May God rebuke him we humbly pray; and you, O Prince of the Heavenly Hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen

I remember when ... supplied by the Parish Office

Each week we want to encourage as many parishioners as possible to send in a photo with a few lines about it. The photos and short story will be put in the bulletin and /or kept to put in our Terrigal Parish History book which we are aiming to get ready for December this year, this will coincide with our 20th anniversary of the relocation of the church at this site.

We really need your support to make this happen.

Our original church and amazing view

The original church of Our Lady Star of the Sea stood on Terrigal's Esplanade Hill from 1961 till our move to the new site in 2001.

In this year the school was complete, but the church was still to be built. While construction was happening, weekday Masses were said in what is now the school music room and weekend Masses were in the Hall. Fr Carol Grew encouraged us to be patient, that the children and the school had to come first. The parish funded the building of the school

The Parish office at this time was the house at the top of the drive, which then became the Haven and is now being occupied by Aspect. Our new church was finally opened on 22 December 2002

Catholics need better understanding of the Mass: Pope

In a new letter, Pope Francis says the "sense of mystery" and awe Catholics should experience at Mass is not prompted by Latin or additional elements, but an awareness of the sacrifice of Christ and his presence in the Eucharist.

"Beauty, just like truth, always engenders wonder, and when these are referred to the mystery of God, they lead to adoration," he wrote in an apostolic letter "on the liturgical formation of the people of God."

Titled Desiderio Desideravi ("I have earnestly desired"), the letter was released on the feast of Sts Peter and Paul. The title comes from Luke 22:15 when, before the Last Supper, Jesus tells his disciples, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer."

In the letter, Pope Francis insisted that Catholics need to better understand the liturgical reform of the Second Vatican Council and its goal of promoting the "full, conscious, active and fruitful celebration" of the Mass.

Bookclub

Last Friday our bookclub discussed Greg Sheridan's book, God is Good for You. Sheridan's normal expertise is as a foreign affairs journalist so writing a defence of Christianity was an ambitious project. He turns his journalist's eye to the history of Christianity and finds that contrary to the "new atheists," belief in God is more reasonable than non-belief.

In the second half of the book he discusses the religious belief of various politicians and notes that as a group, there are more Christians in parliament than in the general population. This might seem counter intuitive given that the seamless garment of a consistent ethics of life at the hands of our politicians is looking a bit tattered in recent years.

The consensus was that this is a book worth reading.

The book for August will be The Minister and the Murderer. Written by Stuart Kelly the book is an examination of the issues facing the Church of Scotland when a convicted murderer having completed his prison sentence wanted to become a minister. The question of forgiveness takes centre stage. A fascinating book!

On July 29th at 4pm we will be tackling Eight Popes and the Crisis of Modernity. Join us if this challenging topic interests you.

Lectio Divina

I would like to share with you a new website where you can find a weekly interactive reflection on the Gospel reading of the coming Sunday <https://lectiodivina.org.au> Over time further material will be added to offer more assistance in this area.

On Saturday July 23rd from 1:00-2:00pm, I am also hosting a one hour zoom meeting to give people an opportunity to appreciate the process of lectio divina and the benefits it brings to faith life. We will record this and make it available to you so you can share it with your parishioners.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday - 3 July 2022

Every year, on the first Sunday in July, Catholics come together across Australia to acknowledge and celebrate the gifts of Australia's First Peoples in the Catholic Church.

The National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholic Council (NATSICC) is the peak advisory body to the Australian Catholic Bishops on issues relating to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholics. The Council was founded in 1992 and the Secretariat is based in Adelaide. Each State and Territory nominates a representative via their local Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Ministry. In addition to a number of initiatives aimed to support First Nations Catholics, NATSICC advises the Bishops Commission for Relations with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholics. NATSICC is a not for profit organization that is funded by the Catholic Church and Caritas Australia's First Nations program.

We Acknowledge the Traditional Custodians who have walked upon and cared for this land for thousands of years. We acknowledge the continued deep spiritual attachment and relationship of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples to this country and commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of reconciliation.

Vox Populi - The Voice of the People -from the Broken Bay Diocese

We are now officially in the second half of 2022. That means six months to Christmas! However there is a great deal in the calendar to celebrate before then.

Each month of the year is dedicated to a particular devotion within the Catholic faith; the dedication of each month is based on historical events or a particular aspect of the liturgical calendar, or a combination of the two.

July is the month we honour the Precious Blood of Jesus - falling right between June's devotion to the Sacred Heart and August's devotion to the Immaculate Heart.

The feast of the Precious Blood of our Lord was instituted in 1849 by Pius IX, but the devotion is as old as Christianity. The early Fathers say that the Church was born from the pierced side of Christ, and that the sacraments were brought forth through His Blood.

The month also falls within the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical colour green. This symbol of hope is the colour of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection. Ordinary Time, which means ordered or numbered time, is celebrated in two segments: from the Monday following the Baptism of Our Lord up to Ash Wednesday; and from Pentecost Monday to the First Sunday of Advent. This makes it the largest season of the Liturgical Year.

The rhythm of the liturgical seasons reflects the rhythm of life — with its celebrations of anniversaries and its seasons of quiet growth and maturing. In July we celebrate many important feast days and memorials. Sunday is the feast of St Thomas the Apostle, who at first did not believe but has become known for the fervour in which he expressed his regained faith: "My Lord and my God". Also in July there are memorials for St Maria Goretti; Saints Bonaventure and

Peter Chrysologus, both Bishops and Doctors of the Church; Our Lady of Mount Carmel; Sts Joachim and Anne; Saints Martha, Mary and Lazarus and St Ignatius of Loyola, St Benedict, St Elizabeth of Portugal, St James, On 22 July we celebrate the Feast of St Mary Magdalene. This liturgical celebration honouring

St Mary Magdalene who was raised from a memorial to a feast in June 2016, recognising her in the same status as the other apostles of Jesus. A most ardent and loving follower of Jesus, she stood with Mary at the foot of the Cross, and when she went to the tomb with the other women, it was in the garden near the tomb that Jesus appeared to her. Mary Magdalene brought the news of the Resurrection to the Apostles, leading many to refer to her as the "apostle to the apostles".

May we ask all these great Saints in July to intercede on our behalf, to help increase our faith, to share our worries and to help us be "saints in the making" as we go about our daily work, and spending time with family and friends. May we also inspire others through our faith. JB
