From Fr Paul

Dear Parishioners

With schools resuming this past week and many returning to work after a summer break, there’s a sense of 2022 “getting into full swing”.

I acknowledge that the Covid pandemic is getting ever “closer to home” with families and individuals within our parish and school communities testing positive and having to isolate. Some restrictions are still in place and many are cautious about being in contact with others.

At the Church, we continue to maintain our Covid protocols in an effort to look after one another. Please let the Parish Office know if you need assistance.

This week we mark the passing of two much loved parishioners of long standing – Ves McGrath and Mary Faulder (see Page 4 for further information). Details of their funerals this coming week at Holy Name: Ves McGrath, Tuesday 8 February at 10:30am; Mary Faulder Friday 11 February at 10:30am.

The parish community extends Wedding Congratulations to Tim McElhenny and Gemma Casssarchis, to be married at Holy Name on Saturday, 12 February. Tim and Gemma both attended St Leo’s, Wahroonga.

This coming Wednesday we celebrate the Opening School Mass for the Prouille children. This is an opportunity to gather in praise and thanksgiving, and to ask God’s blessing on the year ahead. We welcome Damien, the new Deputy Principal.

Some regular parish groups and activities are beginning for another year. The “Come As You Are” group (CAYA) recommences on Thursday 10 February at 10.00am.

A Co-Ordinator is needed for our St Dominic’s Playgroup. This is a Social playgroup which meets Mondays 9am-11am in the Parish Sunroom. Mothers with pre-school children and grandmothers with their grandchildren are welcome. Please speak with me or phone Jackie in the Parish Office if you are interested to contribute in any way. The parish will support you.

Please note the revised Morning Prayer Routine for weekday mornings, Tuesday-Friday (Page 4).

We are also wanting to encourage the praying of the Rosary in the church each morning after Mass. Are there some among us who would be confident to lead the recitation of the Rosary? Please speak with me or phone Jackie in the Parish Office.

A Reminder of Mass for First Saturdays of the year here at Holy Name.

This Sunday’s Gospel reading has Jesus get into Peter’s boat (ie: into his life and livelihood!) and begin to direct him. Peter’s life will never be the same again! I encourage you in your life of faith as we look ahead to another year.

Be assured on my prayers and good wishes for 2022.

Fr Paul

What do the readings say to us this Sunday?

First Reading (Isaiah 6:1-8). We hear of the call of Isaiah to the ministry of prophecy.

Second Reading (1 Corinthians 15:1-11). St Paul energetically defends the doctrine of the resurrection from the dead.

Gospel (Luke 5:1-11). This tells the story of a miraculous catch of fish and the call of St Peter to share in the work of Christ.

The First Reading tells of the call of Isaiah to the ministry of prophecy. In a vision in the Temple God reveals himself to Isaiah as the All-holy One. The vision evokes in Isaiah a sense of his own sinfulness. But then, cleansed of his sins, he responds without hesitation to the divine call.

This prepares us for the Gospel which deals with the call of the first disciples. Here again we see that it is God who takes the initiative, and also the total response he requires. The miraculous catch of fish convinces Peter of the holiness of Jesus. This evokes in him a sense of their own sinfulness and unworthiness, so much so that he asks Jesus to depart from him. Peter has not yet grasped the fact that it was to call sinners that Jesus came, to call them away from sin to a new way of life. Nevertheless, at the word of Jesus, Peter and his companions leave everything and follow him. The phrase 'they left everything' shows the importance for Luke of detachment from possessions.

The Second Reading stresses the central belief of Christianity - the resurrection of Jesus. St Paul declares that, in spite of his unworthiness, he is a witness to the resurrection.

Reflection for the coming week:

*In Jesus,
love has triumphed
over hatred,
mercy over sinfulness,
goodness over evil,
truth over falsehood,
life over death.

"When Jesus had finished speaking he said to Simon: "Put out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch". And Simon answered, "Master, we toiled all night and caught nothing! But at your word I will let down the nets" (Lk 5: 4-5). Jesus, a carpenter, was not a skilled fisherman: yet Simon the fisherman trusted this Rabbi, who did not give him answers but required him to trust him.

His reaction to the miraculous catch showed his amazement and fear: "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord" (Lk 5: 8). Jesus replied by inviting him to trust and to be open to a project that would surpass all his expectations. "Do not be afraid; henceforth, you will be catching men" (Lk 5: 10). Peter could not yet imagine that one day he would arrive in Rome and that here he would be a "fisher of men" for the Lord. He accepted this surprising call, he let himself be involved in this great adventure: he was generous; he recognised his limits but believed in the one who was calling him and followed the dream of his heart. He said "yes", a courageous and generous "yes", and became a disciple of Jesus."

Our Morning Prayer is Changing!

Dear parishioners of Holy Name,

Our daily morning prayer schedule is about to change. We have been discussing how we might create better opportunities for Eucharistic devotion and enrich our common prayer life as a community. As a result, we have decided to implement a new timetable for morning prayer on weekdays. It is as follows:

8:30AM - Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

- Eucharistic adoration presents a wonderful opportunity to bring your hopes, joys, and sufferings before Our Lord in an intimate encounter. The practice of adoration is an ancient tradition that stretches back to the earliest years of the Church. Popes and Saints throughout the years have testified to its power to transform the human heart. Regular adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is a beautiful way to rejuvenate our prayer life and enter more deeply into a contemplative relationship with God.

“Every holy hour we make so pleases the Heart of Jesus that it will be recorded in Heaven and retold for all eternity. It opens up the floodgates of God’s merciful Love upon the world.” – St. Teresa of Calcutta

9:00AM – Recitation of the Liturgy of the Hours (Divine Office)

- Morning Prayer is one part of the “Liturgy of the Hours,” which is considered alongside the Mass as the official public prayer of the Church. Its structure is based around the reading of the Psalms as Jesus would have prayed daily, and is supplemented with a hymn, several antiphons, a short reading and some intercessions. It is led by two cantors in the front pews of the Church (usually Fr Paul and Fr Sam), and the congregation on each side of the Church take turns with them reciting each paragraph of the Psalms and responses. The whole prayer takes about 10 minutes and is very easy to learn and follow along.

If you would like join us in prayer, (at home or in the Church) the texts for Morning Prayer can be accessed through the app called “Universalis” available on both the App Store \(iPhone/iPad\) and the Google Play Store \(Android\). We will also endeavour to make it visible on the screen in the Church.

9:10AM – Simple reposition of the Blessed Sacrament in the Tabernacle

9:15AM – Mass will begin at the usual time.

Fr Paul and Fr Sam

Vale— Sylvester ‘Ves’ McGrath

Sylvester ‘Ves’ McGrath has been a much loved parishioner in our Holy Name community over many years. Many have expressed their sadness at hearing of Ves’ passing on Wednesday, 26th January.

He was a man of great faith who valued belonging to such a wonderful Parish Community. He particularly enjoyed his participation in the Schola (see picture—Ves is left hand side, back row).

Ves had not been in the best of health in the past year, but the Parish continued to stay in contact with him and to take Holy Communion to him at home.

His wife Claire died in 2006. He is survived by his three sons, Dominic, Damien and Justin and their families.

A Requiem Mass for the repose of Ves’ soul will be held on Tuesday 8th February at 10:30am.

Vale— Mary Faulder

The parish acknowledges the passing of Mary Faulder— much loved sister and sister-in-law of Ken and Carol Faulder and much loved aunt and great-aunt of Anne, Elizabeth, Ken, John and their families.

Mary lived with a disability from birth and was cared for with great devotion by her family throughout her life. Ken and Carol in particular took great care of Mary. She spent the last years of her life at Southern Cross Nursing Home, North Turramurra where she died on 29 January, aged 85.

Mary loved belonging to Holy Name Parish. She was a woman of strong faith. She loved attending the Sunday Mass and had a strong devotion to Mary.

A Requiem Mass for the repose of Mary’s soul will be held on Friday, 11th February at 10:30am, to be followed by a private cremation.

We remember this week

Saint Scholastica (c. 480 – February 10, 542)

Feast Day 10 February

It is said twins often share the same interests and ideas with an equal intensity. Therefore, it is no surprise that Scholastica and her twin brother, Benedict, established religious communities within a few miles of each other.

Born in 480 of wealthy parents, Scholastica and Benedict were brought up together until he left for Rome to continue his studies. Little is known of Scholastica's early life. She founded a religious community for women near where her brother governed a monastery.

The twins visited each other once a year in a farmhouse because Scholastica was not permitted inside the monastery. They spent these times discussing spiritual matters.

According to the Dialogues of St. Gregory the Great, the brother and sister spent their last day together in prayer and conversation.

Scholastica sensed her death was close at hand and she begged Benedict to stay with her until the next day. He refused her request because he did not want to spend a night outside the monastery, thus breaking his own Rule.

Scholastica asked God to let her brother remain and a severe thunderstorm broke out, preventing Benedict and his monks from returning to the abbey. Benedict cried out, "God forgive you, Sister. What have you done?" Scholastica replied, "I asked a favour of you and you refused. I asked it of God and he granted it."

Brother and sister parted the next morning after their long discussion. Three days later, Benedict was praying in his monastery and saw the soul of his sister rising to heaven in the form of a white dove. Benedict then announced the death of his sister to the monks and later buried her in the tomb he had prepared for himself.

St Scholastica and St Benedict pray for us.
