TENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

YEAR B

9th June, 2024

Unity brings Strength

In today's gospel narrative, we find Jesus amidst a tumultuous scene. The crowd was so large that He and His disciples couldn't even eat. His family, concerned about His well-being, thought He was out of His mind. Meanwhile, the teachers of the law accused Him of being possessed by Beelzebul, claiming He drove out demons by the prince of demons. Jesus, however, responded with profound wisdom, speaking in parables and highlighting the absurdity of such claims. He emphasized that a house divided against itself cannot stand and concluded with a powerful statement about who truly belongs to His family.

This passage is a powerful reminder of the importance of unity and the strength found in a shared purpose. Jesus' teaching that a divided house cannot stand encourages us to seek harmony and understanding in our relationships and communities. It challenges us to rise above conflicts and divisions, recognizing that working together in unity is essential for achieving our common goals. Moreover, Jesus' response to His accusers shows us the importance of staying true to our mission, even in the face of misunderstanding and criticism. Jesus remained focused on His divine purpose, undeterred by the doubts and accusations of others. This inspires us to remain steadfast in our own callings, trusting in our values and convictions even when faced with opposition.

Finally, Jesus' declaration about who constitutes His family—those who do the will of God—expands our understanding of kinship. It calls us to embrace a broader, spiritual family bound by shared faith and commitment to God's will. This inclusive vision encourages us to build relationships based on love, support, and a shared commitment to living out God's purpose in our lives. In essence, Jesus challenges us to foster unity, remain steadfast in our mission, and embrace a broader, more inclusive understanding of family. It calls us to live with purpose, resilience, and a deep sense of connection to all who seek to do God's will, reminding us that in unity and faith, we find our true strength and belonging.

First Reading Genesis 3:9-15

A reading from the book of Genesis

This I will make you enemies of each other: your offspring and her offspring.

The Lord God called to the man after he had eaten of the tree. 'Where are you?' he asked. 'I heard the sound of you in the garden;' he replied 'I was afraid because I was naked, so I hid.' 'Who told you that you were naked?' he asked. 'Have you been eating of the tree I forbade you to eat?' The man replied, 'It was the woman you put with me; she gave me the fruit, and I ate it.' Then the Lord God asked the woman, 'What is this you have done?' The woman replied, 'The serpent tempted me and I ate.'

Then the Lord God said to the serpent, 'Because you have done this,

'Be accursed beyond all cattle,
all wild beasts.

You shall crawl on your belly and eat dust
every day of your life.

I will make you enemies of each other:

you and the woman,
your offspring and her offspring.

It will crush your head
and you will strike its heel.'

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm Ps 129

R. With the Lord there is mercy
and fullness of redemption.

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord,
Lord, hear my voice!

O let your ears be attentive
to the voice of my pleading. R.

If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt,
Lord, who would survive?

But with you is found forgiveness:
for this we revere you. R.

My soul is waiting for the Lord,
I count on his word.

My soul is longing for the Lord
more than watchman for daybreak. R.

Because with the Lord there is mercy
and fullness of redemption,
Israel indeed he will redeem
from all its iniquity. R.

Second Reading 2 Corinthians 4:13 - 5:1

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

We believe, and therefore we speak.

As we have the same spirit of faith that is mentioned in scripture - I believed, therefore I spoke - we too believe and therefore we too speak, knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus to life will raise us with Jesus in our turn, and put us by his side and you with us. You see, all this is for your benefit, so that the more grace is multiplied among people, the more thanksgiving there will be, to the glory of God.

That is why there is no weakening on our part, and instead, though this outer man of ours may be falling into decay, the inner man is renewed day by day. Yes, the troubles which are soon over, though they weigh little, train us for the carrying of a weight of eternal glory which is out of all proportion to them. And so we have no eyes for things that are visible, but only for things that are invisible; for visible things last only for a time, and the invisible things are eternal.

For we know that when the tent that we live in on earth is folded up, there is a house built by God for us, an everlasting home not made by human hands, in the heavens.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation John 12:31, 32

Alleluia, alleluia!

The prince of this world will now be cast out,
and when I am lifted up from the earth

I will draw all to myself, says the Lord.

Alleluia!

Gospel Mark 3:20-35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

It is the end of Satan.

Jesus went home, and such a crowd collected that they could not even have a meal. When his relatives heard of this, they set out to take charge of him, convinced he was out of his mind.

The scribes who had come down from Jerusalem were saying: 'Beelzebul is in him' and, 'It is through the prince of devils that he casts devils out.' So Jesus called them to him and spoke to them in parables, 'How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom can not last. And if a household is divided against itself, that household can never stand. Now if Satan has rebelled against himself and is divided, he can not stand either - it is the end of him. But no one can make his way into a strong man's house and burgle his property unless he has tied up the strong man first. Only then can he burgle his house.

'I tell you solemnly, all men's sins will be forgiven, and all their blasphemies: but let anyone blaspheme against the Holy Spirit and he will never have forgiveness: he is guilty of an eternal sin.' This was because they were saying, 'An unclean spirit is in him.'

The mother and brothers of Jesus arrived and, standing outside, sent in a message asking for him. A crowd was sitting round him at the time the message was passed to him, 'Your mother and brothers and sisters are outside asking for you.'
He replied, 'Who are my mother and brothers?' And looking round at those sitting in a circle about him, he said, 'Here are my mother and my brothers. Anyone who does the will of God, that person is my brother and sister and mother.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ
