20th February - 7th SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME

From Fr Paul

At the 9.30am Sunday Mass, we especially farewell and thank Fr Anselam for his ministry to us at Holy Name, Wahroonga. We thank him for his care, his generosity and support of parish life.

Congratulations to Cecilia Kean on her generous service as a Catechist for forty years. Cecilia will receive a special award on 26th February. Thank you to all those who continue in various ministries, works and groups that make up the life of our Holy Name parish community

Welcome to the 40 parents who attended the Parent Information Night for the Sacramental Program, beginning with the preparation for Confirmation with those in Grade Four and older. Welcome also to those who are unable to attend that evening and who will be part of the program.

Lent begins with Ash Wednesday on 2nd March. We shall celebrate two Masses at Holy Name at 9.15am and 7.30pm. Our Catholic schools will also be catered for. I encourage everyone to consider what they will do to “keep a good Lent”. All are invited to the special Lenten gathering. (See details on Page 4 in Bulletin)

On 27th February, the Sunday before Lent, we shall have a BBQ after the 9.30am Mass. Thanks to the men who have volunteered to set up and cook.

We look forward to the World Day of Prayer to be held at St John’s Uniting Church, Wahroonga, on Friday 4th March at 11am. (See Page 5 and the poster in the foyer of the Church)

Condolences to Antonella Foti and family on the passing of Antonella’s father, who funeral was conducted on Friday 18 February and to the family of Angelina De Gupte, whose funeral will be conducted at Holy Name on Tuesday, 22 February.

Congratulations on the Baptism of Mia Vivienne Paton. Mia was baptised on Saturday.

Last week we heard Jesus proclaim the “upside down” values of the Kingdom of God. He warns that pursuing riches, possessions, power and pleasure does not always bring deep joy and contentment. In the Gospel today we hear Jesus say “love your enemies, pray for those who hate you.” In other words, we are called to love as God loves. This is the work of a life time, and requires us to rely on God’s grace. This love in the Greek is referred to as “agape” – a love that is never self-seeking, but that always seeks the highest good of the other. May we continue to be open to grow as people who bring this love to our marriages and families, and to all our dealings with others.

With my prayers and best wishes for all the Parishioners of Holy Name, Fr Paul

What do the readings say to us this Sunday?

First Reading (1 Samuel 26:2, 7-9, 12-13, 22-23). David turns down an opportunity to kill Saul because he believes it would not be right before God.

Second Reading (1 Corinthians 15:45-49). Paul draws parallels between Adam and Christ: to Adam we owe the life of earth; to Christ the life of heaven.

Gospel (Luke 6:27-38). Jesus highlights the obligations of the command to “love your neighbour” – even to the duty of loving one’s enemy.

Because of his great successes on the battlefield, David was very popular with the people. As a result, Saul saw him as a threat and sought to kill him. The First Reading contains the moving story of how David had an opportunity to kill Saul, but refused to do so because in his eyes Saul, as king of Israel, was a sacred person.

This passage prepares us for the Gospel, which contains Jesus’ injunction to love our enemies. Jesus goes on to stress the obligations of true charity. The ideal of love to which his followers must aspire is that of God himself. We are to love as God loves.

Jesus’ vision of human behaviour is at such variance with the view most people have: many people regard it as impossible to love so generously, and therefore ignore it. From a human point of view it is unachievable. We must rely on the grace of God.

Quote of the Week reflecting Sunday’s Gospel

The wall hanging in Mother Teresa’s Office (St Teresa of Calcutta 1910-1997)

*People are often unreasonable, illogical, and self-centred;
... Forgive them anyway!

*If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives; ... Be kind anyway!

*If you are successful, you will win some false friends and some true enemies; ... Succeed anyway!

*If you are honest and frank, people may cheat you;
... Be honest and frank anyway!

*What you spend years building, someone could destroy overnight; ... Build anyway!

*If you find serenity and happiness, they may be jealous;
... Be happy anyway!

*The good you do today, people will often forget tomorrow;
... Do good anyway!

*Give the world the best you have, and it may never be enough; ...
Give the world the best you’ve got anyway!*

You see, in the final analysis, it is between you and God;
It was never between you and them anyway.

Reading the Bible

DIFFICULTY READING THE BIBLE?

Have you ever struggled to read the Bible? I know I have! I can't tell you how many times I've picked up my Bible, read a few chapters into the Old Testament and gave up. The Bible can be hard to comprehend for all of us, and it can be even more difficult to find the time. There is a solution!

Fr Mike Schmitz, a priest from the USA, has released a podcast called "Bible in a Year" – which quickly rose last year to become the most listened to podcast in the world! Fr Paul and I have been listening to the podcast each day ourselves, and we have both found it wonderfully engaging and helpful. I, myself, have begun to appreciate more than ever, the riches contained in the Word of God. If you've ever struggled to read the Scriptures, I encourage you to begin "Bible in a Year." Lent is just around the corner, it might be the perfect time to start!

It is broken into 365 episodes, each about 30-mins each.

They can be listened to on your smartphone or on the computer. For more information, go to:

<https://media.ascensionpress.com/all-bible-in-a-year-episodes/>

If you wish to read along while you listen:

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION FOR FEBRUARY

FOR RELIGIOUS SISTERS AND CONSECRATED WOMEN

We pray for religious sisters and consecrated women, thanking them for their mission and their courage; may they continue to find new responses to the challenges of our times.

We remember this week

The Chair of St Peter— Feast Day 22 February

St Peter is named first among the apostles of Jesus; he was often their spokesman and leader; he was the first to preach after Pentecost; and he was the leader in defending Christ and his message. Peter was at the Transfiguration and in the garden.

He proclaimed to Jesus, “You are the Christ,” and Christ singled him out:

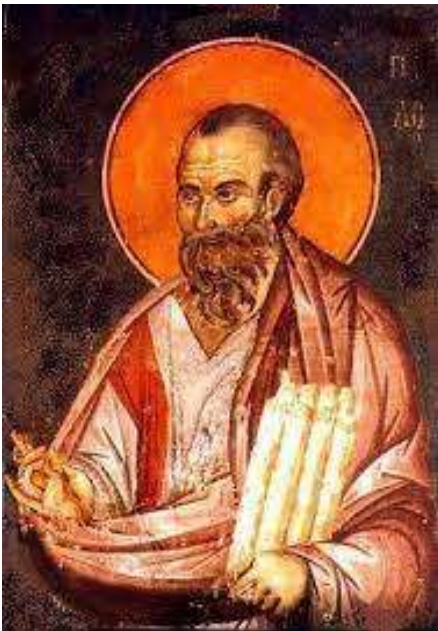

“So I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.” (Matthew 16:18–19)

Jesus prayed for Peter that he might strengthen his brothers. (Luke 22:32) And Jesus gave Peter a threefold commission to “[f]eed my sheep.” (John 21:15–17)

From the beginning, the uniqueness of St Peter has been recognised. On the feast of the Chair of Peter, we celebrate our unity as a Church. We celebrate the love, presence, and protection of Christ for us, the Church. The title Chair of Peter refers to the chair from which a bishop presided, a symbol of his authority. When the title refers to Saint Peter, it recalls the supreme teaching power of Peter and his successors. It is from the chair, from the pastoral power given him, that the Pope shepherds Christ’s flock.

St Polycarp—Feast Day 23 February

The story of Polycarp’s martyrdom is the earliest recorded account of a Christian martyr.

St Polycarp was a disciple of St. John the apostle. While still quite young, he became a Bishop and was one of the most respected leaders in the first half of the second century. St. Ignatius of Antioch and St. Irenaeus spoke highly of him, and people loved him very much.

He was a Christian leader in a non Christian world. He spoke clearly and simply, fearless in love and defence of Christ, even though persecutions raged around him. He sought only to hand on the message he had been given by John. Even as Polycarp prepared for martyrdom, his joy and confident trust were evident.

Polycarp was seized for being a Christian. Persecution and death would not tear him away from Jesus now. The crowd demanded that he be left to the lions, but instead he was sentenced to death by fire. An eyewitness account claims that the flames didn’t harm him. He was finally killed by the sword, and his body was burned.

The community of believers celebrated the anniversary of Polycarp’s death with great joy, for in him they had seen an outstanding example of love and patience. He had held strong and had won the treasure of eternal life. St Polycarp is remembered as an Apostolic Father, one who was a disciple of the apostles.
