A message from Fr Jacek

Dear parishioners and visitors, welcome to our beautiful Parish on this the First Sunday of Lent.

Thank you to all who came to the Spiritual Retreat Enrichment day with Fr Piotr last Tuesday. It was good to see it well attended as it was an inspiring day. There are other venues in Sydney over the following week if you missed ours.

Lenten booklets "Praying the scriptures in Lent". If you would like to be part of a scripture reflection group (using this booklet) it will be after the 6pm Stations of the Cross Friday evenings during Lent till 7pm. Reconciliation will also be available during 6pm to 7pm.

All the plenary council comments have been given to Chris Hartcher to collate and send. Than you to Chris for taking on the animator role for the Parish.

Since the guilty verdict of Cardinal Pell, many people are hurting and seeking answers. Please take the time to read the prayer printed in the bulletin, to give some comfort.

Fr Jacek

DIOCESAN COMMUNICATION

Media Coverage of Broken Bay in response to Cardinal Pell's verdict

SBS news program The Feed filmed and interviewed at Chatswood Parish on Sunday. Here is a link to the web story. The program was aired last Thursday night, 7 March at 8.30pm on SBS Viceland.

(A private prayer)

In times of distress we run to our mothers.
Mary our Mother please pray with us as we turn to your Son in prayer.

Help us to stay strong as a community as we pray for our suffering church.

May we the faithful, who are hurting, place everything in your hands.

May it be a time of true reflection for each one of us on what the church really means to us.

Only you Lord, truly know what is right and what is wrong.

What has been said and not said, what is just and what is not just. We pray for truth.

For the pain of all who have been abused in the care of the Catholic Church we seek forgiveness and we say sorry on behalf of those who have sinned.

We pray deeply from our hearts, for all victims, some of whom were only children, that they feel God's healing grace and His peace.

May they seek out professional help and care
So they will know and feel human understanding.

We pray for our evolving church that it continues to learn from its mistakes and it flourishes in all that it knows to be good.

May each of us carry the balm of love and seeds of peace in our hearts to meet the challenges of each day.

May we stay focused and close to you, Jesus, being nourished often by the Sacraments and listening to your words - The Good News for all times.

Jesus, while suffering in Gethsemane you told your disciples to "Stay awake and pray!" WE too are your disciples and this message is for us now in our Gethsemane.

Stay awake, watch and Pray.

We know Lord your are close to the broken hearted,
Please listen to our prayer. Jesus we trust in You
Amen

DISCERNMENT RETREAT

Discerning for a vocation is more than an intellectual weighing up of options, it is a process of becoming aware of what is in our hearts and minds, listening to God, gaining clarity and making a choice. It is not about choosing what you will do for life but about discovering who you are made to be.

The busyness of daily life takes away from our ability to listen to God and possibly discovering our deepest identity. This Discernment Retreat allows you to immerse yourself in a quiet environment that can help you listen to God and receive the spiritual direction you may be looking for. For more information please contact the Vocations Office for the Diocese of Broken Bay at Vocations.ministry@bbcatholic.org.au or call W: 02 9484 1427 M: 0418 522 449.

Chancellery Safeguarding Message:
