20 June 2021— 12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

From Fr Paul

This past week Deacon Sam, Fr Anselam and I attended the Broken Bay Clergy Conference. We gathered each day for Morning and Evening prayer, Adoration and Mass.

Each of the three deacons preparing for priestly ordination was invited to give the homily at Mass. In his homily, Deacon Sam reflected: “One downside of living in prosperity is that we prioritise busyness and productivity over stillness, comfort over discipline, and consumption over giving to others. In today’s Gospel (Matthew Ch 6), Jesus provides the antidote to just that. The three ways of staying close to him and his mission – prayer, fasting and almsgiving.”

Each morning the Bishop spoke to us about our identity and ministry as Priests and Deacons called by God to serve the people of Broken Bay.

Each afternoon we attended workshops focusing on our pastoral ministry:
Marriage and the Marriage Tribunal;

Collaborating with Catholic Schools Broken Bay (CSBB) in the mission Catholic Education;

Working with the diocesan Office of Evangelisation in the following areas:

Catechesis and special religious education in our public schools;

youth and young adults ministry;

marriage, parenting and family life;

and renewal in parish life and faith formation.

Thank you to the Discalced Carmelites at St Ives for their assistance this past week: to Fr Sunny for celebrating the morning Masses and to Fr Gerard Moran for celebrating the Requiem Mass and funeral on Wednesday of parishioner George Doherty.

A reminder that the parish is now enrolling in the Sacramental Program for Confirmation. Please see Page 4 of the bulletin for further details.

Next Thursday we welcome to the parish, Fr Michael Fallon msc who will celebrate the 9:15am Mass and then attend the “Come As You Are” discussion group in the sunroom. All are welcome to join in.

Best wishes to the schools within the parish for the final week of the term. We then wish the children, students, staff and families a good holiday in readiness for the second half of the school year.

May we remember the Lord’s message to us in the Gospel this Sunday: even in the storms of life, do not be frightened but keep faith in me.

May you have a blessed week ahead.

Fr Paul

Readings and Reflections—12th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year B)

A Summary of the Word for the 12th Sunday of Ordinary Time (Year B)

First Reading (Job 38:1.8-11): God alone has mastery over the sea.

Second Reading (2 Corinthians 5:14-17) : Christ showed his love for us by dying for us. We are to imitate that love.

Gospel (Mark 4:35-41): In Chapter 4:35 to Chapter 5:43, Mark recounts four miraculous actions of Jesus. The first of these was the calming of the storm.

In the Bible the calming of a storm is a characteristic sign of divine power, because the sea and the wind are seen as forces of evil and chaos which only God can control (First Reading). But the storm can also stand for the trials and tribulations which the righteous suffer, and from which only the power of God can save them.

In the calming of the storm, the apostles witnessed a work that only God can accomplish, which means that Jesus has divine power. At the same time the miracle shows Jesus' care for his apostles. Mark is using the story for catechetical purposes. The storm reflects the post-Easter experience of the early Church. The disciples have run into all sorts of difficulties, and feel that the Lord has abandoned them, but they are summoned to have faith in his presence with them and care for them.

When the apostles got caught in a storm they turned to Jesus for help and found it. From time to time we too get caught in storms. Our storms usually take the form of trials of one kind or another. We must know how to turn to the Lord, and trust that he will see us through the storm.

Reflection for 12th Sunday of Ordinary Time (Year B)

*My faith is tested many times every day, and more times than I'd like to confess,
I'm unable to keep the banner of faith aloft.
If a promise is not kept, or if a secret is betrayed,
or if I experience long-lasting pain,
I begin to doubt God and God's love.
I fall into the chasm of disbelief and I cry out in despair.
But then the Spirit lifts me up again,
and once more I am secured in faith.
I don't know how that happens,
save when I cry out earnestly I am answered immediately
and am returned to faithfulness.
I am once again filled with Spirit and firmly planted on solid ground*

Our Inaugural Rainbow Obstacle Run!

Last Friday we held our first ever Rainbow Obstacle Run! This was coordinated and provided by our Year 8 and Year 9 students and staff as part of our high school years Work Education Program. It also served as a major fundraising event for our school, with all funds raised going towards the purchasing of much needed assistive technology for our students.

Along with contributions made by our wonderful families and friends, Bendigo Bank also made a very generous donation – currently our amount stands at over $10 000 and it is still climbing!

Not only did this event provide such wonderful financial support for resources, but it provided so much Joy and a lovely sense of Community for all involved! We definitely look forward to our next one, next year!

Saints we remember this week.....

St Aloysius Gonzaga—Feast Day 21 June

St. Aloysius was born in Castiglione, Italy. The first words St. Aloysius spoke were the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary. He was destined for the military by his father (who was in service to Philip II), but by the age of 9 Aloysius had decided on a religious life, and made a vow of perpetual virginity. To safeguard himself from possible temptation, he would keep his eyes persistently downcast in the presence of women.

St. Charles Borromeo gave him his first Holy Communion. A kidney disease prevented St. Aloysius from a full social life for a while, so he spent his time in prayer and reading the lives of the saints. Although he was appointed a page in Spain, St. Aloysius kept up his many devotions and austerities, and was quite resolved to become a Jesuit. His family eventually moved back to Italy, where he taught catechism to the poor.

When he was 18, he joined the Jesuits, after finally breaking down his father, who had refused his entrance into the order. He served in a hospital during the plague of 1587 in Milan, and died from it at the age of 23, after receiving the last rites from St. Robert Bellarmine. The last word he spoke was the Holy Name of Jesus.

St John Fisher (bishop)

Feast Day 22 June

Thomas More (martyr)

The joint Feast Day of Saints John Fisher (1469-1535) and Thomas More (1478—1535) serves as an inspiration to both clergy and laity in the Church and modern world. As a priest and bishop, John Fisher was martyred on June 22, 1535, for his opposition to the marriage of King Henry VIII to Anne Boleyn and his refusal to acknowledge Henry as supreme head of the Church of England. Two weeks later, on July 6, Thomas More, a husband and father, was martyred in the tower of London for the same reasons.

Both were canonized saints on May 19, 1935, by Pope Pius XI. For all the baptized, both citizens and politicians, the stories of John Fisher and Thomas More are yet another reminder that faith cannot remain a private concern but must also animate our public lives of integrity. Saints John Fisher and Thomas More teach us that this can only come about through Christians with a courageous conscience, being faithful to truth and having a proper understanding of the relationship between church and state.

The NATIVITY of ST JOHN THE BAPTIST - 24 June

The Nativity of St. John the Baptist or his birth is a Feast Day celebrating the birth of John the Baptist. The Nativity of St John the Baptist on June 24 comes three months after the celebration on March 25 of the Annunciation, when the Archangel Gabriel told Our Lady that her cousin Elizabeth was in her sixth month of pregnancy, and six months before the Christmas celebration of the birth of Jesus. The purpose of these Feasts is not to celebrate the exact dates of these events, but simply to commemorate them in an interlinking way.

Christians have interpreted the life of John the Baptist as a preparation for the coming of Jesus Christ, and the circumstances of his birth, as recorded in the New Testament, are miraculous. The sole biblical account of the birth of John the Baptist comes from the Gospel of Luke. John's parents Zechariah – a Jewish priest, and Elizabeth, were without children and both were beyond the age of childbearing. During Zechariah's service in the Temple in Jerusalem, the Archangel Gabriel appeared to him and announced that he and his wife would give birth to a child, and that they should name him John.

When Mary the mother of Jesus journeyed to visit Elizabeth, Luke's Gospel recounts that the baby "leapt" in Elizabeth's womb at the greeting of Mary. As Christians, we know this is John's first act of prophecy.

We honour this great prophet and voice from God who cries out to us: "prepare a way for the Lord."
