TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

YEAR B

23rd June, 2024

Today's Gospel reading gives a detailed account of how Jesus calmed the rough sea and the wind. Jesus and His disciples were travelling across the sea in a boat after a tiring day's work. Being tired and exhausted, Jesus soon slept in the stern of the boat. While traveling, a great storm arose, and the boat was on the point of sinking due to the rough sea and the wind. The disciples were totally frightened and lost all hope. They begged Jesus to save them from the life-threatening situation. Jesus then got up and commanded the sea and the wind. There was a great calm after that.

The question Jesus put to the disciples is very relevant. "Why are you afraid? Have you no faith?" Jesus did allow the storm to trouble the faith of His disciples. But He was in their midst helping them to come through it. When we are faced with storms in our daily lives, we too will definitely hear the gentle voice of the Lord calming us. "Fear not, for I am with you." Then the waves of fear will subside, and the rays of hope will shine on us too. Today Jesus asks each one of us to do what He did for the disciples. That is to make ourselves available to persons who have lost hope, who are caught up in the middle of storms of life especially in our challenging times. Now it is our turn to give courage and strength and help such persons to come through it.

"Peace begins with a smile." - St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta.

"First keep peace with yourself, then you can also bring peace to others." - Thomas A Kempis

First Reading Job 38:1, 8-11

A reading from the book of Job

Here I have set the boundaries of the sea.

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said:

Who pent up the sea behind closed doors
when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb,
when I wrapped it in a robe of mist
and made black clouds its swaddling bands;
when I marked the bounds it was not to cross
and made it fast with a bolted gate?
Come thus far, I said, and no farther;
here your proud waves shall break.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm Ps 106:23-26, 28-31

R. Give thanks to the Lord, his love is everlasting.

Some sailed to the sea in ships
to trade on the mighty waters.
These men have seen the Lord's deeds,
the wonders he does in the deep. R.

For he spoke; he summoned the gale,
tossing the waves of the sea
up to heaven and back into the deep;
their soul melted away in their distress. R.

Then they cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress.
He stilled the storm to a whisper:
all the waves of the sea were hushed. R.

They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them to the haven they desired.
Let them thank the Lord for his love,
the wonders he does for men. R.

Second Reading 2 Corinthians 5:14-17

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

All things are made new.

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them.

From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation Luke 7:16

Alleluia, alleluia!

A great prophet has appeared among us;

God has visited his people.

Alleluia!

Gospel Mark 4:35-41

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark
Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over to the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
