St Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

Amen

Book Club

Book Club for February will be discussing A Severe Mercy by Sheldon Vanauken. According to the blurb on the back it was the winner of the National Book Award. A memoir which traces the love story between Sheldon and Jean Vanauken. While studying at Oxford, the two converted to Christianity after a transformative friendship with C S Lewis. This change shook the foundation of their relationship, leading Sheldon to realise that he was no longer Jean's primary love-God was. The book includes letters written by Lewis and negotiates a narrative arc from head to heart. As Christianity today has noted- a book for anyone who has truly loved another person.

In March we will be reflecting on the divine revelations experienced by the fourteenth century mystic, Julian of Norwich as published in Revelations of Divine Love. "An extraordinary work of medieval mysticism, from one of the first known woman authors writing in English.

If any of these books appeal, please join us on the last Friday of every month at 1600 in the Parish Offices to share in the joy of communal reading.

Jubilee Year 2025

Website

A dedicated Jubilee site bbjubilee.com.au within the diocesan website contains a myriad of resources, Calendar of Diocesan celebrations, detailed information for parishes and resources from the Holy See.

Jubilee of the Armed Forces, Police and Security Personnel: 8-9th February 2025

The Church recognises that military personnel can contribute enormously to the stability of our world and to the establishment of peace. This Jubilee celebrates the efforts all members of the armed forces and police, municipal police, security operators, veterans, military associations, military academies, chaplaincies and military ordinariates provide for peace.

We pray for all who serve in our Defence and Police Forces and as Security Personnel, that their daily work may be blessed, and members who are in danger will be kept safe.

Lord, hear us.

We pray for those who have given their lives in the service of our nation's freedom and safety, that they may know eternal peace in God's kingdom.

Lord, hear us
