27 June 2021— 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

From Fr Paul

This week we have been further reminded that we are still very much caught up in the Covid pandemic.

As you will see on our Parish website, in the mail-out via email and in this bulletin, we must be vigilant and mindful in following all the Covid protocols and guidelines.

With you, I am most mindful of parishioners – and those in Australia and throughout the world – who are directly affected by the pandemic: those who have the virus, those who are unwell and dying, carers, medical personnel, civil authorities, the sick, the elderly and the vulnerable, those whose work, business and profession have been badly affected, those out of work, those suffering financially, those who have been disappointed having to change family and travel arrangements - just to name some of the many ways that people are being adversely affected.

I began the week preparing for many meetings and appointments, but ended up rescheduling several (PPMC, senior servers, visit of Fr Michael Fallon MSC for Mass and talk to CAYA), or meeting via Zoom.

The San and Hornsby Hospital, and other hospitals, hospices and aged care facilities in the area, continue to provide strict guidelines to faith representatives visiting patients. Fr Anselm is made aware of this in particular.

This past Friday Deacon Sam, Fr Anselm and I joined the staff at Prouille for a Staff Development Day conducted by Bishop Anthony and Mr Danny Casey, Director of Catholic Schools, Broken Bay. It was an opportunity to join with staff to break open and discuss strategies and goals contained in the newly developed plan, “Towards 2025”. I am committed to our Clergy and Parish being actively involved as partners with the Prouille community, as well as with St Edmund’s and St Lucy’s.

We congratulate Mr Jon Franzin, current Principal of St Edmund’s College on the news of his new appointment as Principal of St Virgil’s College in Hobart, Tasmania. Jon’s appointment will be effective from Term 1, 2022.

A reminder that the parish is now enrolling in the Sacramental Program for Confirmation. Please see Page 4 of the bulletin for further details.

This weekend we congratulate Margaret and Pat MacMillan who celebrate their 62nd Wedding Anniversary this Sunday, 27th June. What a wonderful achievement for you both and we pray God’s blessing on you and your family.

We continue to support Deacon Sam in his preparation for Ordination as Priest, now scheduled for Tuesday, 19th October, the feast of Saint Paul of the Cross.

Best wishes to the school communities within the parish as you begin (or continue) the midyear break. We wish the children, students, staff and families an enjoyable holiday in readiness for the second half of the school year.

May we remember the Lord’s message to us in the Gospel this Sunday: stay strong in faith, I have come to restore you to wholeness and fullness of life. May you have a blessed week ahead. Fr Paul

The Word for 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year B)

First Reading (Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24). God did not make us for death but for life in this world, and in the world to come.

Second Reading (2 Corinthians 8:7,9, 13-15). St Paul is appealing to the Corinthians to contribute to a collection for the poor in the Church at Jerusalem.

Gospel (Mark 5:1-43). Both of the miracles related here are signs of God's power, restoring life and health, belonging and identity through Jesus' power to heal.

These miracles show that Jesus' saving power can overcome sickness and even death. The reading from Wisdom serves as a backdrop to this message. God did not create human beings in order to destroy them, but that they should enjoy a blessed immortality.

Both the woman with the haemorrhage and the daughter of Jairus were beyond the help of any earthly power. The great faith of the woman and of Jairus is stressed. Both believed that Jesus possessed a supernatural power to heal. Both miracles are signs of God's power, restoring life and health and so much more through Jesus. The raising of the little girl is a foreshadowing of Jesus' gift of eternal life to all who believe in him.

Reflection for 13th Sunday of Ordinary Time (Year B)

Footprints in the Sand

*One night I dreamed a dream,
As I was walking along the beach with my Lord.
Across the dark sky flashed scenes from my life.
For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand,
One belonging to me and one to my Lord.*

*After the last scene of my life flashed before me,
I looked back at the footprints in the sand.
I noticed that at many times along the path of my life,
especially at the very lowest and saddest times,
there was only one set of footprints.*

*This really troubled me, so I asked the Lord about it.
"Lord, you said once I decided to follow you,
You'd walk with me all the way.
But I noticed that during the saddest and most troublesome times of my life,
there was only one set of footprints.
I don't understand why, when I needed You the most,
You would leave me."*

*He whispered,
"My precious child, I love you and will never leave you
Never, ever, during your trials and testings.
When you saw only one set of footprints,
It was then that I carried you."*

Parish News

Saturday, 3 July at 10.00am

There will be a 30 day Mass celebrated for Sam Severino who died on 31st May.

Sam's wife, Elizabeth (Betty) and family extend an invitation to any parishioners who would like to join them at this Mass to remember Sam.

Great Fundraising Idea...

A parishioner has an idea to fundraise by selling home made marmalade- a skill which she has mastered over the years. She is hoping to sell 100 jars at $10 each—a wonderful contribution to our parish!

The thing is that she has run out of Seville oranges and so was wondering if anyone in the parish has any of these oranges (about 70) so she can make the jam. We are also in need of some jars.

It would be lovely to make it a social thing if a couple of people would like to come over and help out!

Please let the Parish Office know if you can help.

Saints we remember this week...

St Irenaeus—Feast Day 28 June

Irenaeus was born 130AD in Smyrna (modern-day Turkey), although he later settled in Rome. He was well -educated and was influenced by men who knew the Apostles, especially St. Polycarp, who had been a student of St. John the evangelist.

Irenaeus served as a priest of the Church of Lyons during the Christian persecution. Many of the clergy from Lyons were imprisoned for their faith. While Irenaeus was in Rome, a massacre occurred in Lyons. A persecution broke out, and some of the leaders of the Lyons church were imprisoned, while others suffered martyrdom. Thus, he did not share in the martyrdom of his fellow Christians.

Irenaeus became the second Bishop of Lyons and he divided his activities between the duties of a pastor and of a missionary. A prolific writer, he is known for his vigorous defense of the faith against Gnosticism, the doctrine of salvation based on a secret knowledge. The Gnostics professed that they alone possessed a secret oral tradition from Jesus himself, while Irenaeus maintained that the overseers or bishops (known as far back as the time of the Apostles) provided the only reliable guide to the interpretation of Scripture.

He was buried under the Church of Saint John in Lyon, which was later renamed St Irenaeus. St Irenaeus was the first great Catholic theologian and his most significant work is Against Heresies or Adversus Haereses. It is a detailed attack on Gnosticism, which was then a serious threat to the Church. As a theologian, he emphasised the traditional elements in the Church, especially the episcopate, Scripture, and tradition.

St Thomas Feast Day 3 July

St. Thomas was Jewish and was called to be one of the twelve Apostles. His feast day is celebrated July 3.

He lived before the formal establishment of the Catholic Church and is recognised as the Patron Saint of India.

He was a dedicated but impetuous follower of Christ. At the Last Supper, when Christ told His disciples that He was going to prepare a place for them to which they also might come because they knew both the place and the way, Thomas pleaded that they did not understand and received the beautiful assurance that Christ is the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

St. Thomas is best known for his role in verifying the Resurrection of his Master. Thomas' unwillingness to believe that the other Apostles had seen their risen Lord on the first Easter Sunday earned him the title of "doubting Thomas."

Eight days later, on Christ's second apparition, Thomas was gently rebuked for his skepticism and furnished with the evidence he had demanded - seeing in Christ's hands the point of the nails. Thomas even put his fingers in the nail holes and his hand into Christ's side.

After verifying the wounds were true, St. Thomas became convinced of the reality of the Resurrection and exclaimed, "My Lord and My God," thus making a public Profession of Faith in the Divinity of Jesus—declaring the faith of the Church.

Sts Peter and Paul—Feast Day 29 June

“Both the apostles share the same feast day, for these two were one; and even though they suffered on different days, they were as one. Peter went first, and Paul followed. And so we celebrate this day made holy for us by the apostles' blood. Let us embrace what they believed, their life, their labours, their sufferings, their preaching, and their confession of faith.”

St. Augustine of Hippo @ Sermon in the year 395

Sts Peter and Paul      Feast Day 29 June

The Catholic Church celebrates the feast day of Sts. Peter and Paul on the 29 June. Sts. Peter and Paul are the foundations of the early church now the See of Rome, through their preaching, ministry and martyrdom there. Sts. Peter and Paul are at the origin of her faith and will forever remain as her protectors and guide.

Peter, who was named Simon, was a fisherman of Galilee. Jesus gave Simon the name Cephas which means ‘Rock,’ as he was to become the rock upon which Christ would build His Church. He was the first among the disciples to recognise that Jesus was “the Messiah, the Son of the living God,” and eagerly pledged his fidelity until death.

He is the one who had little faith when walking on water when Christ called him and also the one who denies knowing Jesus three times before the cock crows the night of Christ passion. Peter was chosen to shepherd God's flock as in the Acts of the Apostles is written of his role as chief shepherd of the Church after the Resurrection and Ascension of Christ and he delivered the first sermon on Pentecost.

Peter is recognised as the first Pope, that is the leader of the infant Church. St. Peter spent his last years in Rome, leading the Church through persecution and eventually being martyred. He was crucified upside-down at his own request, because he claimed he was not worthy to die as his Lord. He was buried on Vatican hill, and St. Peter's Basilica is built over his tomb.

St Paul was born at Tarsus in the Roman province of Silicia, the son of Jewish parents and he is known as the Apostle of the Gentiles. His letters are included in the writings of the New Testament and through them we learn much about his life and the faith of the early Church.

He was Saul before receiving the name Paul, a Jewish pharisee who zealously persecuted Christians in Jerusalem. Saul's conversion took place on the road to Damascus where he was going to persecute the Christians. As he was travelling a great light from heaven suddenly surrounded and blinded him. He heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?” He answered: “Who are you, Lord?” and the voice answered “I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.”. Saul then continued to Damascus, where his sight was restored and he was baptised and took the name Paul. Barnabas introduced him to the Christian community and brought him to the newly founded Christian community at Antioch where he spent the remainder of his life preaching the Gospel tirelessly to the Gentiles of the Mediterranean world.

Paul was imprisoned and taken to Rome, where he was beheaded. He was buried in Rome in the Basilica of St. Paul Outside the Walls. His letters are a precious legacy and they afford a deep insight into a great soul.

*God Our Father,
You give us the joy of celebrating the Solemnity of the apostles, Peter and Paul.
Through them, your Church first received the faith.
Keep us true to their teaching. Amen*
