WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Why do Catholics pray to Mary and the saints?

Answer:

One of the statements of faith we make when we pray the Nicene Creed and the Apostles Creed is that we believe in “the communion of saints.” The Catechism of the Catholic Church reminds us that this communion (another word for community) includes all the faithful on earth, the souls in Purgatory, and the blessed women, men, and children who are in heaven. This teaching is grounded in our belief that, through Baptism, we are united with Christ and to one another with bonds that are stronger even than death. And so from the time of the early Church, Christians have turned to other believers for prayers and assistance, including those who have gone before us, confident that God hears the prayers of all of His children. While we ask the saints (and one another) for prayers and support, we remember that the saints join us in prayer. But it is God who blesses and sanctifies us. When we think of Mary and the saints in heaven, we have to remember that we can turn to them for intercession and assistance because they were faulted, limited human beings, just like us. This means that they are able to understand our struggles, doubts, fears, joys, and hopes. But as we learn their stories, we can also begin to recognize that they stand out in the history of the Church because they persevered in their commitment to follow Christ. Whether they were ordained, vowed religious, martyrs, husbands, wives, or even children, they show us that holiness is possible. We can not only follow their example but also benefit from their prayerful support. Our devotion to the saints and gratitude for their witness, prayers, and protection should also be an inspiration for us, especially when we become aware of the needs of others or when others ask us to pray for them. We are called to share the blessings we receive. This is also part of our own journey of growing in holiness. ©LPI

BRINGING HOME THE GOSPEL

We don't have to focus on the end times to experience the feeling of fear and anxiety today. Just living in the everyday of this uncertain world can cause the same concern. So how do we learn to live with this uncertainty? Consider what it is like when a woman is preparing to give birth to a child.

I remember my ninth month of pregnancy, the Christmas before Phillip was born. He was due at the beginning of January. He was our fourth child. Roger Andy was six, Kristin was two, and James was a year. Strangely enough, getting ready for both Christmas and a new baby seemed to help me focus on getting things done.

It was probably the only year I was really ready for Christmas. I was so afraid I would go into labour early that my presents were bought and wrapped, cards were signed and addressed and cookies were baked by mid-December. My house was in order every day because I knew that as soon as I went into the hospital my mom would be coming down from Chicago to help with the kids.

That year I really enjoyed the Christmas season because everything was done and I was ready. I remember sitting with my feet up sipping hot cocoa listening to carols and watching the children play. That was the one and only year I kept a daily journal for a few months. It was such a good feeling being ready—a feeling I had rarely experienced before and hardly ever experienced afterward.

I think that is the peace and joy Jesus wants us to experience as we live every day in these scary, uncertain times. We focus on what needs to be done and get it done. We get ourselves and our lives ready for whatever, whenever, and enjoy the present moment knowing that uncertainty is part of life.

FAMILY RESPONSE:

Have everyone answer the following question: If you had only ten minutes to grab the things you wanted to take on a very long trip, what would you make sure to take?

PERSONAL RESPONSE:

Other than your family members, what things are most valuable to you in your home?

WEEKLY SOCIAL JUSTICE CHALLENGES

On November 17th we celebrate the feast day of St. Elizabeth of Hungary. She was canonized a saint for her devotion to the poor and her choice to give up a life of luxury to work with the sick and those most in need. Your challenge this week is to examine your own lifestyle. What is one thing you could do to live a more simple life? What could you give up in order to help someone who has so much less than you? Choose just one item in your closet or home to donate to St. Vincent de Paul. Or give up one movie you were going to see, or another activity you were going to do, and give the money that would have cost to Catholic Relief Services, Catholic Charities, or another worthy helping agency.

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to parishioners who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office.

CARE FOR CREATION TIPS

November 19 is National Recycling Day. Although it's still a challenge in some parts of the country to recycle paper, glass, aluminum, tin, and plastic items where there isn't curbside recycling, it takes even more effort to find places to recycle cloth, worn-out tennis shoes or blue jeans. Luckily, by searching online, you can often find locations where you can take or ship such things. This week, pick one such item, research how and where to recycle it, and offer to do it for your friends, neighbors, and co-workers too.

ST CECILIA'S SCHOOL NEWS

It is Week 5 at St Cecilia's and on the 11th day of the 11th month we commemorated Remembrance Day with a moving liturgy and 2 minutes' silence. As we fast approach our End of Year Celebrations, our Year 6 students are engaging in their High School Preparation program and Year 5 students continue to work on Leadership skills, preparing their speeches for the numerous Leadership roles next year. We completed our final Step into School session for our new Kindy 2025 students and parents this week.

They have plenty of resources to read through as the new school year approaches. Teachers are finalising all student reports, and the sound of Christmas carol rehearsals can be heard in music lessons across the school.

We are very excited to announce the appointment of our new Assistant Principal, Mr Thomas Walters, who will be joining us in 2025. Thomas currently holds the position of Instructional Specialist and Acting Assistant Principal at St Fiacre's Catholic Primary School, Leichhardt. Thomas has great understanding, passion and dedication to building a culture of faith and learning that is Christ-centred.

Sharing the Gospel

You have fifty dollars and spend all of it on a birthday present for your mother. Your mother is happy. But you are sad because you have no money at all. God will give you back more than you give away. It might be money, clothing, food, or shelter. He will always provide what you need. Believe in the power of God's love for you. Share with a smile.

Prayer

Lord, give me a heart that is willing to share money, food, clothing, and toys.

Mission

I will share my time with God by reading the Bible.
