14th July - 15th SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME

Dear friends,

We spend a great deal of our lives preparing and learning as we pass through each stage of life. Born into the world as a helpless baby, we mature through the love and concern of our parents and others. Each stage of life presents age related tasks for us to face in overcoming our fears and doubts. No life is mistake proof, and we learn how to get better at life's tasks by making mistakes and learning from them how to do it better next time.

Today in the gospel of St Mark (Mk 6:7-13) Jesus is preparing the disciples for the next stage of their journey by sending them out in pairs to proclaim the Kingdom of God. Obviously, the disciples are ready for the task of preaching otherwise Jesus wouldn't have sent them out. I imagine they were fairly nervous and realized how vulnerable they would be to failure. And yet, Jesus has some very wise words for them: 'If people do not welcome you and they refuse to listen to you, as you leave shake the dust from your feet as a sign to them.' The message of Jesus is: don't get disheartened. Those to whom they preach may not be ready yet, or they failed to understand your message.

The message they preach is about Jesus and His Kingdom. And Jesus preached this message, often rejected and misunderstood, he continued to preach the message of the kingdom despite its joyful and inclusive nature.

In 2024, while we may feel overwhelmed by the voice of social media and the pressures of society to undermine values and beliefs inherent in the words and teaching of Jesus, we, as the disciples being sent out now and our message is sustained and nurtured through the empowering love of the Holy Spirit. It was St. Francis of Assisi who said: 'when you preach, you may even have to use words.' It is our witness to the example of Christ which makes us the true bearers of his message to others.

Blessings,

Fr. Kelvin
