Statement by Fr David Ranson Diocesan Administrator
On the NSW Reproductive Health Care Reform Bill 2019

Given that the Reproductive Health Care Reform Bill 2019 is currently being debated in the NSW Parliament, I wish to convey my strongest personal opposition to the proposed legislation in its current form. In so doing, I record also the formal objection of the Catholic community of the Diocese of Broken Bay.

The decriminalisation of abortion is one matter. The social factors in which the practice of abortion flourishes are complex and require our careful attention. The response to these requires a great deal of consideration in light of the often-difficult circumstances in which the decision for an abortion is made. However, the killing of life, with the liberal possibility allowed for in the proposed legislation, cannot make ours a more human society. If with legal sanction we kill those who are most vulnerable, either at the beginning or at the end of their life, we rob ourselves of our human dignity which is best demonstrated in a quality of care exercised even in the face of life's demand and challenge. Such an option represents a gross failure of social imagination and public moral leadership.

The widening of the scope of the practice of abortion, which the proposed legislation suggests, is unacceptable. A woman certainly has rights of her own body, as does a man. But both also have responsibility to protect the body of the separate life entrusted to them. That independent life is not of such little value that it can be arbitrarily extinguished often with the price of silent, life-long trauma of women who feel pressured to terminate their pregnancy and the life of the child they carry. Rights can never be promoted without responsibility. And what greater responsibility do we have than to care for life?

I urge you to sign the petition at the church entrance.

We seek to grow as a Welcoming & Inclusive Community, supporting Life's Journey, through God's Grace and Mercy

From Fr David

Dear friends,

The Reproductive Health Care Reform Bill has now passed the Lower House and is before the Legislative Council. It is a distressing development to consider that abortion is now available without impunity until birth. When does the practice of abortion not become infanticide? What kind of society have we become where human life is so devalued that it can become discarded simply on the basis of parents' choice of a child's gender? This is wrong. It is immoral.

Amendments are still possible to the legislation that might ensure at least some protections for children, for women and for doctors. I urge you to sign the petition available in the church.

On Friday morning our Diocese learnt of the distressing news that one of our retired priests, Carl Stafford, had pleaded guilty in the Sydney District Court to a number of indictments related to sexual abuse. Again, we are confronted with the awful spectre of this crime in our community. As the matters relate to the Parish of Gosford, I am with the community there this weekend. Please keep them in your prayer.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Chrissie Goldrick and her family on the death of her mother, Peggy Smyth, early last week. Peggy lived in the UK. Thankfully all of the Goldrick family are together here at the moment which is a great source of comfort to Chrissie. May Peggy now rest in peace.

Our warmest congratulations to David Combe who recently turned 90 during July! We do not often see David with us these days but he is the most wonderful English gentleman! It was a joy to be able to mark this great milestone at the Catenian Province 21 Dinner last Saturday.

This week, we will continue our CWF Appeal. Our quota for this financial year is $35,545 or around $11,848 per appeal. Any shortfall in meeting this quota is taken from parish funds, so please give generously if you can.

The August CWF Appeal focuses on the CatholicCare Hospital Chaplaincy & Pastoral Care programme - "The Catholic Church was there for my mother during her greatest trial". Sonia Patricia was diagnosed with Stage 4 ovarian cancer in 2014. Over the 18 months that she was in and out of hospital, she was visited by one of our CatholicCare Pastoral Care Practitioners at Gosford Hospital. This service supported Patricia and her family and we will remember her on the fourth anniversary of her death (4 August 2015). You can read more about their stories in the August edition of Broken Bay News.

The Charitable Works Fund is 100% tax deductible and 98.25 cents of every dollar goes to the following five beneficiaries:

- CatholicCare Hospital Chaplaincy and Pastoral Care Practitioner Program – where 5 Pastoral Care Practitioners reach over 3,000 patients, 700 families and over 180 hospital staff each year across 7 hospitals in our Diocese.
- Confraternity of Christian Doctrine – creating and updating the curriculum and training catechists who minister to public school students across the Diocese.
- St Lucy's School – for primary school students with disabilities.
- St Edmund's School – for secondary school students with disabilities.
- Ephpheta Centre – serving the Catholic deaf community

A huge thank you to James Goldrick and friends from St James Anglican Church for the wonderful recital on the Mander organ last Sunday.

*God grant me the serenity
To accept the things I cannot change;
Courage to change the things I can;
And wisdom to know the difference.*
