A message from Fr Jacek

Dear parishioners and visitors, welcome to our beautiful Terrigal Parish as we celebrate the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time.

This is a busy weekend with the Parish Fair by the Sea upon us. Thank you to all who have to date contributed to this day. Please visit the stalls, have some lunch and have fun.

Mass times for All Saints and All Souls day are listed in this weekend's bulletin.

Please also make note that during November—the month of the Holy Souls) there will be a service with prayers and blessing of the graves on the 11th November at 2pm at Wamberal Cemetery.

God Bless you on the week ahead.

Animator's Report Calling all Catholics. Your church wants to hear your voice.

Plenary council 2020. In 2015, in an address to mark the 50th anniversary of the close of the Second Vatican Council Pope Francis said: "A synodal church is the church which listens, which realises that listening is more than simply hearing. It is mutual listening in which everyone has something to learn. The faithful people, the college of bishops, the Bishop of Rome: all listening to each other, and all listening to the Holy Spirit, the spirit of truth, in order to know what He says to the churches." The Pope has made it clear that he wants a new church, one where the leadership listens to the faithful as much as the faithful listen to the leadership. He has reaffirmed the churches constitution, as set out by the Vatican Council in lumen gentium, that the laity as much as the clergy, through Baptism, have the gift of the Holy Spirit.

The Pope rejects any separation between clergy and laity as all share baptism and accordingly all share as baptised people in Christ's prophetic, priestly and kingly offices.

On 20 August 2018 Pope Francis issued:

"Letter to the people of God." In his letter he listed clericalism as one of the major factors that allowed priests to abuse young people and permitted bishops to keep such crimes secret for so long.. He stated: "everyone of the Baptised should feel involved in the ecclesial and social change that we so greatly need."

Clericalism is an attitude which puts the clergy above their status as baptised disciples of Jesus Christ and in so doing encourages a sense of privilege and entitlement; this permits the development of an idea that the clergy are above the rest of the faithful. This attitude was condemned by the royal commission into sexual abuse as one of the causes of abuse and the Pope, long before the royal commission, made it clear that he is committed to its eradication.

This is why the participation of the laity in the plenary council 2020 is so important.

The Pope alone cannot hope to reform the church. He needs the assistance and active encouragement of its members. He needs all members to listen to what the spirit is saying to the churches and accordingly make their views known. We are all called to answer the question:

What is God asking the Church in Australia at this time?

The church, on earth, has always faced challenges and difficulties. It faced them 2000 years ago just as it faces them now. That is the reason why the apostle John wrote to the church at Ephesus and warned them that they had fallen away from that first love – the love and service of God.

He warned them to repent and return to their original mission or suffer the withdrawal of Gods light.

The church in modern Australia faces the same challenge.

The answer now is the same as what the apostle John advised the Ephesians ...listen to what the spirit is saying.

The Pope is saying that the spirit speaks through all baptised Christians. He does not just speak to Bishops.

It is up to all of us to listen and after listening to speak.

On Saturday 17 November our parish will be gathering to listen to the spirit and after listening to speak.
