National Theme for Discernment #6 – How is God calling us to be a Christ-centred Church that is Open to conversion, Renewal and Reform? This National Theme for Discernment is inspired by the voices of the People of God who expressed a desire to do things differently in response to Christ and the experience of our people, accepting that faithfulness to tradition requires change that is both personal and communal. ## From Fr David

Dear friends

It has not taken long to return to the sense of normal duties after my recent time away. In coming home, too, we have a number of people who are unwell or who are grieving the death of loved ones. Let us be sure to keep each other in our heart and prayer and always be mindful of the little gesture of care that can go the furthest way when someone is unwell or sad.

Please keep the clergy of our Diocese in your thoughts this week. We have our annual conference at St Joseph's Spirituality Centre in Baulkham Hills. It has been delayed from its usual time because of the Ad Limina visit to Rome that occurred in June. This year we gather in our anticipation of our new Bishop. We will be joined by Bishop Eugene Hurley, emeritus Bishop of Darwin as our keynote speaker. Bishop Eugene will lead us over three days of reflection on ministering in such challenging times. Each afternoon we will have workshops on various aspects of stewardship, communications and pastoral life. The week also provides us with a wonderful opportunity for fraternity and to catch up on the news of the Diocese as a whole.

The attendance of our priests at the Conference this week will mean that Mass will not be able to offered during the week until Friday morning. My deep appreciation to those who will be available to lead a Liturgy of the Word with Communion each morning on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday a the usual time of 9.15am.

Be sure to earmark the celebration we have in our church on Sunday 18 August to mark the 30th anniversary of KCEA. It will be lovely to have many of us present at the celebration.

Driver Needed for Weekend Mass

We are in search of a kind person/people to drive a long time, lady parishioner to Mass either Saturday evening or Sunday morning. She lives near the Bobbin Head Road Shopping Centre. Please let the Parish Office know if you are able to assist. Thank you.

'Thank you so much to Fr Anselam and all the Eucharistic Ministers to the Sick who kindly visited me during my recent stay in the SAN. Your work is of great value to our parish and I was very grateful for your kindness and support.'

Patrice Buzinskas

NAIDOC WEEK at St Lucy's:

The significance of NAIDOC Week was celebrated as a nation during our recent school holidays. Here, at St Lucy's, we continued these celebrations throughout this past week upon the return of our students. The children engaged in a weaving activity, as well as attended a didgeridoo performance and then were entertained by a performance integrating key aspects of the Dreaming with music. The children also participated in our whole school liturgy for NAIDOC Week and fundraised for a not-for-profit organisation called 'WEAVE' based south of the CBD.
