

"I am the good shepherd.
A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.
A hired man, who is not a shepherd and whose sheep are not his own, sees a wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away. This is because he works for pay and has no concern for the sheep."

From Fr David

Dear friends,

Last Friday afternoon, David Chee farewelled from Our Lady of Dolours church, Chatswood, his mother Lucy whom the Lord recently took home to himself. We extend to David and his family are sincere condolences at this sad time.

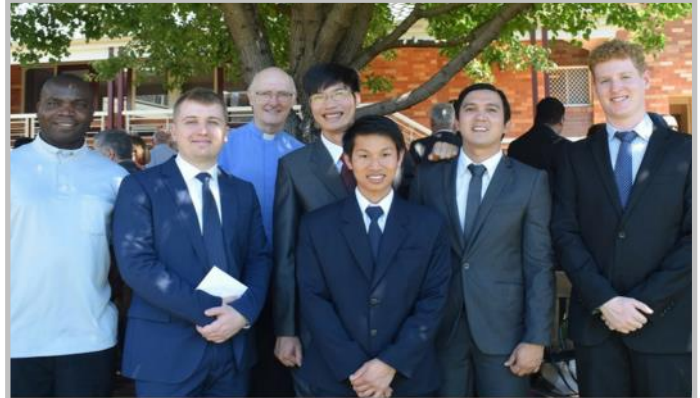

During this last week our electricians tagged all the various electrical devices throughout our church, parish office and public areas of the Priory. This is required for WHS compliance, and has been a major undertaking. We now have an official log of all such devices and they will be inspected annually for verification.

We also thank Ian Edmunds who has been cleaning the eastern wall of our church for BluTak now that we have our new noticeboards for use when photos and so forth will be posted there. And a warm thank you to Chris Madden who has been doing some patching of walls in our Priory these last days! We thank, too, those who have recently volunteered to help our church flower roster. Your generosity of time and care is most appreciated.

This weekend we are very mindful of our seminarians for our Diocese who are pictured to the right, along with our Vocation personnel, Fr Stephen Wayoy and Fr Paul Durkin. From left to right we have Peter (1st year), Martino (2nd year), Hien (2nd year), Aldrin (4th year) and Sam (3rd year). The presence of 5 seminarians has been a great blessing for us. We are hopeful that next year we may have even eight!

22 WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR APRIL VOCATIONS

 Vocations Broken Bay

2018 World Day of Prayer for Vocations

On the 4th Sunday of Easter (22 April), the Church throughout the world prays for vocations. Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for more vocations to the priesthood and Religious life?

Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead.

Keep the priests of our parish in your prayers throughout the week.

Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest or Religious brother or sister. Pray a rosary (or some special prayer) for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's call.

Vocation Prayer by Pope Francis

BLESS young people with the gift of courage to respond to your call. Open their hearts to great ideals, to great things.

INSPIRE all of your disciples to mutual love and giving—for vocations blossom in the good soil of faithful people.

INSTILL those in religious life, parish ministries, and families with the confidence and grace to invite others to embrace the bold and noble path of a life consecrated to you.

UNITE us to Jesus through prayer and sacrament, so that we may cooperate with you in building your reign of mercy and truth, of justice and peace. Amen.

50's And Over Singles Group

The next excursion for the group is to visit the Sydney Fish Markets and to do some sight seeing and to have lunch on Friday 27th April 2018. We will meet on the concourse of Gordon Station at 10.15 am and take the next train to Central Station. Next we catch the light rail to the Fish Market Station and alight here to go to the Markets. Once there we can have morning tea and then go for a stroll along the foreshore to take in the views of the Bay.

As lunch time draws near we will walk back to the Markets and have lunch at one of the venues. After lunch we could walk around the Markets seeing the various seafoods on sale and then catch the light rail back to Central, and then take a train back to the North Shore line to go home.

Enquiries please contact

Quotes from Pope Francis

The following from Pope Francis' new Apostolic Exhortation Gaudete et Exsultate (Rejoice and be Glad), on the call to holiness in today's world, are offered to allow all to engage with this document.

“Rejoice and be glad’ (*Mt*5:12), Jesus tells those persecuted or humiliated for his sake. The Lord asks everything of us, and in return he offers us true life, the happiness for which we were created. He wants us to be saints and not to settle for a bland and mediocre existence.”
(GE, 1)

Read the full text at the Vatican website:
<http://w2.vatican.va/content/vatican/en.html>

“I like to contemplate the holiness present in the patience of God's people: in those parents who raise their children with immense love, in those men and women who work hard to support their families, in the sick, in elderly religious who never lose their smile. In their daily perseverance I see the holiness of the Church militant. Very often it is a holiness found in our next-door neighbours, those who, living in our midst, reflect God's presence. We might call them 'the middle class of holiness'”. (GE, 7)

Proclaim 2018 National Conference on Parish Renewal and Evangelisation

12 – 14 July 2018 - Early Bird Registrations and Group Discounts now available. This year the Archdiocese of Brisbane, in collaboration with the ACBC's National Centre for Evangelisation, will host PROCLAIM 2018. This national conference will engage parishes and faith communities in a conversation focusing on five key areas: Leadership, Culture Change, Young People, Belonging and Evangelisation.

During the conference, participants can attend keynote presentations, expert panel sessions and discussions facilitated by leaders with 'on the ground' experience. Ideally, this will help those participants to contribute to the formulation of some practical strategies to assist your parish or faith community's own goals in the areas of renewal and evangelisation.

Keynote speakers include Cardinal John Dew (Archdiocese of Wellington, New Zealand), Ron Huntley (Divine Renovation – Canada), Ms Lana Turvey-Collins (Plenary Council 2020 Facilitator), Mons Enrique Fiqueredo SJ (Cambodia) and host of PROCLAIM 2018 Archbishop Mark Coleridge .

To find out more visit www.proclaimconference.com.au and register at the early bird rate.

Vatican Astronomer Br Guy Consolmagno SJ

The Diocese of Broken Bay welcomes Br Guy Consolmagno SJ, the Director of the Vatican Observatory, for a series of presentations in April. Br Guy holds a PhD in Planetary Science, and will explore the fascinating topic of how faith and science co-exist. Be enriched by this stimulating conversation about the connectedness of life, science and faith. Br Guy has published a number of books, the latest titled “Would You Baptise an Extraterrestrial?”

April Safeguarding Message

A safe parish community is one that seeks the views of children and young people and takes into account their age, development, maturity, understanding and abilities and the different formats and means of communication they use.

Working in a child-related ministry in the Catholic Diocese of Broken Bay: Paid and volunteer workers who have direct face to face contact with children (under 18 years) are required by law to obtain a Working with Children Check number. Please note though, exemptions may apply in some cases. The Parish is the employer of the paid or volunteer worker and therefore is required by law to verify the Working with Children Check number. All paid or volunteer workers engaged in a child-related role must have a clear Working with Children Check to work in a child-related ministry. This disclosure references the legislation, Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012.

Fr David's Forthcoming Sabbatical Leave July/August 2018

As part of my year of Silver Anniversary of Ordination, Bishop Peter has very graciously granted me a period of sabbatical this year. I am now very happy to share with you the details of this period of leave.

The period of sabbatical will be for the months of July and August through to 10 September. From 2 July to 8 July I will be in Tasmania with my father. Then from 9 July to 3 August I will enter into a 30 day retreat in western NSW near Condobolin. This will be a wonderful opportunity for personal and spiritual renewal. On 8 August I leave for two weeks in the Holy Land (Jerusalem and Jordan) for renewal in Scripture, and then fly to Paris on 24 August to meet with Archdiocesan officials in respect to models of priestly formation and the lay apostolate. From Paris I will journey down to Lourdes, where I have never visited before, and then I will make my way to Lyons before flying home to Sydney via Hanoi, in Vietnam.

As you can imagine I am very excited about this unique possibility, coming as it does 25 years after Ordination, the year before I turn 60, and, indeed, half way through my appointment as Parish Priest, the term of which finishes in May 2021. I am also very grateful to you all for your generosity at the celebration of my Silver Anniversary last November which I have been able to place at the service of the trip. Most of the details of the trip have now been arranged.

Whilst I am on leave, the priests of the Parish of St Ives will assume pastoral responsibility for our parish. I am very grateful, too, to them for their generosity in this respect. The Carmelite community there will ensure that the life of the parish, particularly in respect to all our Masses, will continue without interruption.

2018 Synod on Youth & Vocations

In October 2018, hundreds of bishops will gather in Rome for a special synod on "Young People, Faith, and Vocational Discernment." Their purpose is to discuss the ways that young people encounter Jesus in today's world, and to ensure the Church is helping them to discover their vocations.

Catholic Youth Broken Bay - Twilight Talks

Did God create the Universe, or was there a Big Bang? Find out why we say "yes" to both and how the glory of the Maker of the Stars can be found in understanding the science behind how He did it.

Catholic Youth Broken Bay invites you to Twilight Talks. Join Young Adults from around the Diocese to connect, share a meal, pray and be nourished by our very special guest Br Guy Consolmagno, Director of the Vatican Observatory, as he speaks on the 'Maker of the Stars'!

CARMEL PARIS RODRIGUES
Carmel Paris Rodrigues has grown up as part of a family church choir and now sings regularly at Sunday morning Mass in her local parish of Pymble. She has performed in a number of musical, international competitions and has also turned down on The Voice 2016. She is currently studying a Bachelor of Music at the Australian Institute of Music and enjoys singing pop, music theatre and spiritual. At 18 she is looking forward to many years of sharing her faith through song and is excited to be involved in Praisefest 2018.

SIMON HYLAND
Simon is a professional actor, singer and musician. His stage experience includes Miss Saigon, Hair, Show, Shuffle, Show Boat, The Boy from Oz, the Music of Andrew Lloyd Webber and Hair: The Musical. He was in the film South Pacific and for 3 years was the host of Nick Junior on Foxtel Digital. He performed 2 of his original songs in front of 1 million people as part of World Youth Day 2011 in Madrid, Spain and has performed with corporate acts around Australia and internationally. For the last 11 years, Simon has worked in music and youth ministry at Pymble Parish and shared with hundreds of school students in the Broken Bay Diocese, Sydney. In December 2017, Simon was the music director of the Australian Catholic Youth Festival in Sydney. He is currently the leader of Liturgy and Retreats at St Augustine's college, Brookvale. Simon is thrilled to be worship leader at the Salvatorian worship night.

CAROLINE MULVENNA
Caroline is a contemporary classical singer who has been performing for more than 10 years. She has been involved in many wedding celebrations and fundraising events in parishes on the Northern Beaches of Sydney and surrounds. In July of 2016, she performed as a vocalist in the Australian band at World Youth Day in Krakow, Poland. In December 2017, she was a member of the house band at the Australian Catholic Youth Festival in Sydney and was honoured to perform for thousands of Christian youths. She is a passionate musician and Primary School teacher who is excited to be a part of the Praise and Worship event.
