as I have loved you

Sunday 19 May 2019 - Fifth Sunday of Easter

Holy Name Catholic Parish

DIOCESE OF BROKEN BAY

35 Billyard Avenue Wahroonga 2076

Web | www.holynamewahroonga.com.au

Welcome!

A very warm welcome to anyone visiting our parish. It is good to have you with us. If you have any questions or would like to know more about our community at Holy Name please visit our parish website at www.holynamewahroonga.com.au.

Next Sunday, 26th May we celebrate our HOPE Mass. Families and children from St Lucy's and St Edmund's will host this Mass.

May Annual Mass Count

Throughout the month of May the Annual Mass Count is taken throughout the whole of Australia. This gives us the sense of trends both in parishes and in dioceses. If you see people wandering around the church counting the number of people at Mass, this is the reason!

Liturgical Ministries Seminars

We have commenced our series of Seminars of Ministries for weekend Masses, with Eucharistic Ministers. All are welcome—including existing ministers plus anyone interested in being involved.

We will run through the practicalities of the ministry, as well as the spiritual importance of the ministry, plus any questions or concerns.

- * Sunday 26th May, 4pm Readers
- * Sunday 2nd June, 4pm Servers
- * Sunday 9th June, 4pm Acolytes

Attendance does not mean you have to commit. Each session is planned to run for an hour.

Preparation for First Communion

Our First Communion candidates commence the first of their 3 preparation groups this weekend and join us at our 5.00pm Mass. There is a sausage sizzle after Mass and everyone is welcome!

Our children will receive the Sacrament of the Eucharist on the weekend of 1-2 June. See Page 4 for further details.

Thank you for your generosity with our final 2018-2019 Charitable Works Fund Appeal. We reached our requested quota for this financial year.

This Thursday, 23rd May at 2.00pm -
Senior Ladies Meeting in the Sunroom.

Holy Hour
Each Friday evening at 7.00pm - 8.00pm
All welcome

*We seek to grow as a
Welcoming and Inclusive Community, supporting Life's Journey, through God's Grace and Mercy*

From Fr David

Dear friends,

This weekend I am enjoying a birthday celebration in Singapore! I have never been to the city before so it will be a very special occasion. Thank you, once again, to everyone for their generosity at my recent celebration which has been of great assistance towards this little trip. And my deep gratitude to Fr Anselam for the way in which he keeps our parish afloat in the midst of all my different absences. He is a great gift to me—and to us all!

A thank-you to all those who assisted in the preparation of our beautiful roses last Sunday for Mothers' Day. What a special treat it was to be able to give each of our Mothers a gift for the day! The roses were beautifully prepared, replete with butterfly!

Many may have been wondering what has happened to Deacon Adrian Gomez since his return from overseas in January. Since then, Deacon Adrian has been discerning his ministry in light of his work and family commitments. Through our conversations, we have realised that the weekend commitment to our parish was quite an inroad on his family life and we have therefore been considering an alternative ministry for him. Deacon Adrian will now express his diaconal ministry primarily through this engagement with the Office of the Marriage Tribunal, and with a new appointment to the Catholic Youth Broken Bay team in the diocese. We thank Adrian for the short time that he has been with us in 2018. We have been enriched by his energy and his preaching. And now we wish him the very best in this new development for his ministry.

We are looking for parishioners who may be interested in joining the "Prayers of the Faithful" roster.

At present there are 5 of us who rotate each week to compose the prayers and we would welcome anyone interested to join the roster. You will be given resources to assist you. It is a valuable ministry in our parish. I am happy to be contacted on 0418 603 658, 9449 4998 or jodsg@tpg.com.au if you have further questions

Thank you, Jane Geier

Forthcoming Seminars for our Liturgical Ministries

In the coming weeks we are offering seminars for a number of our weekend ministries, all in the sunroom:

- * Sunday 26th May, 4pm Readers
- * Sunday 2nd June, 4pm Servers
- * Sunday 9th June 4pm Acolytes

The idea is to give our teams an opportunity to further understand and discuss their ministries. Material will be provided, and updated guidelines distributed. Fr. David will be at all sessions. Whilst it is expected that it will be mainly existing ministers that attend- all are welcome. In the case of Acolytes and Servers we are looking for more volunteers, so those seminars are an ideal opportunity for anyone interested in being involved (attendance does not mean you have to commit). Walking in oneness with Our Saviour requires cultivation through the Language of Love, which is prayer. Intimate prayer brings us out of this world and lifts us up into a wonderful place of love in the presence of Our God.

"In your presence there is fullness of Joy; At your right hand are pleasures forevermore." (Psalm 16: 10,11)

Let us come together to enjoy the presence of Our Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit in a "Miracle Hour Of Prayer" on Saturday 25th May following the 5.00pm Mass in the Parish Sunroom, Holy Name Church Wahroonga. In this method of prayer, the time is divided into 12 five-minute segments:

- 1) Praise
- 2) Singing to the Lord
- 3) Spiritual Warfare
- 4) Surrender
- 5) Release of the Holy Spirit
- 6) Repentance
- 7) Forgiveness
- 8) Scripture Reflection
- 9) Waiting for the Lord to speak
- 10) Intercessions
- 11) Petitions
- 12) Thanksgiving

I gladly look forward to joining with you in the Miracle Hour Prayer.

Refurbishment of our Confessional

For the past several years I have been committed to refurbishing our Room for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Our current room is not adequate by today's standards: there is no glass in consideration of the Penitent, and there is only one entrance which is not safe for the Confessor. The expectation today is that Confessionals have at least an opaque glass panel which provides some transparency that the room is in use. Thankfully, a very generous parishioner has offered to provide this refurbishment with the design that is on the right hand side below. We express our enormous gratitude to them. The design will have the following features: it allows for two entries—one for the Confessor and one for the Penitent; the opaque glass will not render visible who is in the Confessional but will provide some transparency that the Confessional is in use; the interior of the room will remain as it currently is with the possibility of either confession behind a screen or face to face with the Confessor. Whilst retaining the current screen inside the room, we will look to repaint the room and to enhance the furnishings.

What is envisaged on the eastern side of the church for our Confessional will be duplicated on the western side to ensure aesthetic integrity. The room on the western side of the church, which currently is a store room for chairs, will be converted into a spiritual library for the community. We will need to think about how to store the chairs! However, the other advantage of the glass panels, on both sides of the church, is that they will admit of more light into the church itself, and 'lift' the interior of the church further.

Any change to our beautiful church can raise questions. However, I am hopeful that this particular renewal of our room for the Sacrament of Reconciliation will be a special enhancement of our church. Fr David

Spirit of St Lucy's

Mother's Day Liturgy

Last Friday, the children at St Lucy's held a very special liturgy for their very special mums! The liturgy was one way we could give thanks to God for the gift of mothers, and show our appreciation through song, prayer and posters! After the liturgy, each class was taken to the Mother's Day stall to choose a lovely gift for each child to give to their mum on Mother's Day! We hope all mums enjoyed their Mother's Day on Sunday!

Family Drug Support

Family Drug Support is a not for profit organisation that provides non-judgemental, non-directive support and information to families and friends of drug users across Australia. It was founded in 1997 by Tony Trimmingham following the loss of his son to a heroin overdose. In searching for support for himself and his family, he realised that there was very little available. Overwhelming response to a public meeting he organised led to the formation of Family Drug Support.
