19th February, 2023 - 7th SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME

Dear friends,

This week we've witnessed some tragic scenes on the border of Turkey and Syria as a result of last week's devastating earthquake. Many thousands of people were killed when buildings collapsed and there was little hope of finding people alive under the rubble. But we've also seen miracles where many have been pulled from the collapsed buildings alive. Despite the cold temperatures and days of being buried under the debris many people, especially children have been pulled to safety.

The lengths to which rescuers will go to preserve human life is exceptional. When we consider that in other parts of our world, human life seems to be expendable and unessential. We also praise the response of countries who have responded to help the relief effort in the face of such tragedy. It highlights for us the power of good to overcome adversity in the face of natural disasters.

In this week's gospel from Matthew (Mt 5:38-48), Jesus speaks to us about love of enemies. The challenge for each one of us is to go beyond the old law of revenge and retribution-'an eye, for an eye,' and embrace the creation of a better world where we are capable of loving our neighbour.

Jesus's teaching is opening the human heart to be like God, who, causes his sun and rain to fall on bad and good alike. So we, are being called to put aside our limited vision of retaliation and payback, and reach out to people as the presence of God in this world. As followers of Jesus, we too can reach out people in this world, a reach which goes beyond race, borders and faith.

Blessings, Fr. Kelvin

Appeal for Catechists

Once a week during the school term parishioners from Holy Name go into our local state schools to teach the roughly 300 Catholic children enrolled at Warrawee and the Bush School. This is a beautiful and very rewarding ministry and one that is gratefully received by the children and their parents. Despite the availability of Ethics classes and other alternatives, many parents continue to want their children to learn about their faith.

We teach at Warrawee on Wednesday morning and the Bush School on Thursday morning and the lessons are 30 minutes. A curriculum with resources for both teacher and children is supplied and training is offered by the Diocese. We have a wonderful group of catechists doing this but many are taking multiple classes or teaching a combined group as we need more volunteers.

We would love some new helpers and there is opportunity to be an assistant to an experienced catechist. Please let me know if you are interested or have any questions, or contact Jackie in the office. I will speak at Mass in the coming weeks about being a Catechist and will bring along the course materials for you to see. Hayley 0438 948 947

What does it mean to be a catechist?

The root word, "catechesis," is from a Greek word meaning
"to echo, or resound."

Catechesis is the act of resounding or bringing the Church's teachings to the world.

A catechist is one who teaches in the name of the Church.
