A message from Fr Jacek

Dear parishioners and visitors, welcome to our beautiful Parish on this the second Sunday of Easter—Divine Mercy Sunday.

Thank you again to all who made the Easter ceremonies so meaningful. Our music ministry was amazing.

From Monday I will be with the Michaelite Fathers for our spiritual exercises until Friday.

I am trying to have some of the morning Masses covered otherwise it will be a Holy Communion Service.

The Divine Mercy Celebration (Holy Hour) will be this afternoon at 2.30pm.

Blessings on the week ahead. Fr Jacek

Welcome to the Parish Family

To anyone who is joining us for the first time today, or has only begun to come to Mass here recently, welcome. It's great to have you with us. In 2000, Pope John Paul II canonized St. Faustina and, during the ceremony, he declared: It is important then that we accept the whole message that comes to us from the word of God on this Second Sunday of Easter, which from now on throughout the Church will be called "Divine Mercy Sunday".

Jesus told St. Faustina to "Do whatever is within your power to spread devotion to My mercy. I will make up for what you lack. Tell aching mankind to snuggle close to My merciful Heart, and I will fill it with peace." Diary 1074)
