A message from Fr Jacek

Dear parishioners and visitors, welcome to our beautiful Parish on this the 22nd Sunday in Ordinary time. This is a big weekend in our parish with First Holy Communion for over 50 of our children. We also celebrate Father's Day and I wish all the Fathers, and Grandfathers a Happy Father's Day. We remember the souls of all deceased fathers over this weekend Masses.

Next Monday (2nd September) will be Adoration in the Parish church from 12Noon till 4pm.

Next Wednesday there will be a special meeting in our parish for anyone interested in becoming a Catholic. This is a gentle informative programme being offered so please if you would like to come yourself or bring a friend who is interested please contact the parish office.

Blessings on the week ahead.

ABORTION BILL HAVE YOUR SAY!

Please continue to send emails opposing this legislation to: taylor.martin@parliament.nsw.gov.au
EVERY email has it's importance ! Please show you care.

Please keep in your prayers this serious situation.

Prayer against the abortion bill.

Holy Mother, When you revealed yourself at Lourdes as The Immaculate Conception you made clear that you were favoured from that instant by God but you also confirmed that the instant of your conception was the beginning of your mission.

Now, as Queen of Heaven, we implore your intercession with the Son conceived as God within you, that He will protect the lives of the unborn and enlighten the politicians in this State.

Mary, Help of Christians, Patron of our country, watch over the lives of each of us from conception. St Joseph, bring support to the most reluctant or afraid of mothers to become the best. Make us instruments of your support. Amen

Father's Day can hold many emotions for both men and women - those who had a loving father that passed away, those who never knew their dad, those expectantly waiting to become a dad, and countless other situations surrounding the father-child relationship. God can use this special day to draw us closer to Himself - the one true Father who remains faithful and full of unconditional love.

"Dear God, Happy Fathers Day"

Abortion and the Catholic Church.

You shall not kill. (The 5th commandment given by God to Moses. Exodus 20:13).

This commandment was reinforced by Jesus himself.

You shall not kill: and whoever kills shall be liable to judgement. (Matthew 5: 21).

The unborn child in the womb is blessed by God with the gift of life.

Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you. (Jeremiah 1:5.)

While the Catholic Church has always been at the forefront in the defence human life and human dignity the Church is not unique. The short Parliamentary enquiry in respect of the NSW legislation heard evidence against abortion from large and small Christian denominations as well as Jewish authorities. The only significant Christian denomination not to oppose abortion was the Uniting Church. Indeed a minister claiming to represent the uniting Church addressed the pro-choice rally outside Parliament house endorsing the legislation. Also that Church did not make a submission to the Parliamentary enquiry against abortion. Anglicans, Orthodox and Presbyterians made strong pro-life submissions.

Abortion is regrettably widespread in Australia. While exact statistics about are hard to come by as many terminations are not direct abortions but miscarriages it is estimated from the Medicare benefit schedule that in 2016 there could have been as many as 72,000 abortions in Australia. These figures are tragic and many women suffer from post-traumatic stress as a result of abortion. However authorities believe that the rate in Australia is less than that in some other countries such as Canada and the United Kingdom. New Zealand and the United States are comparable to Australia.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states: since the 1st century the Church has affirmed the moral evil of every procured abortion. This teaching has not changed and remains unchangeable. Direct abortion that is to say abortion willed either as an end or a means is gravely contrary to the moral law. (Paragraph 2271).

This is not a matter of individual choice. It is a commandment of God. While the Church respects the right of individual conscience it also expects conscience to be informed by the commandments of God.

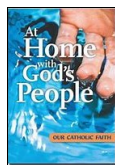

The Church's prohibition is related to direct abortion. The Church has always allowed individuals to act in their own self-defence. The catechism quotes St Thomas Aquinas: "one is bound to take care of one's own life." The prohibition is against direct and intentional killing. (Paragraph 2268.)

The unborn child is incapable of speaking for itself or defending itself. This helplessness places an importance on those of us who can speak out to do so in their defence.

If a civilisation is to be judged by how it treats its weakest members NSW failed spectacularly. (Archbishop Fisher).

Ever thought “ I may want to be a Catholic, or heard someone else say that ? Well this could be for you...Enquiry Night for new Catholics R.C.I.A(The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults)

There will be an enquiry night on Wednesday, the 4th of September at 7pm for those interested in knowing more about the Catholic Faith. A gentle and non-threatening series of talks will then be held using a program entitled “At Home with God’s People”. If you are seeking Baptism or, as a baptised person, you wish to know more about our faith family, then this may be for you. If you have a relative or friend, who may be interested, please bring them along to this evening and have a cup of tea, or coffee, with us. For further information please contact Betty 43843756 or Janette at the parish office 43674610.
