A Prayer for a Year of Discernment 2019

Lord Jesus, you are the life of our community.
You refresh us and lead us in the right paths.
You established the Church to be your body in the world,
to carry forward your mission
and bear radiant witness to your love.

Give us the grace to support and nurture one another as we discern and exercise the spiritual gifts you have given.

Give us the courage to speak boldly of your truth and listen humbly to one another as we seek to live according to the Spirit.

May we discover anew the path on which you are calling us, so we may become a channel of God's mercy and love for our neighbour and the communities in which we live.

Lead your Church into a hope-filled future,
to discern with wisdom and to live the Gospel with joy.

Guide us on the pilgrim way of the Plenary Council,
and unite us to your loving purposes.

Amen.

*Our Lady Help of Christians, pray for us.
St Mary Mackillop, pray for us.*

In Fr David's Absence

REFLECTION by Fr Michael Tate

The Neighbourliness of Global Citizens
The Gift of Resurrection Life

The lawyer asked a self-serving question: 'Who is my neighbour?' He could then set the limits, the boundaries of those close enough to merit his concern. Jesus replies with a story to show that the better question is: 'To whom should I be neighbourly?'

The answer is: To any person who is wounded in any way – physically, psychologically, socially, economically. And we have to do so overcoming the labelling, even bigotry, which can conveniently put a person outside the range of our concern. When we act like the Samaritan, we deserve the title 'Catholic' which means universal.

Pope Francis says that Christ is constantly inviting us, as he invited Thomas, to touch His wounds which are to be found in the wounded of our own time.

We could pause for a moment to thank God that we live in an age of technology which can enable us to be truly Catholic global citizens practising Mercy Without Borders. 'Do this and you will live.'

Apostleship of the Sea Sunday (Sea Sunday) - 14 July On Sea Sunday, the church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Stella Maris, Apostleship of the Sea, is the official maritime welfare agency of the Catholic Church that supports seafarers both practically and spiritually, attending to their welfare in many ports around Australia and elsewhere through Stella Maris Centres and Chaplaincies. Chaplains, volunteers and staff visit to speak to the ship's crew, offer friendship, arrange Mass and attend Mass with them, listen to their needs, and provide access to Wi-Fi or Internet so they can contact their families. Hospitality within Stella Maris centres is also offered which provides an important break from work routines onboard. An annual appeal runs on this day to support this ministry. Donate by credit card, bank transfer or cheque at bit.ly/SeaSundayAppeal – or you may simply post us a cheque, payable to "Apostleship of the Sea". Please include your name and contact details and send to: Apostleship of the Sea, Sea Sunday Appeal 2019, GPO Box 368, Canberra, ACT, 2601. All donations above $2 are tax deductible.
