Gong Xi Fa Cai (Mandarin) and Gong Hey Fat Choy (Cantonese) Happy Lunar New Year !!

Chinese New Year, also known as Spring Festival in China, is the most important traditional holiday in China. Chinese New Year 2019 is on Tuesday, 5th February 2019. 2019 is the Year of the Pig!

This Weekend we are joined by Fr George Hogarty
Who will share with us the work of the Columban Mission
Institute and the publication, "The Far East"

The Columbans are a missionary society of priests who work in 16 countries including: Australia, New Zealand, Fiji, Britain, Ireland, China, Japan, Korea, Myanmar (former Burma), Philippines, Taiwan, Pakistan, Chile, Peru, Brazil, and the United States. Columban Fathers work in cooperation with lay people and Columban Sisters from a standpoint of solidarity with the poor and integrity of creation. We recognise the moral challenge of worldwide and local poverty. It means supporting the struggle of the poor for real participation and against injustice. St Columbans Mission Society was formally founded in 1918 and takes its name from St Columban, Ireland's sixth century missionary to Europe.

We pray that the year ahead will be full of wonderful opportunities for learning.
Our Prouille Opening of Year Mass will be celebrated on Tuesday, 12th February at 11:00am

Welcome Fr Eliseus!

We welcome to our community Fr Eliseus Shin who will be resident with us for the next twelve months. Fr Eliseus comes from the Diocese of Incheon, South Korea. He will be with us in the Diocese of Broken Bay for some time. Having arrived in Australia last October, and having spent some time in the Parish of Kincumber, I have appointed Fr Eliseus to our Parish for 2019 in order to provide him with a year of pastoral formation and enculturation. In the main part, he will study English at Macquarie University, and undertake a range of other activities to help equip him for ministry within an Australian parish. He will most often concelebrate with Fr Anselm and myself, at least to begin with, but it is hoped that as the year unfolds he will be drawn increasingly into the life of our community during his twelve months stay with us.

It is a joy for us to have you with us, Fr Eliseus!

Please Note Change of Date:
St Dominic's Playgroup restarts for 2019 on Monday, 11th February

If you have an event you wish us to place in the bulletin, or any exciting news you would like to share etc., please do let the Parish Office know!

We wish Fr Anselm a safe and happy holiday as he takes leave from the parish from 8th February to 1st March.

We seek to grow as a Welcoming and Inclusive Community, supporting Life's Journey, through God's Grace and Mercy

From Fr David

Dear friends,

This weekend we bring to our attention two possibilities for engagement with the mission of our Church. On the large scale Fr George Hogarty will present to us the work of the Columban Fathers and the way in which the Good News is brought to many different communities in lands where the Christian Church is in a minority. It is good always for us to recognise that our own community of faith is part of a much larger communion of communities with which we have a common bond and mission. Together we enable Christ's life to become visible in our world.

We can build up our own local community of faith, too, by our engagement in one of a number of ministries that enable our weekly gathering to be inclusive and inviting. We have many great people who assist in making our liturgies as special as they are. As the year gets underway, it is a great opportunity to renew and refresh our liturgical ministries. So, if you would like to undertake a ministry, change what or when you do it—even stand down—now is the time to advise your intent.

The ministries are many and varied- Readers, Eucharistic Ministers, Acolytes, Altar Servers, Collectors, Hospitality, Piety store, Welcoming teams, Children's liturgy etc. Quite a lot! Please speak to Chris Goldrick or contact him (details in the bulletin). Full training is available and your support will be most appreciated.

St Dominic's Playgroup Mondays from 9am to 11am Our first 2019 Playgroup will be on Monday 11 February

We also have families from other areas of the community, everyone is welcome, there is always an interesting and diverse mix of people and we'd love to see you. We meet in the sunroom.

Deacon Adrian has arrived safely home from the World Youth Day Pilgrimage to Panama. We have been very blest by Deacon Adrian's ministry with us since June 2018. Given that he has been with us constantly every weekend since this time, I have granted him family leave until the end of February so that he might be able to enjoy more time with Christina and his son and daughter.

Balancing family life and the duties of diaconal ministry is not an easy task, but we thank Deacon Adrian for the very generous way in which he has exercised his ministry of Word and Charity in our midst for the past six months. It will be important for him to enjoy some more time with his family over the weeks after he has returned from Central America. For more detail on the pilgrimage, follow Deacon Adrian blog;

Around and About

World Day of the Sick – Monday 11 February 2019

The theme for this year's World Day of the Sick is: "You received without payment; give without payment" (Mt 10:8)

In his message for World Day of the Sick, Pope Francis calls for a culture of generosity, and reminds us that generous gestures, like that of the Good Samaritan, are credible means of evangelisation. He highlights that life is a gift, and says that "amid today's culture of waste and indifference, I would point out that 'gift' is the category best suited to challenging today's individualism and social fragmentation."

The full message can be accessed at http://w2.vatican.va/content/francesco/en/messages/sick/documents/papa-francesco_20181125_giornata-malato.html

World Youth Day 2019 Update

Our WYD2019 pilgrims have had a wonderful experience over the last two weeks, culminating in the Vigil Mass and sleepout and final Mass over the weekend. They are now on their final journey, heading to Houston tonight our time, then on to Sydney, where they will arrive on Thursday morning.

In his Welcome to World Youth Day, Pope Francis spoke to the pilgrims and the youth of the world about joyful hope: "Peter and the Church walk with you, and we want to tell you not to be afraid, to go forward with the same fresh energy and restlessness that helps make us happier and more available, better witnesses to the Gospel. To go forward, not to create a parallel Church that would be more "fun" or "cool" thanks to a fancy youth event, as if that were all you needed or wanted. That way of thinking would not respect either you or everything that the Spirit is saying through you. Not at all!

With you, we want to rediscover and reawaken the Church's constant freshness and youth, opening ourselves to a new Pentecost (cf. SYNOD ON YOUNG PEOPLE, Final Document, 60). As we experienced at the Synod, this can only happen if, by our listening and sharing, we encourage each other to keep walking and to bear witness by proclaiming the Lord through service to our brothers and sisters, and concrete service at that."

Let us always walk together....
