In him was life, and the life was the light of all people.
The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness
did not overcome it (John 1:4)

Ever-living God,

Jesus, your Beloved Son is the Light that burst forth from the darkness of the grave, the Light that can never be dimmed by selfishness or greed, or pain or death

Encircle us in this same light, O God, bathed in the waters of baptism, anointed and sent by your Spirit, nourished at the table of thanksgiving.

May our faith and hope shine brightly to fill every dark corner of the earth with the light of your love.

May we live this day with Easter joy, raised to new life with your Son, Jesus Christ, our Passover and our Peace, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Each day this week, let love light up your smile!

Shake your inner joy free to raise the spirits of someone who need to smile again.

Let them know, simply by your joyful presence, that life is a gift worth living.

By doing this you give active witness to the resurrection of Christ—without having to say a word!

Enjoy the Easter Egg Hunt following our 9.15am Easter Sunday Morning Mass! There will be coffee and tea, cakes and sweets to celebrate the greatest Feast of our Christian year!

With the end of Lent, the annual Project Compassion Appeal comes to an end. Project Compassion Boxes can be left in the basket provided at the entrance to the church or placed on any of the collection baskets.

At Christmas and Easter, it is possible to make a Christmas or Easter Offering. This money goes to the Clergy Remuneration, Retirement and Sick Priest Fund of the Diocese to assist in the upkeep and welfare of the priests of the Diocese. Envelopes for this purpose are available at the entrances to the church and can be placed on any of the collection baskets. If you have an automatic deduction in place for this, donations will be processed on Tuesday. Thank you.

We seek to grow as a Welcoming and Inclusive Community, supporting Life's Journey, through God's Grace and Mercy

From Fr David

Dear friends,

The joy of this Easter to you all! What a remarkable mystery we celebrate: the power of life over death; the power of presence over absence; the power of memory over forgetfulness. Christ lives! And he calls us personally and uniquely to awaken from our slumber, to live life in its fullness, and to recognise always fresh beginnings. This is the possibility inherent as we enter into our vulnerability and passion, which though he teaches us is necessary to open our hearts and minds to what is being offered us, is never the last word. And to this we cry, Amen! Alleluia!

We are so blest in our community by the generosity of so many who ensure that our ceremonies through Holy Week are as beautiful as they are. We thank all those who have worked behind the scenes: in our Parish Office; in our beautiful garden; in our splendid church and sacristy to ensure that everything has been in order for our celebration. We thank our magnificent choirs: our renowned Parish Schola under the musical direction of Walter Sutcliffe and coordination of Richard Fitzpatrick who ensure that our ceremonies have such dignity and beauty; our Pop-Up Choir under the direction of Chrissie Goldrick which fills our Easter Sunday morning with exuberance and gratitude. And we thank our many, many volunteers who have ministered to us in different ways throughout our liturgies this past week.

Easter is too amazing a Feast to be limited to one day! For this reason the Church attracts to it an Octave so that each day of the coming week may be celebrated as if it were Easter Sunday. Let us allow the meaning of this weekend to dwell within our hearts over this week, so that each of us may hear deep within us: Christ is Risen indeed! Alleluia! Alleluia!

50's And Over Singles Group

The recent outing by the group was to the Jewish Museum on Friday 23rd. March 2018 at Darlinghurst. The party met at Gordon Station at 10.15 am and caught the train to Town Hall Station where we changed and took a train to Kings Cross Station and then walked to the Museum.

The exhibition had diagrams showing the history of the Israelites as far back as the Pharaohs in Egypt and the various kings of Israel and the early prophets. There was also displays of early Jewish artefacts used in the religious ceremonies. There were extensive displays of the holocaust and internment of the Jewish people by the Nazis during the second world war.

After viewing the exhibition we had lunch in the Museum's cafe and then walked back to the station and caught a train back to the North Shore.

OUR NEXT OUTING.....

The next excursion for the group is to visit the Sydney Fish Markets and to do some sight seeing and to have lunch on Friday 27th April 2018. We will meet on the concourse of Gordon Station at 10.15 am and take the next train to Central Station. Next we catch the light rail to the Fish Market Station and alight here to go to the Markets. Once there we can have morning tea and then go for a stroll along the foreshore to take in the views of the Bay.

As lunch time draws near we will walk back to the Markets and have lunch at one of the venues. After lunch we could walk around the Markets seeing the various seafoods on sale and then catch the light rail back to Central, and then take a train back to the North Shore line to go home.

2018 Easter Message from Bishop Peter Comensoli

We proclaim a crucified Christ
1 Cor 1:23

Tuesday 27 March 2018

Greetings to you all in the Risen Lord!

The passion, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, God's Son, and our Lord and Brother, is the greatest story of human history. It is the story of the journey of one man, for the sake of all women and men.

Jesus made this journey so that his story might become ours. He did this that we might choose to walk with him. At his crucifixion, Jesus' mortal body stopped in death. But this was not his end. He conquered death and walked out of the tomb, the First Born from the dead. The Risen Lord then entered into his resurrected life at quite a pace. He walked up to Mary Magdalene and called her by name. He walked into the upper room where the disciples were and show them his glorified wounds.

He walked with his two downcast friends on the road to Emmaus, teaching them hope. And he walked along the shore of Lake Galilee one last time, to forgive Peter of his betrayal and to give Peter his apostolic mission.

There was no stopping the resurrected Jesus; and at each footstep along the way, he invited others to walk with him. Each one of us has been created to make a journey of our lives. The question is: Who will we choose as our companion along the way? And toward whom do we walk? In his death and resurrection, Jesus created a way for us to walk with him and towards him. Shall we take the journey with him?

Perhaps you would agree with me that there are aspects of our beloved Church in Australia today that have stopped us dead in our tracks; it can feel like we are not walking with Jesus. Yet, as the great Apologist G.K. Chesterton once put it, "Christianity has died many times and risen again; for it had a God who knew the way out of the grave."

At a time when the Church seems veiled in the darkness of the tomb, the light of Easter opens for us the discovery of a renewed path along which Jesus walks, and wants us to take. May we find the courage to walk into this future with healing grace, truthful hope and humble love, energised and guided by the presence of the crucified and risen Lord.

In the year ahead, I want to invite you to join with me on this journey with the Lord, one that might reveal to us where and how our local Church of Broken Bay is to walk with him. This local journey is being initiated this year as our local part of a shared journey for the entire Church in Australia, leading to a national assembly in 2020 – called a Plenary Council. By the grace of God, and through our listening to God and one another, we might come to see the path ahead, a way into our future that follows the Lord's desire for his people.

Friends, walk with Christ! Walk in his presence, and by his guiding light. He is our path from death to life, from the darkness of our tombs to a new light of grace. Walk with Christ! Happy Easter to you all!

Most Rev Peter A Comensoli
Bishop of Broken Bay

Did you know?

- The Paschal candle is a sacramental that symbolizes the Resurrected Lord.
- The paschal candle is one of the major symbols used during the Easter Vigil. It is made of pure wax and replaced each year.
- The Paschal candle has a place of prominence in the sanctuary of the Church during the glorious fifty days of the Easter season.
- The Paschal candle is blessed during the service of the light at the Easter Vigil and used for the blessing of the baptismal water on this solemn night.
- The Paschal candle is used two times in the life of every Catholic Christian. The day of our baptism and the day of our funeral. To highlight our dying and rising in Christ.

Spirit of St Lucy's

Last Friday we enjoyed our Whole School Swimming Carnival! This is a day when all our students from both the Wahroonga campus, and our Satellite classes, come to participate in three events. There's the Treasure Hunt, the Noodle Race and Volleyball. Parents come along to cheer and support the students, there are banners and signs and awards for all, and – most importantly – there is a lot of fun! Thank you to our PE Teacher, Mr Daniel Parkinson, for how he prepares the children to participate in this event through their weekly swim sessions, as well as the organisation that goes into enabling such a special occasion for our students and families. Mr Parkinson will be leaving us at the end of this Term after five years with the St Lucy's Community. What a special way to remember the legacy he leaves behind! We wish him every blessing!

Our Vinnies Team: A Message from Mark and Louise Boffa

About 20 years ago, our conference was entrusted with the care of the residents of Whalan. Whalan is near Mount DrUITT area along the M2 and M7 less than 40 minutes from here but quite some distance from our relatively comfortable way of life. Many of you have contributed to our work there via the Christmas hampers and of course donations – both material and financial. However we have a steadily reducing number of volunteers undertaking home visitations at Whalan. Every Tuesday and Saturday, we aim to have a team of two volunteers available to respond to calls for help from Whalan which are relayed to the Hornsby regional office, of which we are part.

People seek help from us for a variety of reasons, mainly:

Assistance with energy bills

Domestic difficulties

Hunger and lack of food

Sometimes while one of the above might be cited, it is actually loneliness that is behind the call.

We used to get some very long lists – my first visit to Whalan had 27 households on the list to visit that day. More recently however, our lists range from 5 to 15 households. These disadvantaged households often appear to be from another world:

Our clients are impacted by poverty, unemployment, ill health, poor education, drugs and alcoholism, criminal past – occasionally all of these within the one household. The situations that we encounter are very real but to us can appear made up. On one of my earliest visits I remember being greeted at the door by a young woman whose mother I thought we were visiting. It turned out that the young woman herself was actually the client - a 25 year old mother of eight children to five different fathers.

For some years, Louise and I have also been responding to local calls for help, which are much less frequent and somewhat less regular than the Whalan calls. While the reasons for local calls may differ slightly, despair does not discriminate - such as our recent experience of meeting late on a weeknight at the fountain in Hornsby with a young mother and her six children who had just escaped a violent domestic situation without identification, money or any other belongings and they needed our help to set up home locally.

Our visits to Whalan have at times been confronting and moving. We aim not to judge the people we assist, even though sometimes we know that they take advantage of our generosity. We are reminded constantly of the line "I was hungry and you fed me..." and we hang on to the thought that perhaps we have managed to bring positive change to at least one person over the years.

Today we would like you to consider volunteering for the Wahroonga conference. It will cost you just a bit of your time. Louise and I commit to the third Saturday of each month. Our work starts around 7.30am at the Church and we are normally back home around lunchtime.

At present we have 11 regular visitors trying to fill a roster that requires at least 20 people. We are also in need of volunteers to assist with local visits, bread collections and possibly administration. We always work in couples when visiting homes, and as I mentioned last week, that could be two members from the one family such as teenagers with their parents or even grandparents.

Might you be interested to join our Vinnies Team?

Do let the Parish Office know.
