Welcome!

A very warm welcome to anyone visiting our parish. It is good to have you with us. If you have any questions or would like to know more about our community at Holy Name please visit our parish website at www.holynamewahroonga.com.au. We hope you enjoy your time here at Holy Name Wahroonga. Please visit us again soon.

This Sunday

Year 5 host our Family Mass this Sunday morning. We welcome the students, their teachers, families and friends and invite you to join them for morning tea following Mass.

The next meeting of the Dominican Laity will be held this Sunday in the Sunroom at 1.00 pm. All are welcome.

CHARITABLE WORKS FUND appeal continues this weekend. 98.25 cents of every dollar goes to the following five beneficiaries:

CatholicCare Hospital Chaplaincy and Pastoral Care

Practitioner Program – where five Pastoral Care Practitioners reach over 3,000 patients, 700 families and over 180 hospital staff each year across seven hospitals in our Diocese.

Confraternity of Christian Doctrine – creating and updating the curriculum and training catechists who minister to public school students across the Diocese.

St Lucy's School – for primary school students with disabilities.

St Edmund's School – for secondary school students with disabilities.

Ephpheta Centre – serving the Catholic deaf community.

Our quota for 2018-2019 is $33,000 and any shortfall must be met by parish funds. Please contribute if you haven't already.

The Charitable Works Fund is 100% tax deductible

Solemnity of the Assumption A Holy Day of Obligation Wednesday 15th August

The Assumption of the Virgin Mary into Heaven, often shortened to the Assumption and also known as the Falling Asleep of the Blessed Virgin Mary, was the bodily taking up of the Virgin Mary into Heaven at the end of her earthly life. The Catholic Church teaches that the Virgin Mary "having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory".

On Wednesday Fr Johny will celebrate Masses at 9.15am and 11.00am
At our 11.00am Mass we will be joined by Prouille School and St Edmund's College. All welcome.

Last Friday, 3rd August Fr David Ranson was elected Diocesan Administrator by the Diocesan College of Consultors - see Page 4 to read Fr David's letter to the Parish.

We seek to grow as a Welcoming and Inclusive Community, supporting Life's Journey, through God's Grace and Mercy

In Fr David's Absence

Around the world there are women's shelters run by the St Vincent de Paul Society called 'Manna House'. It's an inspired name for such an important work. Women and their children, in the midst of fear, and having suffered terrible abuse, are welcomed into a safe-haven where they can be loved and looked after. It's a temporary respite where broken families can piece their lives back together and be revived for the journey ahead.

What happens at 'Manna Houses' for women at risk happens for each of us when we come to the Eucharist. We receive manna from heaven. It's our stop on the journey of faith so that we can go out spiritually revived to be the face of Christ in the world. Sometimes we need this 'manna come down from heaven' when we are spiritually most at-risk.

I love the fact that as Catholics we believe that Christ is present in ordinary gifts of bread and wine blessed and offered at the Eucharist. We don't just believe that Christ is present in sunrises, sunsets and in natural beauty, we also believe that God comes to us in a special and unique way in the simple, ordinary things of life. And it is in what we do with these gifts of bread and wine that Christ is really present. The earliest Christians called the Eucharist 'the breaking of the bread'. It is the broken bread and the poured cup given into our hands to which we say 'Amen' and so affirm our belief that Christ is present here.

We often need to be reassured of Christ's presence when we are in the desert periods of our own life. We can feel we are wandering around in the wilderness looking for some sign of God's life. For all of us who are broken in mind, body or spirit, or who are pouring ourselves out in love for other people, communion is precisely the time Jesus meets us where we are. Is it any wonder that the Eucharist means so much to us? May we never feel as though we are not good enough to be here, for Jesus has invited us to his table where we are loved and cared for.

As important as the Eucharist is, however, it is not 'ours', in the sense that we can selfishly hold on to the gifts we receive here. We are given Christ in Word and Sacrament, so we can become Christ. In a sense Jesus says the same thing in today's Gospel when he talks about how the Father draws people to faith.

Sometimes we can fall into the trap of thinking that faith is only an intellectual exercise. As important as good thinking and the power of strong arguments might be, the truth of faith is best demonstrated on an emotional and intuitive level when others see the power of God's saving love active in the way we live our lives. This is what really captures people's attention, and draws them to ask what gives our lives this quality, direction, purpose and meaning.

So may this respite from the journey of faith dispel our fears, revive us for the task ahead and enable us to live as though the only Bible others will read will be our lives, and the only Sacraments that will captivate them and draw them to Christ will be our justice and joy.

Richard Leonard SJ

From Fr David - Diocesan Administrator

3 August 2018
Feast of Saint Dominic

My dear friends, brothers and sisters of Holy Name Parish,
At our farewell dinner with Archbishop Peter Comensoli on 25 July, I prayed in the Grace before the meal:

We give thanks for your Spirit which constantly interrupts our plans,
For the way in which the disruptions of our life invite us into yet further possibility,
For your belief in us which extends our horizons with constancy and confidence.

The inclusion of this verse has had particular poignancy for me since I saw you last at the end of June. As you know, the news of Archbishop Peter's appointment to Melbourne came right on the eve of my planned sabbatical leave. The development has invariably had a significant impact on my plans. Though I was able to spend a few days with my father in Tasmania at the beginning of July the remainder of the month was spent preparing for Archbishop Peter's farewell and the conclusion of his all- too-short a term as our Shepherd. I am happy to share with you, however, that, even in the midst of all the requirements of July, I have managed a good rest, and continue to enjoy a more relaxed pace of life for the moment. So, all has not been lost!

Following Archbishop Peter's installation as the 9th Archbishop of Melbourne in a most memorable event last Wednesday, 1 August, the Diocesan College of Consultors, the group of priests who have a particular role in the canonical and civil governance of the Diocese, met on the 3 August, according to the norms of the Church's canon law, to elect a Diocesan Administrator to lead our Diocese until such time as the Holy Father provides us with a new Bishop. The choice has fallen to me. My service as Diocesan Administrator took effect immediately. This, therefore, has meant that I have regretfully had to cancel my plans to be overseas in August whilst I begin to think through the management of the many affairs of the Diocese. In the life of discipleship, it pays to be flexible and adaptive!

Importantly, I want to assure you, that even with this new appointment I will continue to be Parish Priest of our beloved Holy Name Parish. With immense gratitude to the Carmelite Fathers from St Ives Parish, particularly Fr Greg, Fr Sunny and Fr Johny, I will maintain my arrangement for leave from the Parish until early September. However, then I will return as planned to lead us into the many great initiatives and events we have planned for our community before the end of the year and beyond. From mid-September I will, though, seek the appointment of an Assistant Priest to the Parish who might attend to the pastoral life of the community especially through the weekdays. Deacon Adrian will also continue to be with us during our Sunday liturgies.

It is a singular grace for me and a privilege to be able to lead our Diocese at this time. We journey together in this period of waiting and anticipation for a new Bishop, though from all accounts this period may extend to 12 or 18 months.

I look forward to seeing you all as planned in another month's time. In the meantime, I express my heartfelt thanks to all those who are working so hard for the benefit of our Parish community in my absence.

Please pray for me that the Spirit will guide me well in the exercise of this interim service of leadership to our local Church of Broken Bay.

With my deep affection for you all,

Fr David

August Safeguarding Message

"A child – focused complaints process is an important strategy for helping children and others in institutions to make complaints." (Royal Commission, Final Report 2017)
This means;

- The process is not slow in addressing the concern/complaint,
- children know who to speak to if they have a concern/complaint,
- children are listened to, they are believed, they are supported and children feel comfortable and empowered by the complaints process
