From Fr David

Dear friends,

We come to the most important week in our Christian year. With each ceremony of the liturgy are led on a journey with Christ through suffering and death into the mystery of new life. I pray that these days ahead will be specially graced for each of you as you are drawn into the great narrative of our redemption in Christ. May the days renew our hope, and remind us once again of the power of life even in the face of all that distort or diminish it.

During this Holy Week all the priests of the Diocese will gather with Bishop Peter on Tuesday evening at 7.30pm at the Cathedral in Waitara for the Mass of the Oils. During this ceremony the Sacred Oils we use at Baptism, Confirmation, Holy Orders, and the Anointing of the Sick will be blessed. Ken Laing, the Chair of our Pariah Pastoral Council, along with Ann-Louise Deakin will represent our Parish at this ceremony, bringing the oils into our community at the beginning of our Mass on Holy Thursday evening.

A special thank you to all our choirs for the superb ministry they undertake for us. They have been busy in the background over these weeks preparing for the Easter celebrations. Our warmest thanks, too, for all those who work tirelessly to keep our church as beautiful and for those who will ensure that our church looks resplendent at the Easter Vigil next Saturday!

During this last week, 64 of our children completed their program of preparation for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. They were then invited to celebrate the Sacrament on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. They have undertaken this program in preparation for their reception of the Eucharist for the first time in several months time. It was a great joy to celebrate them with this special moment in their growing friendship with Jesus. Our deep gratitude to Sally Oong, our Sacramental Preparation Co-ordinator, who prepared our children for this moment, and to Natalie Oong for making our celebrations so beautiful with music. And a very special thank you to our children themselves who at such moments, truly become our teachers.

We are urgently in need of some extra flower ladies to join our flower roster ! Our ladies (usually 2 in a group) arrange the flowers approximately every 4-6 weeks on a Friday or Saturday. Please let the office know if you are able to help Thank you.

Thank you for Denise Woodburn and Elizabeth Stanley for filling the vacancy and joining our Sunday Morning Mass Hospitality team - Week 5 !!

Fr David was honoured to be present at St Edmunds College last Friday morning to celebrate Mass for the whole school and afterwards to bless the new Mary Rice Food Technology Centre. This will enable the students with qualifications in hospitality. Mary Rice was the daughter of Blessed Edmund Rice, the founder of the Christian Brothers. She, herself, had special needs. So it is wonderful to have her as patron of the new centre.

Our Vinnies Team: A Message from Mark and Louise Boffa

About 20 years ago, our conference was entrusted with the care of the residents of Whalan. Whalan is near Mount Druitt area along the M2 and M7 less than 40 minutes from here but quite some distance from our relatively comfortable way of life. Many of you have contributed to our work there via the Christmas hampers and of course donations – both material and financial. However we have a steadily reducing number of volunteers undertaking home visitations at Whalan.

Every Tuesday and Saturday, we aim to have a team of two volunteers available to respond to calls for help from Whalan which are relayed to the Hornsby regional office, of which we are part.

People seek help from us for a variety of reasons, mainly:

Assistance with energy bills

Domestic difficulties

Hunger and lack of food

Sometimes while one of the above might be cited, it is actually loneliness that is behind the call.

We used to get some very long lists – my first visit to Whalan had 27 households on the list to visit that day. More recently however, our lists range from 5 to 15 households. These disadvantaged households often appear to be from another world:

Our clients are impacted by poverty, unemployment, ill health, poor education, drugs and alcoholism, criminal past – occasionally all of these within the one household.

The situations that we encounter are very real but to us can appear made up. On one of my earliest visits I remember being greeted at the door by a young woman whose mother I thought we were visiting. It turned out that the young woman herself was actually the client - a 25 year old mother of eight children to five different fathers.

For some years, Louise and I have also been responding to local calls for help, which are much less frequent and somewhat less regular than the Whalan calls. While the reasons for local calls may differ slightly, despair does not discriminate - such as our recent experience of meeting late on a weeknight at the fountain in Hornsby with a young mother and her six children who had just escaped a violent domestic situation without identification, money or any other belongings and they needed our help to set up home locally.

Our visits to Whalan have at times been confronting and moving. We aim not to judge the people we assist, even though sometimes we know that they take advantage of our generosity. We are reminded constantly of the line "I was hungry and you fed me..." and we hang on to the thought that perhaps we have managed to bring positive change to at least one person over the years.

Today we would like you to consider volunteering for the Wahroonga conference. It will cost you just a bit of your time. Louise and I commit to the third Saturday of each month. Our work starts around 7.30am at the Church and we are normally back home around lunchtime.

At present we have 11 regular visitors trying to fill a roster that requires at least 20 people. We are also in need of volunteers to assist with local visits, bread collections and possibly administration. We always work in couples when visiting homes, and as I mentioned last week, that could be two members from the one family such as teenagers with their parents or even grandparents.

Might you be interested to join our Vinnies Team?

Do let the Parish Office know.

22 March 2018

Dear Parents and Caregivers

I refer to coverage in today's Australian, Sydney Morning Herald and Daily Telegraph newspapers regarding the recent loss of enrolments in Catholic systemic schools in the Diocese of Broken Bay.

I want to assure all parents that Bishop Comensoli, myself, our principals and teachers are absolutely committed to the continued operation of every Catholic systemic school in the Diocese of Broken Bay.

As you would be aware, school funding has been an issue of concern for families with children enrolled in local Catholic systemic schools for some time. In 2017 the Catholic Schools Office took the unprecedented step of significantly increasing fees in order to align with Commonwealth government expectations.

The latest February 2018 school enrolment census has confirmed my concerns about the impact of recent changes to school funding. In the twelve months to February 2018 Broken Bay systemic schools have experienced a loss of 624 enrolments, an unprecedented decline of 3.5%. The majority of this loss has occurred since August 2017, and coincides with the public debate regarding school funding.

Even with the support offered by way of fee relief to families, I deeply regret that some parents have not been in a position to continue with a Catholic education for their children.

I acknowledge that there may be other factors contributing to this loss of enrolments including broader cost of living issues, flat wages growth and the risk of mortgage rate increases faced by families with large mortgages. However, in my opinion, school funding changes and the resulting increase in fees is the significant factor in this decline.

Mindful of the pressure increased fees place on families, and to provide longer term certainty in relation to school fees, I wrote to you on 13 March 2018 providing an undertaking that fee increases would be between 1.5% and 3% each year for the next five years. I stand by those assurances.

During this week parent representatives from each of our schools gathered for leadership forums to explore ways to deepen their engagement as genuine partners in their children's education. The theme of these meetings was future focused, looking toward a strong and innovative future in Catholic education in our schools. I am confident about the future of our schools due to the enthusiasm and support which has been demonstrated by our parents.

Again, I would like to express my thanks and acknowledgement for the sacrifices you make as parents to Catholic education. I assure you that I will continue to advocate for our local Catholic schools in the strongest terms possible.

Yours sincerely

Peter Hamill

Working in a child-related ministry in the Catholic Diocese of Broken Bay: Paid and volunteer workers who have direct face to face contact with children (under 18 years) are required by law to obtain a Working with Children Check number. Please note though, exemptions may apply in some cases. The Parish is the employer of the paid or volunteer worker and therefore is required by law to verify the Working with Children Check number. All paid or volunteer workers engaged in a child-related role must have a clear Working with Children Check to work in a child-related ministry. This disclosure references the legislation, Child Protection (Working with Children) Act 2012.
