SACRED HEART & OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL SUCCOUR

Building a Christ-centred community of Love and Mercy

Pymble Parish is under the Pastoral care of the Salvatorian Fathers

Please Help Me Heavenly Father

Heavenly Father, thank You for the amazing example of Jesus, when He set aside His rights and abilities in order to be obedient to Your Word and Will.

May I keep the eyes of my heart on Christ's earthly example and resist the temptation to act independently of You.

Help me to depend on You in every eventuality of life, knowing that this is Your will for me and brings honour to Your name.

This I ask in Jesus name,

AMEN.

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION FOR FEBRUARY

For Parishes

We pray that parishes, placing communion at the centre, may increasingly become communities of faith, fraternity and welcome towards those most in need.

Prayer for the Intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan

Lord Jesus Christ, Saviour of the world, you called Francis Mary of the Cross Jordan to be your apostle, to make God known and loved by all people everywhere, using all the means your love inspires. You filled him with universal apostolic zeal, with a deep trust in God's loving providence, with a profound spirit of prayer, with a sincere devotion to Mary, Mother of the Saviour, and with the courage to follow you, even into the mystery of the Cross.

Grant also to me the grace to proclaim the Gospel in this spirit, and make me an effective apostle in today's world.

Through the intercession of Blessed Francis Jordan, I pray to you for my special needs (include your personal intention). I make this prayer through you, my Saviour, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

SACRED HEART

This term Year 5M have been learning about leading as a disciple of Jesus.

Our focus has been on:

- Catholic discipleship and how we seek to live like Jesus in the way we are and the things we do.
- How our actions and words reflect Jesus' way of being in his life, and most importantly why we care for and serve others.
- Understanding that there comes a time in our lives when we can reflect upon our impact on others and lead others to live in the way that Jesus would want.
- How Jesus modelled servant leadership to us and this is the way that we are called to lead in our lives.
- Reflecting upon how we can be leaders in the way that Jesus showed us. Students will explore how Jesus modelled leadership and taught about leading through love in his parables.

We have also been exploring the Lord's Prayer and how it inspires us to be leaders. Our students understand that saying this amazing prayer is not enough. The goal is to internalise each and every aspect of this prayer so that it becomes a model of our personal faith response with our Father.

Roof Repairs at Sacred Heart Church

Over the past few weeks you may have noticed that the roof of Sacred Heart Church has been undergoing repairs. The work being done is extensive and will cost the parish $84,000, but is necessary to prevent the ongoing leaks and flooding that occur from time to time during periods of heavy rain.

We ask for your patience as these works are being conducted. If you would like to contribute to the cost of these repairs, please contact the Parish Office.

Recently Deceased:

Alessandro Lazzaroni, Lachlan Hodge, Emeritus Pope Benedict XVI, Cardinal George Pell, Patricia (Trish) McGrath, Francesco Allen

Death Anniversaries:

Kerry Oei, Ambrose Teh, Cheang Lim Neo, Patricia Shepherd, Peter Brassil, Trena Scanlan, Claire Rickard, Melba Sequeira, Franklin

Prayers for the sick:

Ron Edgar, Sarinder Tamana

Weekly prayer intention:

This week we pray for bishops around the world, that first and last they will be disciples of Jesus and bearers of good news. Amen.

If you would like the names of your relatives to be included in the prayer list (anniversary of deaths, recently deceased, illnesses, wedding celebration or anniversaries, birthdays, etc.) please contact the Parish Office by midday each Wednesday. Remember that due to privacy policy, names of the sick can only be put on the bulletin with permission of the immediate family. This list will be updated every month and we would appreciate if we are advised of any updates. Thank you.

Parish Safeguarding

Dear Parishioners,

We take our responsibility to safeguard the vulnerable, whether they be children, the young, the elderly or the disabled very seriously. We work to ensure that no one is taken advantage of within our Parish.

If you have any concern about the treatment of a child, young person or anyone within our parish environment, please approach myself directly or Daniela Foote within the parish office on 02 9144 2702.

Alternatively, you may wish to contact Ana Cosi, Safeguarding Manager (Chancery & Churches) on 02 8379 1651.

Yours in Christ,

Fr Ireneusz Czech SDS

First Sunday of Lent 25 & 26 February

Laxmi, 16, lives in in Jajarkot, a remote district in Nepal where almost half of the population live below the poverty line. Tragedy struck when Laxmi was 10 years old and her father passed away. Her father worked hard to pay for his children's education and after losing him Laxmi was at risk of falling further into extreme poverty.

With the support of our partner Caritas Nepal, Laxmi joined a child's club at her school where she was encouraged to resume her education. Through the child's club, Laxmi developed the skills and confidence to become a leader, advocating for clean water taps at her school.

Laxmi is now excelling in her studies and working towards her dream of becoming a civil engineer. She continues to be involved in the child's club, serving as an advisor and mentoring the next generation of young leaders at her old school.

You can donate through Project Compassion donation boxes and envelopes available from the back the church, by visiting caritas.org.au/project-compassion, or by calling 1800 024 413.

Lent.
A SEASON OF RENEWAL

FASTING AND FEASTING (DURING LENT)

LENT should be more than a time of fasting. It should also be a joyous season of feasting

LENT is a time to fast from certain things and to feast on others.

It is a season in which we should:

- Fast from judging others... feast on the Christ indwelling in them.
- Fast from emphasis on differences... feast on the unity of all life.
- Fast from thoughts on illness... feast on the healing power of God.
- Fast from words that pollute... feast on phrases that purify.
- Fast from worry... feast on trust.
- Fast from discontent... feast on gratitude.
- Fast from suspicion... feast on charitableness.
- Fast from self-concern... feast on compassion for others.
- Fast from anger... feast on patience.
- Fast from pessimism... feast on optimism.
- Fast from complaining... feast on appreciation.
- Fast from hostility... feast on friendliness.
- Fast from personal anxiety... feast on the power of God.
- Fast from idle gossip... feast on silence or find a word of praise.
- Fast from shadows of sorrow... feast on Christ's glorious Resurrection.
- Fast from unrelenting pressures... feast on unceasing prayer.
- Fast from problems that overwhelm... feast on prayer and confidence in God's help.

Entrance Antiphon

When he calls on me, I will answer him;
I will deliver him and give him glory,
I will grant him length of days.

First Reading

Gen 2:7-9; 3:1

A reading from the book of Genesis

The Lord God fashioned man of dust from the soil. Then he breathed into his nostrils a breath of life, and thus man became a living being.

The Lord God planted a garden in Eden which is in the east, and there he put the man he had fashioned. The Lord God caused to spring up from the soil every kind of tree, enticing to look at and good to eat, with the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil in the middle of the garden.

The serpent was the most subtle of all the wild beasts that the Lord God had made. It asked the woman, 'Did God really say you were not to eat from any of the trees in the garden?' The woman answered the serpent, 'We may eat the fruit of the trees in the garden. But of the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden God said, "You must not eat it, nor touch it, under pain of death".' Then the serpent said to the woman, 'No! You will not die! God knows in fact that on the day you eat it your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods, knowing good and evil.' The woman saw that the tree was good to eat and pleasing to the eye, and that it was desirable for the knowledge that it could give. So she took some of its fruit and ate it. She gave some also to her husband who was with her, and he ate it. Then the eyes of both of them were opened and they realised that they were naked. So they sewed fig-leaves together to make themselves loin-cloths.

Responsorial Psalm

(R.) Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned.

1. Have mercy on me, God in your kindness, in your compassion blot out my offence. O wash me more and more from my guilt and cleanse me from my sin. (R.)
2. My offences truly I know them, my sin is always before me. Against you, you alone, have I sinned; What evil in your sight I have done. (R.)
3. A pure heart create for me, O God, put a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me away from your presence nor deprive me of your holy spirit. (R.)
4. Give me again the joy of your help. with a spirit of fervour sustain me, O Lord, open my lips and my mouth shall declare your praise (R.)

Second Reading

Rom 5: 12-19

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Romans

Sin entered the world through one man, and through sin death, and thus death has spread through the whole human race because everyone has sinned. Sin existed in the world long before the Law was given. There was no law and so no one could be accused of the sin of 'law-breaking', yet death reigned over all from Adam to Moses, even though their sin, unlike that of Adam, was not a matter of breaking a law.

Adam prefigured the One to come, but the gift itself considerably outweighed the fall. If it is certain that through one man's fall so many died, it is even more certain that divine grace, coming through the one man, Jesus Christ, came to so many as an abundant free gift. The results of the gift also outweigh the results of one man's sin: for after one single fall came judgement with a verdict of condemnation, now after many falls comes grace with its verdict of acquittal. If it is certain that death reigned over everyone as the consequence of one man's fall, it is even more certain that one man, Jesus Christ, will cause everyone to reign in life who receives the free gift that he does not deserve, of being made righteous. Again, as one man's fall brought condemnation on everyone, so the good act of one man brings everyone life and makes them justified. As by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by one man's obedience many will be made righteous.

Gospel Acclamation

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Gospel

Mt: 4: 1-11

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus was led by the Spirit out into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights, after which he was very hungry, and the tempter came and said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to turn into loaves.' But he replied, 'Scripture says:

Man does not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.'

The devil then took him to the holy city and made him stand on the parapet of the Temple. 'If you are the Son of God,' he said, 'throw yourself down; for scripture says:

He will put you in his angels' charge, and they will support you on their hands in case you hurt your foot against a stone.'

Jesus said to him, 'Scripture also says:

You must not put the Lord your God to the test.'

Next, taking him to a very high mountain, the devil showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendour. 'I will give you all these', he said, 'if you fall at my feet and worship me.' Then Jesus replied, 'Be off, Satan! For scripture says:

You must worship the Lord your God, and serve him alone.'

Then the devil left him, and angels appeared and looked after him.

Gospel Reflection

Preparing mind, heart, and will to serve God

Why did Jesus choose such a barren, lonely place for a sustained period of prayer and fasting? Matthew, Mark, and Luke tell us in their Gospel accounts that Jesus was led by the Holy Spirit into the wilderness. Mark states it most emphatically: "The Spirit immediately drove him out into the wilderness" (Mark 1:12).

What compelled Jesus to seek solitude, away from his family and friends, for such a lengthy period? Was it simply a test to prepare him for his mission? Or did Satan want to lure him into a trap? The word tempt in English usually means to entice someone to do what is wrong or forbidden. The scriptural word used here also means test in the sense of proving and assessing someone to see if they are prepared and ready for the task at hand. We test flight pilots to see if they are fit to fly under all conditions, including times of adverse turbulence, storms, and poor visibility. In like manner God tests his people to see if they are ready to follow and serve him without reservation or compromise.

Jesus' forty days of testing and preparation

Jesus was no exception to this pattern of testing and preparation for the mission his Father gave him. He was led into the wilderness for 40 days without food and little shelter. He had nothing to sustain himself in this barren wilderness except what the Father would provide for him during his forty days of prayer and fasting. Jesus was left alone in this harsh and austere environment to wrestle with the temptation to seek an easy or comfortable course that would avoid pain and hardship, humiliation and rejection, suffering and death on a cross.

Children's Corner

Jesus fasts and is tempted by the devil

Mt 4:1-11

Across

- 2: the devil told Jesus to turn these into bread
- 4: a place to worship God
- 6: he tested Jesus in the desert
- 8: Jesus did not eat for this many days and nights
- 10: a barren, sandy environment

Down

- 1: a very tall, large land mass
- 2: another name for the devil
- 3: a common food made from wheat
- 5: a large area with many people and buildings
- 7: you eat this when you are hungry
- 8: these have toes on them
- 9: an exam

How did Jesus respond to temptation?

Hey Jesus!
If you're so hungry,
why don't you turn
these stones
here into bread?

Hey Jesus!
I bet that if you jump
off the temple,
God will send some angels to catch you!

Hey Jesus!
See all those kingdoms?
They're yours!
And all you have to do is bow down
and worship ME!
Too easy!

In the desert, Jesus faced some tough choices but was able to make the right ones. What are some of the tough choices that we face in our day to day lives?

Join up the fruit to complete the text maze:
"Lead us not into temptation."
