POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION FOR JANUARY

FOR THE RIGHT TO AN EDUCATION

Let us pray for migrants, refugees and those affected by war, that their right to an education, which is necessary to build a better world, might always be respected.

A warm welcome to all our Parishioners and visitors who are participating in Mass with us this weekend.

Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan

Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, you called Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan to be your apostle, to make God known and loved by all people everywhere, using all the means your love inspires. You filled him with universal apostolic zeal, with a deep trust in God's loving providence, with a profound spirit of prayer, with a sincere devotion to Mary, Mother of the Saviour, and with the courage to follow you, even into the mystery of the Cross.

Grant also to me the grace to proclaim the Gospel in this spirit, and make me an effective apostle in today's world.

Through the intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan, I pray to you for my special needs (include your personal intention). I make this prayer through you, my Saviour, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

Our First Fruits Offering starts two weekends from now. This program is essential to support funding our maintenance and other special projects. Our Parishioners will hear about our plans and be asked to pray and reflect on their financial commitment to our Parish name.

More details will be made available in the coming weeks. Thank you for your interest in serving our Parish. God Bless you.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED:

World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life 2 February 2025

The World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life is celebrated on Sunday, 2 February 2025. Instituted by St Pope John Paul II in 1997, the World Day of Prayer for Consecrated Life is celebrated in conjunction with the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, also known as Candlemas Day, which commemorates through the blessing and lighting of candles, that Christ is the light of the world. Those in consecrated life are called to reflect the light of Jesus Christ to all people.

On this day, please pray for all those who have made commitments in consecrated life and thank them for having committed their lives to Christ. May they continue to be inspired by Jesus Christ and respond generously to God's gift of their vocation.

Prayer for Feast of the Celebration

Lord Jesus, on this Feast of the Presentation, we give thanks for the gift of consecrated life. Just as Mary and Joseph presented you in the Temple, we offer ourselves to you, desiring to live a life of sacrifice and service.

Bless all consecrated men and women, especially Salvatorians, that they may be faithful to their vows and shine as lights in the world, reflecting your love and presence to all they encounter. May they, like Simeon and Anna, recognise you in their lives and proclaim your salvation with joy.

Amen.

PYMBLE CATHOLIC PARISH
SACRED HEART & OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL SUCCOUR

31 January 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

As members of the Pymble Parish, we are blessed to come together in faith to experience God's love in the celebration of the Mass, and through one another as a community of faith. I am deeply grateful for your meaningful participation, contributions and support in the life of our parish.

As we continue to journey together as the People of God, I invite you to prayerfully consider becoming an ongoing Planned Giver as part of our First Fruits Offering, taking place over the next two weeks.

Planned Giving is a prayerful commitment to dedicate a portion of your financial income to God and His Church in gratitude for His many blessings. It helps ensure the mission and ministries of our parish continue to thrive for both our present community and future generations. Your contributions remain within our local parish and support:

- Liturgical needs (vestments, bread, wine)
- Ongoing ministries (youth, seniors, RCIA)
- Special ministries (Catechetics, sacramental programs, aged care visits)
- Office Equipment and resources
- Rising utility costs, insurance, repairs, and staff wages

To assist you in prayerfully reflecting on this important decision, we have prepared materials and resources that are available for you to take home. These include information about First Fruits Offering and pledge envelopes. We encourage you to take some time to review these resources, pray, and discern how you can support our parish in sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Becoming a Planned Giver is a simple yet profound way to demonstrate your faith and commitment to God's work. If you are not yet a Planned Giver, I encourage you to take this step. If you are already contributing on an ongoing basis to the Parish, thank you. I invite you to prayerfully consider increasing your offering as you are able.

For more information or assistance with Planned Giving, please contact the parish office. We are happy to help.

Thank you for your generous support. May God bless you abundantly as you continue to live out your faith and share in His mission.

In Christ's peace and love,

Father Ireneusz Czech SDS

Liturgy of the Word

The Presentation of the Lord

Entrance Antiphon Cf Psalm 47: 10-11

Your merciful love, O God,
we have received in the midst of your temple.
Your praise, O God, like your name,
reaches the ends of the earth;
your right hand is filled with saving justice.

First Reading Malachi 3: 1-4

A reading from the prophet Malachi

The Lord God says this: Look, I am going to send my messenger to prepare a way before me. And the Lord you are seeking will suddenly enter his temple; and the angel of the covenant whom you are longing for, yes, he is coming, says the Lord of hosts. Who will be able to resist the day of his coming? Who will remain standing when he appears? For he is like the refiner's fire and the fuller's alkali. He will take his seat as refiner and purifier; he will purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, and then they will make the offering to the Lord as it should be made. The offering of Judah and Jerusalem will then be welcomed by the Lord as in former days, as in the years of old.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 23: 7-10 R.v. 8

(R.) Who is the king of glory? It is the Lord!

1. O gates, lift up your heads;
grow higher, ancient doors.
Let him enter, the king of glory! (R.)
2. Who is the king of glory?
The Lord, the mighty, the valiant,
the Lord, the valiant in war. (R.)
3. O gates, lift high your heads;
grow higher, ancient doors.
Let him enter, the king of glory! (R.)
4. Who is he, the king of glory?
He, the Lord of armies,
he is the king of glory. (R.)

Second Reading Hebrews 2: 14-18

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

Since all the children share the same blood and flesh, Jesus too shared equally in it, so that by his death he could take away all the power of the devil, who had power over death, and set free all those who had been held in slavery all their lives by the fear of death. For it was not the angels that he took to himself; he took to himself descent from Abraham. It was essential that he should in this way become completely like his brothers so that he could be a compassionate and trustworthy high priest of God's religion, able to atone for human sins. That is, because he has himself been through temptation he is able to help others who are tempted.

Gospel Acclamation Luke 2: 32

Alleluia, alleluia!
This is the light of revelation to the nations,
and the glory of your people Israel.
Alleluia!

Gospel Luke 2: 22-40

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

When the day came for them to be purified as laid down by the Law of Moses, the parents of Jesus took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord – observing what stands written in the Law of the Lord: Every first-born male must be consecrated to the Lord – and also to offer in sacrifice, in accordance with what is said in the Law of the Lord, a pair of turtle-doves or two young pigeons. Now in Jerusalem there was a man named Simeon. He was an upright and devout man; he looked forward to Israel's comforting and the Holy Spirit rested on him. It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death until he had set eyes on the Christ of the Lord. Prompted by the Spirit he came to the Temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus to do for him what the Law required, he took him into his arms and blessed God, and he said:

'Now, Master, you can let your servant go in peace, just as you promised; because my eyes have seen the salvation which you have prepared for all the nations to see, a light to enlighten the pagans and the glory of your people Israel.'

As the child's father and mother stood there wondering at the things that were being said about him, Simeon blessed them and said to Mary his mother, 'You see this child: he is destined for the fall and for the rising of many in Israel, destined to be a sign that is rejected – and a sword will pierce your own soul too – so that the secret thoughts of many may be laid bare.'

There was a prophetess also, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was well on in years. Her days of girlhood over, she had been married for seven years before becoming a widow. She was now eighty-four years old and never left the Temple, serving God night and day with fasting and prayer. She came by just at that moment and began to praise God; and she spoke of the child to all who looked forward to the deliverance of Jerusalem.

When they had done everything the Law of the Lord required, they went back to Galilee, to their own town of Nazareth. Meanwhile the child grew to maturity, and he was filled with wisdom; and God's favour was with him.

OFFERED

"Know you are completely consecrated to God! He alone has the right to claim your talents."
(Blessed Francis Jordan, Spiritual Diary I/11)

It is always a great joy for me to see the smiling faces of parents and godparents who bring their child for baptism. They come to church with their small baby, recognising that this life is a precious gift from God. The child is offered to Him and welcomed into His family. At the same time, parents and godparents commit themselves to raising their son or daughter in the Church community.

Today's feast of the Presentation of the Lord brings us to a similar scene. Mary and Joseph, following Jewish law, bring the baby Jesus to the temple. In this humble act of faith they present Him to God, acknowledging that He ultimately belongs to His heavenly Father.

In the first reading from the prophet Malachi, traditionally considered the last of the twelve minor prophets of the Old Testament, we hear about the future coming of the Lord, who will purify His people like a refiner's fire. Malachi speaks of the Lord entering His temple to redeem and renew His people. Jesus presented in the temple is the One who will purify and refine the world through His life, death and resurrection. Today's feast marks the beginning of that mission. Christ is the high priest who will not only offer the sacrifice but also become the sacrifice Himself. To do that He had to become like us in every way except sin. In today's letter to the Hebrews we read, "It was essential that he should become completely like his brothers so that he could be a compassionate and trustworthy high priest of God's religion, able to atone for human sins" (Heb 2:17).

In the Gospel of Saint Luke we see Simeon and Anna, who had spent many years waiting for the Messiah. When they saw the child Jesus they recognised Him as the fulfilment of God's promises. Simeon took Him into his arms, blessed the Lord, and said, "Now, Master, you can let your servant go in peace, just as you promised; because my eyes have seen the salvation, which you have prepared for all the nations to see, a light to enlighten the pagans and the glory of your people Israel" (Lk 2:29-32).

Simeon and Anna had hearts open and ready to receive the Lord at any moment. They were willing to surrender to Him totally. Let us imitate them and spend our lives in prayer. Let us especially find time to participate in the sacraments of the Church, where we encounter Christ in the most powerful way. By doing so, we will become with Him "a holy sacrifice, truly pleasing to God" (Rom 12:1).
