A message from Fr Jacek

Dear parishioners and visitors, welcome to our beautiful Parish on the 14th Sunday in ordinary time.

This weekend is Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Sunday. We pray for all peoples of the Great South Land of the Holy Spirit.

Thank you to all who are preparing for the Italian evening, we have had a wonderful response. I am aware of the hard work being done behind the scenes. So if you have a ticket we will see you there next Saturday evening after 5pm Mass.

Blessings on the week ahead.

Jesus in today's Gospel is sending out the seventy - two, the labourers. Jesus tells us "The harvest is rich but the labourers are few." In light of today's Gospel please see the attached invitation to be a Catechist or Catechist helper.
It is a beautiful ministry, teaching the love of Jesus, and bringing that love to the world one child at a time.

Peter's Pence Collection:
This weekend.

We are joining with others across the world by taking up a third collection for the charitable works and structures of mercy identified by Pope Francis.

The funds, which are sent to the Vatican, are then distributed across the world to support victims of war, oppression and disasters. Over the past year, donations have been made in response to natural disasters including Mozambique, Zimbabwe & Malawi affected by cyclone Idai.

Position Vacant – Plenary Council Discernment & Writing Group Chairs and Members

As we move into the Listening and Discernment stage of our preparation for the Plenary Council 2020, the Bishops Commission for the Plenary Council is seeking people who are willing to be leaders and partners in the process of discernment. Opportunities are available to apply to be the Chair, or to be a member, of one of six Discernment & Writing Groups. For more information, visit the Office for Employment Relations website www.employmentrelations.catholic.org.au or contact Ms Olivia Lee on 9919 7822 or olivia.lee@catholic.org.au. Applications close on 22 July 2019.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday

Today is Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday, a day to celebrate and give thanks for the gifts that our First Peoples bring to the Church, and who have an irreplaceable role in shaping the story and identity of the Australian Church.

A quote from the late Boniface Perdjert, our first Aboriginal Deacon: "My people existed here in Australia thousands of years before Abraham. In all that time God was with my people. He worked through their culture. He was saving us despite human weakness. He was preparing us for the day when he would see the features of Aboriginals in the image of his Son."
This year's theme is "Peace to this house and all who dwell within". The Australian Bishops have prepared a short video for this Sunday in support of our First Peoples, highlighting the needs of young people and the need to safeguard self-determination, to "walk alongside in loving support, but avoid any temptation to come in with quick solutions imposed from outside." To view the video, please visit www.natsicc.org.au

May every Australian respect each other. We can't change the past with our Indigenous brothers and sisters, but we can change the future and go forward together in the love of God. The loving God who loves His creation made in His image.

Theme 2019: "Reflections on my Spiritual Journey".

TWO SPEAKERS:

Amy Friedman: A Baha'i trained in counselling and healing and author of a new novel. She has had multiple near-death and paranormal/ psychic experiences.

Carol Bailey: Following an orthodox 1940s/1950s Catholic upbringing, Carol rejoices in the current rapprochement between contemporary science and religion in the face of mystery.

PLENARY COUNCIL 2020: National Theme for Discernment #4 – How is God calling us to be a Christ-centred Church that is Humble, Healing and Merciful? This National Theme for Discernment is inspired by the voices of the People of God who expressed a deep and faith-filled trust in God and a need for lament and healing within the Church, acknowledging the sexual abuse crisis as a turning point for the Church in Australia. The Catenians have been asked to consider coming to the Central Coast. Jesus often invited his followers to share a meal with him. He was sociable. We want to share a meal with you. We invite parishioners to come to an introductory dinner to hear the Catenian story. The dinner is no charge to you. Pulpit invitations have begun. The dinner will be held at the Davistown RSL Club on Thursday 18th July. The dinner is by invitation only. To receive an invitation please contact Chris Vale via sms 0410434840 or email cvale@bigpond.net.au. I look forward to meeting you.

Next weekend we will have St Michael Relic Stones from the St Michael Shrine in Gargano, Italy. They are $16 each
