WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

What are the "fruits" of holy Communion?

Answer:

The Eucharist, like all sacraments, offers its own unique grace. We receive a special share in God's life that helps us in our faith journey. We are given all we need to sustain and nurture our relationship with God. The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life. Everything we are and everything we hope to become is found in this sacrament. It is essential to the life of the church, to each member of the church. Without it, there is no church. The Eucharist is the centre of our spiritual life and has enormous effects on our growth, our holiness, and our way of life.

The fruits of holy Communion are the benefits one receives from the sacrament. These fruits of holy Communion are discussed in the catechism in the article on the Eucharist. The primary benefit is union with Christ. We become one with him sacramentally, just as we hope to become one with him for eternity. The Eucharist also separates us from sin, both past and future. It forgives the venial sins of the past and, by the love we receive, protects us from mortal sin in the future. The church community is also unified and strengthened by the Eucharist. It unites us to the poor and offers the pledge of eternal life.

BRINGING HOME THE GOSPEL

I have a great love for symmetry, and so I enjoy looking at trees and knowing that the branches that stretch to the sky have roots digging deep into the earth. In most healthy trees, the roots mirror the branches digging down, as far out and wide as the branches above them. People are very similar. If we hope to be healthy and whole, we need to be equally balanced, firmly rooted in the concrete reality of our lives while reaching out in the uncertainty of faith for all that is and can be.

We reach out, stretching for God, offering praise and seeking answers, but if we aren't firmly rooted in the ordinary things of our life, we're going to fall over. At the same time, we will be pretty shallow people if we live out our days stuck in the earth without constantly stretching toward our life source.

That's why the sacraments are such a perfect gift. The church celebrates seven different ways we can reach out for God's grace and receive God's life through ordinary physical things. Each sacrament has its own concrete sign, something that we can see, hear and feel that not only reminds us of the grace we receive in the sacrament, but also provides it.

The Blessed Sacrament is God's supreme gift. I become one with the Body of Christ in the very concrete signs of the faithful assembled, the Word broken open, the priest and, most especially, the blessed bread and wine; I share in Jesus' divinity just as he shared in my humanity. Jesus, you see, was the first and greatest sacrament—a concrete sign that God's life was with us and in us.

In a sense, everything visible is a kind of sacrament. Even the trees I so love are signs of God's love inviting us to love God in return.

FAMILY RESPONSE:

Ask each person to look around the room and find something that reminds them of themselves. Share your responses.

PERSONAL RESPONSE:

How do you best relate to Jesus? What is your relationship to Jesus in the Eucharist?

WEEKLY SOCIAL JUSTICE CHALLENGES

The Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ is a powerful reminder of Jesus' life, death and resurrection. We celebrate the gift of the Eucharist, the sacrament in which each of us is nourished and sent forth. This day reminds us that we don't do things on our own power – but from strength gained from the Eucharist. Before Jesus died, he asked his disciples if they could drink from the cup. He was asking if they were willing to endure what might come if they chose to feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, heal the sick and blind and set captives free. They said YES. The Body and Blood of Jesus is a gift to us, yet it is a challenge too. Ask yourself this week, "How does the Eucharist nourish and strengthen me? How am I being sent like the disciples? To whom am I being sent?" Reflect on how you have responded to these questions in the past. What will your response be from now on?

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to parishioners who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office.

CARE FOR CREATION TIPS

"While they were eating, he took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to them, and said, 'Take; this is my body.'" –Mark 14:22.

So many of us take bread for granted, forgetting about the miracle of leavening and making bread from scratch. In honour of today's feast, bake some homemade bread this week. As you roll up your sleeves and go to work, reflect on the source of the ingredients and the value of making things for yourself rather than buying them in plastic from a big box store.

ENROLLING NOW FOR 2025

BE YOUR BEST SELF

Priority feeder school for St Paul's Catholic College, Manly Secondary co-educational opportunities from 2025!

Family Mass

Thank you to Father Jojo for presiding at our Family Mass on Sunday as well as the music provided by Victoria and the Childrens choir. The Mass was hosted by Stage 3, and we welcomed children in attendance receiving their prayer cards in preparation for their First Holy communion. The Pizza dinner afterwards was a great way to end the weekend.

Pentecost Sunday

Sunday May 19, was Pentecost. Students learnt about Pentecost from Father Jojo when he visited all classes last Thursday and with their teachers through their RE lessons. We celebrated Pentecost—the "birthday of the Christian church" with a touch of red on Friday and a special Family Mass and Fun Fair hosted by the parish on Sunday.

Cross Country

On Tuesday May 21, 6 St Kieran's students made their way to Gosford to compete in the Broken Bay Championships. They did a wonderful job representing the Northern beaches team and St Kieran's - well done!

Sharing the Gospel

Jesus broke the bread and said, "This is my body." Then he held up the cup of wine and said, "This is my blood." During Mass the priest says the same words: "This is my body. This is my blood." Through the prayer, the bread and wine are changed into the body and blood of Christ. When you eat the body and blood of Christ, it gives you the power to say "No," to evil.

Prayer

Jesus, please bless everything I eat and drink.

Mission

I will share a can of my favourite soup with the hungry.
