In Fr David's Absence

Gospel Reflection by Greg Sunter

This account of the sending out of the twelve disciples appears in all three of the synoptic gospels (Matthew, Mark and Luke) and so originates from the Gospel of Mark. It is a commissioning of the disciples to spread the ministry of Jesus – teaching, healing and casting out demons. It seems rather harsh conditions under which Jesus sends out his disciples. They are to carry nothing but a staff – a walking stick – and to trust completely to the hospitality that they will encounter. For the disciples going out on their mission, it is a challenge to their faith and their trust that God will provide for them. The act of sending out the disciples can also be seen as a challenge to the towns and people that the disciples visited. A challenge for them to fulfil their duty of hospitality – of welcoming the stranger and caring for those in need. By travelling without a ‘fallback position’ the disciples are utterly at the mercy of those they encounter but there is an implicit demand on the other to extend hospitality to the one who seeks it.

How would the disciples be greeted in our world today if they arrived in a country or town with no food, no possessions and calling on the hospitality of the place in which they had arrived? Does this sound familiar? There are refugees and asylum seekers who arrive on our borders and seek the hospitality of our country. They are fleeing inhospitality – often starvation, war, persecution, poverty – and they ask for welcome and hospitality. Unfortunately, in the culture of fear and intolerance that has developed, they are not met with welcome and hospitality; they are met with obstacles, rejection and ill treatment.

This seems an odd event in the narrative of the Gospel of Mark. The twelve are sent out and we are told that they ‘cast out many devils, and anointed many sick people with oil and cured them’. After a diversion to explain the fate of John the Baptist the gospel picks up again by simply stating that the disciples returned and reported all they had done. There is no explanation of why Jesus sent them out; no indication of how long they travelled; no evidence of what reception they were given. This was a prelude to the later ministry that would be performed; it was an instruction by Jesus for how the mission was to be carried on.

It is interesting that the disciples were sent out in pairs. It is indicative of the fact that such ministry is difficult to accomplish alone. When we are engaged in ministry it is important that we seek and provide mutual support.

Whether it is a hospitality ministry at Sunday Mass, visiting the sick, or a street ministry to the homeless, we will feel more confident and willing to reach out to others if we know that we are sharing that ministry and are supported by others. It is important to invite others to join in our ministry but it is also important to make sure that we support them as they enter into it.

Upcoming Events

Sun 21 Oct	Annual Blessing of Animals
Sun 28 Oct	Celebration of our 70th Anniversary as a Parish with the Blessing of our Bell

Practical Arrangements whilst Fr David is on Sabbatical

The clergy of the Parish of St Ives will most graciously support us during my absence. Fr Greg Chee, Parish Priest of St Ives, has been appointed Administrator of our Parish for the term of my absence, and Fr Sunny Peackal Abraham and Fr Johny Arattukulam will celebrate the sacramental and liturgical life of our community. Fr Sunny will serve us from 3-16 July, Fr Johny from 17 July - 29 August, and Fr Sunny again from 30 August to 10 September. The after hours parish phone number will be diverted to the priests concerned, in the event that there are any sick calls and pastoral emergencies.

Our wonderful Parish Secretary, Jackie Thornton, and our new Deacon Adrian Gomez will hold the ship steady throughout! The Parish Office will be the primary point of contact for any ordinary administrative matters of the community to ensure helpful coordination, and Jackie has been well briefed on the many practical elements that require attention in my absence. Should there be any practical or pastoral emergency, Jackie is equipped to act as a triage! Obviously, I have pared back a number of our normal activities during the period of my absence so that the least burden may be experienced by others. To this end, for example:

- ◆ A Liturgy of the Word with Communion will continue to be celebrated on a Monday morning at 9.15am;
- ◆ The Blessed Sacrament will not be placed in the Aquinas Chapel on a Tuesday;
- ◆ The Sacrament of Anointing will not be celebrated again until my return.

We wish Fr Sunny a very safe and happy holiday to India and welcome Fr John who will join us from Tuesday of this week.
