St Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil.

Amen

Bookclub

The book for July's reading group will be one of the classics of catholic fiction- The Power and the Glory by Graham Greene. While a work of fiction it is set in Mexico during one of the most repressive anti-catholic regimes in their history. It covers a period known as the Cristeros Wars. The main character referred to as the "whiskey priest" finds himself as the sole survivor of the priesthood in a province where celebrating the Eucharist is forbidden. It is a cat and mouse story that ends up being a story of redemption and self discovery.

Join us if you can.

In August we will be reading another work of fiction about a priest but set in France- Diary of a Country Priest by George Bernanos. It will be interesting to compare and contrast the two characters.

In September we will be launching into Theology of the Body for Beginners by Christopher West.

What is spiritual direction?

In spiritual direction you reflect deeply on the experiences of your daily life, your loves, hurts, dreams, joys and fears.

Gradually, as you contemplate, you may begin to discover how God's spirit is moving in your life and that God has been waiting for you to see this closer relationship.

Spiritual direction is really not about being directed, nor is it therapy, or counselling. Rather, it is very much about being encouraged to draw closer to God whether that be in your prayer life, relationships, in nature, or in the events of your life. The privilege and responsibility of a spiritual director is to journey with you, in one-on-one conversations, as you deepen your relationship with God. What is shared is held in confidence.

A meeting time is agreed upon, usually once a month, for an hour.

If you are interested in participating in spiritual direction please call Robyn Wild on 0410 454 650

Saints of the Week

On 29 June we celebrate the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. Together, the two saints are considered the founders of the See of Rome through their preaching, ministry and martyrdom there.

St Peter was one of Jesus' original twelve Apostles, and the first Pope. A Jewish fisherman before Jesus called him to be an Apostle, Jesus changed his name from Simon to Peter, meaning "rock", and gave him the keys to the kingdom of Heaven "And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it." (Mtt 16:18). Peter became one of the first leaders of the early Christian Church and features in all four Gospels as well as the Acts of the Apostles.

St Peter was crucified upside down in Nero's circus on Vatican Hill, around A.D. 67, because he felt unworthy to die the same way as his Lord. He was buried in a nearby cemetery.

The cemetery can be seen today under St Peter's Basilica, and the remains of a 2nd century shrine built over the burial spot. In order to preserve the historical and archaeological site there are limited visits to the necropolis underneath the Basilica, where the Tomb of St Peter is located.

St Paul was the Apostle of the Gentiles. Not one of the 12 Apostles, Paul was called personally by Jesus Christ. A Jewish pharisee and anti-Christian, he was converted when the Resurrected Lord appeared to him on the road to Damascus. He went on to evangelise throughout the Mediterranean from the Holy Land to Rome and Spain. He is recognised for his many conversions and establishing churches through his travels and preaching.

St Paul was imprisoned in Rome before his beheading was ordered by Nero near the time of St Peter's martyrdom. While Peter is the "rock" on which the Church was built as well as leader of the people of God, Paul was the most fervent preacher of the Word and the first missionary.

"Christian tradition has always considered Saint Peter and Saint Paul to be inseparable: indeed, together, they represent the whole Gospel of Christ." (Pope Benedict XVI).

We can learn how to love and serve God from these leaders of the Church.

Next Wednesday, 3 July, the Church celebrates the feast day of St Thomas the Apostle. Best known for his unwillingness to believe other Apostles in their claim Jesus had risen from the dead, St Thomas teaches us about believing without seeing. After Pentecost, St Thomas went on to preach the Good News, eventually reaching India, where he died in 72 A.D. St Thomas shows us that Jesus meets us where we are, even if that is within our struggle, have doubts or fears. Jesus is ready to guide us like He did Thomas.

Best Prayer For Anxiety

Almighty God, when anxiety overwhelms me, I seek Your guidance and assurance. Let Your love cast out fear and fill my spirit with unwavering faith.

Lord Jesus, in the midst of my anxious thoughts, I surrender my burdens to Your comforting embrace. May Your presence bring tranquility to my troubled soul.

Almighty God, as anxiety tightens its grip, I turn to You for release. Grant me the strength to overcome fear and the serenity to rest in Your peace.
