

First Reading :

A Reading from the Book of Isaiah 66:10-14

Rejoice, Jerusalem,
be glad for her, all you who love her!
Rejoice, rejoice for her, all you who mourned her!
That you may be suckled, filled,
from her consoling breast,
that you may savour with delight her glorious breasts.

For thus says the Lord:
Now towards her I send flowing peace, like a river,
and like a stream in spate the glory of the nations.
At her breast will her nurslings be carried and fondled in her lap.

Like a son comforted by his mother will I comfort you.
And by Jerusalem you will be comforted.
At the sight your heart will rejoice,
and your bones flourish like the grass.
To his servants the Lord will reveal his hand.

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm : Psalm 65(66):1-7,16,20R. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Cry out with joy to God all the earth,
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise.

Say to God: 'How tremendous your deeds! R.

'Before you all the earth shall bow;
shall sing to you, sing to your name!'

Come and see the works of God,
tremendous his deeds among men. R.

He turned the sea into dry land,
they passed through the river dry-shod.
Let our joy then be in him;
he rules for ever by his might. R.

Come and hear, all who fear God.
I will tell what he did for my soul:
Blessed be God who did not reject my prayer
nor withhold his love from me. R.

Second Reading : Galatians 6:14-18

A Reading from St Paul's Letter to the Galatians

The only thing I can boast about is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. It does not matter if a person is circumcised or not; what matters is for him to become an altogether new creature. Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, who form the Israel of God. I want no more trouble from anybody after this; the marks on my body are those of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

The word of the Lord

Gospel : Luke 10:1-12,17-20

A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road.

'Whatever house you go into, let your first words be, "Peace to this house!" And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you. Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house

'Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, "The kingdom of God is very near to you." But whenever you enter a town and they do not make you welcome, go out into its streets and say, "We wipe off the very dust of your town that clings to our feet, and leave it with you. Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God is very near." I tell you, on that day it will not go as hard with Sodom as with that town.

The seventy-two came back rejoicing. 'Lord,' they said 'even the devils submit to us when we use your name.' He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Yes, I have given you power to tread underfoot serpents and scorpions and the whole strength of the enemy; nothing shall ever hurt you. Yet do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you; rejoice rather that your names are written in heaven.'

Dear Parishioners,

Today we celebrate the Feast day of our Lady of Perpetual Succour. It's our family feast and celebration of our faith. May this celebration of the feast day unite us together as one family. We experience the unfailing help and protection of our Mother Mary in our everyday life. We have a sure hope and help in our Heavenly mother.

Mary's faith is a model of our faith. Her tender care for her son is the guarantee of her care for us. Her pondering of God's word shows us the path which leads us to her son and to an understanding of our faith.

The Christian faith is not a faith of unnecessary burdens and human rules. Our Lady of Perpetual Help is a perennial reminder of how our God is a God who always remains faithful to his people, a God who is always close to his people but, strangely for our logic, is especially close to those who fail and to those who are not faithful to him. Her Perpetual Help is our hope.

We pray for the constant help of Mary, Mother of Perpetual Help, for ourselves, for those who are dear to us, for those in our world who feel lost and abandoned and for our Church that it will become in society ever more a true icon of God's mercy.

God bless you all.

Fr.Tomy

Prayer for a New Bishop

Heavenly Father and Eternal Shepherd, you watch over and govern your flock with vigilance and concern. In your immense love, grant to your Church a pastor who will please you by his holiness and aid us with his unfailing care.

In your time, grant us the joy of welcoming a shepherd formed after your own heart.

May he be an example of virtue to your people and, imbued with the power of the Holy spirit, fill their minds with the truth and beauty of the Gospel.

Grant wisdom, O Lord, to those now discerning your holy will in the selection of our new bishop.

We ask this in the name of Jesus our Lord and through the intercession of our mother, Mary Star of the Sea. Amen

Ad Limina Visit—Bishops of Australia

As we await the appointment of our new Bishop, Fr David Ranson represented our Diocese at the Ad Limina in Rome, where he met Pope Francis. The Ad Limina has ended and he is now enjoying a couple of weeks rest in Europe before coming home.

Security: Security is one aspect of Administration and Stewardship for which I am responsible, accountable and subject to Audit. Therefore, I respectfully request that anyone who has keys, to any parish building, at St Mary's, Toukley, or St Brendan's Lake Munmorah, to bring them to the parish office and have them checked against the Key Register before the 19th July 2019. Thank You Fr Tomy Kuruvellil

Upcoming Parish Events

Today, we also celebrate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday. Bishop Columba MacBeth-Green, who is the Chair of the Bishops' Commission for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders, has said that this is a significant celebration in our Church's calendar. He went on to say, that whilst providing us with an opportunity to acknowledge our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander brothers and sisters, this celebration also signifies that we are united as one in God's love and care.

As a community we must strengthen the observance of the Lord's Day especially in the worship of God at Sunday Mass.
