3 October — 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

From Fr Paul

Dear Parishioners

This Sunday marks the 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time. In today's Gospel, Jesus encourages us to uphold the ideal of marriage intended by God from the beginning: that a man and woman be in a lifelong committed relationship.

Holy Scripture affirms that man and woman were created for one another: "It is not good that the man should be alone." The woman, "flesh of his flesh," i.e., his counterpart, his equal, his nearest in all things, is given to him by God as a "helpmate". "Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and cleaves to his wife, and they become one flesh." The Lord himself shows that this signifies an unbreakable union of their two lives by recalling what the plan of the Creator had been "in the beginning". (see Sunday Readings and inspiring videos in Bulletin)

We are coming to the close of the school holidays! We wish families well as they resume home-based learning, and schools prepare to have students return in the coming weeks.

Bishop Anthony has released detailed guidelines for the opening of Churches in the coming weeks.

Please click on this link.

We are looking forward to the Ordination of Deacons Roger Delmonte, Aldrin Valdehueza and Sam French on 18th October at OLOR Cathedral, Waitara. Please note information about the Ordination ceremony in the bulletin (page 5) and more details will emerge by next weekend.

Our Sunday, 31st October 9.30am Mass will be celebrated as a Mass of Thanksgiving, after which we shall present a gift to the newly ordained Fr Sam, and have a morning tea/brunch. This will be livestreamed and recorded. We expect there will be a limit on numbers who can attend. Later, when we can gather in bigger numbers, we shall have a further celebration. More information will follow.

(Please note this Mass of Thanksgiving was to have been on 24th October, but this will not be possible under the new guidelines from Bishop Anthony.)

Again, best wishes to families at the beginning of Term four for 2021.

With Fr Anselam and Deacon Sam, we assure you of our continued prayers and good wishes.

Fr Paul

What does the Word say to us this Sunday?

First Reading (Genesis 2:18-24). God made man and woman for each other. The bond of marriage means they are no longer two but one.

Second Reading (Hebrews 2:9-11). By entering fully into human life, and by experiencing the bitterness of death, Christ became a brother and a saviour to all people.

Gospel (Mark 10:2-16). Christ teaches that the marriage bond comes from God and is to be considered indissoluble.

The central point of the readings of today is the marriage relationship between man and woman. First of all, it is the relationship of equals with neither superiority nor inferiority.

Secondly, the relationship between man and woman is complementary. The complementary nature of man and woman indicates that man by himself is not complete, nor a woman by herself can experience fullness.

Thirdly, the relationship between man and woman is reciprocal. It is not a relationship where one seeks one's own advantage, while not respecting the dignity of the other. Rather, it is a relationship which seeks to promote mutual growth. This relationship is of divine origin.

The principal motive of this relationship is the good of all: man and woman, the family and the society. Hence, we can hold that the hope for the future does not depend upon great and new inventions, but upon human relationships which are loving and good, strong and sincere.

Reflection on Marriage for this Sunday

*“The plan inherent in marriage is truly wonderful!
It is expressed in the simplicity, and also in the fragility,
of the human condition.*

We are well aware of the many difficulties and trials there may be in the life of a married couple.....

*It is true that married life has many difficulties:
work, there isn't enough money, there are problems with the children ...
and often the husband and wife become irritable and argue amongst themselves.*

There are always arguments in marriages, and at times even plates are thrown.

But we must not be sad about this: this is human condition.

And the secret is that love is stronger than the moments in which we argue, and I therefore always advise married couples never to let the day draw to an end without making peace.

There is no need to call in the United Nations peacekeepers.

A little gesture is enough: a caress, see you tomorrow, and tomorrow we start afresh.

This is life, and we must face it in this way, with the courage of living it together.

Married life is beautiful, and must be protected.”

Pope Francis: Catechesis on the Sacrament of Marriage

Videos to Inspire You

In this Sunday's readings Jesus is challenged by the Pharisees on the subject of marriage and the legality of divorce. In answering their question, Jesus takes them back to God's original plan for marriage it was revealed in the book of Genesis: "But from the beginning of creation, 'God made them male and female.' 'For this reason, a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.' So, they are no longer two but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let not man put asunder."

A powerful theology of marriage emerges when we take a moment to understand what it means for "two to become one flesh." In the following video, Christopher West and his wife Wendy discuss the incredible powers that God gives to spouses who are united in the Sacrament of Matrimony.

In the Gospel, Jesus emphasizes that divorce was never a part of God's plan for marriage. There remain, however, many questions about what the Catholic Church teaches on the subject of marriage, divorce, and annulment. The following video presents a discussion panel between Ryan Della Crosse, Ryan Scheel, and Fr. Rich Pagano where they discuss:

- What does the Bible actually say about Divorce?
- Can a Catholic actually get a divorce?
- What is the difference between divorces & annulments?
- Can divorced Catholics receive Holy Communion?
- What reasons allow a person to get an annulment?
- What impact is divorce having on society and the Church?

October—The Month of the Rosary

"Of course, the Rosary belongs to every month, but in October the Church celebrates this prayer in a special way: reminding us of its simple beauty and gentle power. It is a time of grace for us to return to this prayer if we have let it slip away: or perhaps to discover for the first time, in the company of Mary, how the Rosary can guide us into unpretentious prayer". Bishop Michael McKenna

We remember this week

St Francis of Assisi— c. 1181-1226 Feast Day 4 October

Saint Francis of Assisi was a Catholic friar who gave up a life of wealth to live a life of poverty. He established the Franciscan Order of friars. He grew up leading a privileged life as the son of a wealthy merchant. His father wanted him to become a businessman. At the age of nineteen Francis went to battle and was captured and taken prisoner. He was held prisoner for a year before his father paid the ransom and he was set free.

Over the next few years Francis began to see visions from God that changed his life. The first vision was when he was sick with a high fever. At first he thought that God had called him to fight in the Crusades. However, he had another vision in which he was told to help the sick. Finally, when praying in a Church, Francis heard God tell him "repair my Church, which is falling in ruins." Francis gave all his money to the church and took a vow of poverty. He lived his life of poverty and preached to people about the life of Jesus Christ.

Francis had one basic rule which was "To follow the teachings of our Lord Jesus Christ and to walk in his footsteps". The Franciscan Order grew as men joined and made vows of poverty.

Francis was known for his love of nature and animals. There are many stories about Saint Francis and his preaching to animals.

Francis became ill and spent the last few years of his life mostly blind. He died in 1226 while singing Psalm 141. He was declared a Saint of the Catholic Church only two years after his death.

Our Lady of the Rosary—Feast Day 7 October

Many religions use beads to keep track of prayers. Our Rosary, a circle of beads, is like a garland offered to Mary because we pray a prayer on each bead.

On 7 October, 1571 the Rosary Confraternity of Rome was meeting at the Dominican headquarters there. The group recited the Rosary for the special intention of the Christians in battle. The Christians defeated the Turks in a spectacular victory and believed it was the intercessory power of the Blessed Virgin that won the victory.

Pope Pius V dedicated the day as one of thanksgiving to Our Lady of Victory. Pope Gregory XIII later changed the name to the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary.

The story of the feast of Our Lady of the Rosary focuses on the intercessory power of Mary. It shows that when we are in danger, in pain, discouraged, or having trouble accepting God's will, we can also go to Mary.

Mary has encouraged praying the Rosary in her various apparitions. At Lourdes when she appeared to Saint Bernadette, Mary had a Rosary. As Bernadette prayed it, Mary joined in on the Glory Be prayers. At Fatima Mary (who introduced herself as "Our Lady of the Rosary"), exhorted the three children who saw her to pray the Rosary for peace.

The Rosary is a scripturally inspired prayer because as we recite the Our Fathers, Hail Marys, and Glory Bes, we meditate on the mysteries in the lives of Jesus and Mary.
