances of Mary which have been accepted by the Church:

Our Lady of Lourdes (1858) is a title of Mary, the mother of Jesus, venerated in honour of the Marian apparitions that took place in Lourdes, France, to 14-year-old Bernadette Soubirous. It was here that Mary instructed Bernadette to drink from the spring below her. Bernadette began to dig in the dirt and the concern of onlookers turned to amazement when a spring began to gush forth from the ground. The spring at Lourdes is still a focal pilgrimage site with countless reports of miraculous healings.

For more information, visit: <https://www.lourdes-france.org/en/>

Our Lady of Fatima (1913) is a title of Mary based on the apparitions reported by the three children, Lucia, Francisco, and Jacinta, in the small town of Fatima, Portugal. The children reported seeing a woman "brighter than the sun" who encouraged them to pray the Rosary daily. The apparitions gained popularity due to Our Lady's "secrets" which included prophecies concerning WWII, and the corresponding miracle of the sun that was witnessed by between 30,000 and 100,000 people.

For more information, visit: <https://www.fatima.org.au>

Our Lady of Guadalupe (1531) is a title of Mary based on the apparitions witnessed by Juan Diego, an indigenous Mexican peasant, in Tepeyac. Mary instructed Juan Diego to ask his bishop to build a Church in her honour. The bishop did not believe Juan Diego's story, so Mary gave proof of her request by miraculously imprinting her image on the cactus fibre tilma that Juan Diego was wearing. The beautiful image is still on display today at the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

This weekend, the Church throughout the world prays for vocations.

Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for more vocations to the priesthood and religious life?

Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead.

Keep our parish priests in your prayers throughout the week.

Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS TO THE PRIESTHOOD

Send your Holy Spirit upon us, O Lord, that we may be holy.
In your mercy, guard and strengthen us to be disciples who witness to the Good News of Jesus.

Call forth from our community of the Church generous and loving shepherds after your own heart.

May they be zealous preachers of the Word;
faithful teachers of the Truth;
and devoted servants at the Altar.

Fill their hearts with love for you and your creation;
open their minds to a lifetime of learning; and make them
humble servants of your holy people.

For you, O God, are kind and merciful, and to you we offer glory, in your holy Church, now and forever. AMEN.

Everyone Has a Divine Vocation

“Jesus has a specific task in life for each and every one of us. Each one of us is hand-picked, called by name by Jesus! There is no one among us who does not have a divine vocation! Some are called audibly by God, but the usual kind of call is internal, through the inner working of the Spirit.” ~Homily by Pope Saint John Paul II

- ◆ Our Sacramental Program for Reconciliation and First Eucharist began this week with a well-attended and vibrant Information Evening. The first Sacramental Preparation Groups have begun (please see Page 6 for full details).
- ◆ This weekend we continue our final PWBB (Pastoral Works Broken Bay—previously CWF) appeal. This is the third and last appeal for the 2021/2022 Financial Year. Thanks you to those who generously donated to this appeal last weekend or through an automatic credit card deduction.

Wahroonga Parish has a quota of $13,821 to meet and any shortfall comes from Parish funds. Currently our shortfall is $8,000.00. All donations over $2 are 100% tax deductible. Please give generously if you can.

The Pastoral Works Broken Bay (previously Charitable Works Fund (CWF) is an appeal that supports 5 charities which make a difference to the lives of children and families in our Diocese. The PWBB is a Diocesan-wide Appeal that runs three times a year to raise funds for charities in the Diocese. The PWBB donates the funds across five groups that directly support people in our Diocese.

Hospital Chaplaincy - Designated Priests and lay Pastoral Care practitioners travel to seven hospitals in the Diocese to provide a listening ear, guidance, ritual, prayer and sacraments when required. This program exists to support people often in their most vulnerable times. Your generous donations fund this important ministry.

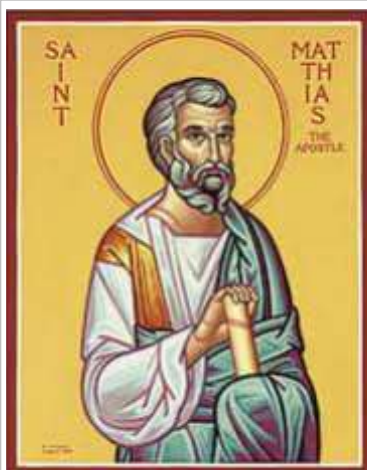

Confraternity for Christian Doctrine (CCD) - Over 1,000 volunteers received specialised training to serve over 21,000 Catholic students in public schools in the Diocese. CCD staff work tirelessly in providing quality Catholic education in both primary and high schools. Without your support thousands of students will not receive Catholic education.

St Lucy's School Wahroonga - St Lucy's School is a K- 6 Primary School to approximately 140 students with disabilities. Students at St Lucy's receive education with Catholic values along with the knowledge, attitudes and skills to flourish and participate fully in society.

St Edmund's College, Wahroonga - St Edmund's is a 7-12 high school for students with a wide range of disabilities including sensory impairment, intellectual disability and autism. St Edmunds creates a holistic learning environment incorporating academics and personal wellbeing through co-curricular activities.

The Ephpheta Centre - Ephpheta means "Be Open" and the Ephpheta Centre provides pastoral care, sacramental services, support and advocacy for all people who are deaf or hard of hearing. The chaplaincy team visits people confined to their homes, nursing homes, hospitals and those in prison, as well as friendship community gatherings

Saints we remember this week

St Matthias Feast Day 14 May

St. Matthias is the apostle chosen to replace Judas Iscariot (Acts 1:21-26). Little is known of his missionary activity, but tradition states that he preached in Judea (modern Israel), and on the shores of the Caspian Sea. He was either stoned to death in Jerusalem, or was martyred at Colchis or at Sebastopolis. St. Helen brought his relics to Rome, and some were transferred to Trier, Germany. He is credited with a Gospel and other discourses that have not been historically confirmed.

It's important to note that, since St. Matthias died in the first century, history can be murky. Some sources claim he died at Sebastopolis. Others say it was in Jerusalem. The relics brought to Rome by St. Helen may be those of another St. Matthias who was a bishop of Jerusalem.
