WHY DO WE DO THAT? Catholic Life Explained

Question:

Why don't Catholics add the "For yours is the Kingdom ..." prayer at the end of the Our Father like Protestants do? Where did it come from?

Answer:

The conclusion of the Lord's Prayer that you refer to is called a doxology, which is a prayer of glory and praise. This particular doxology we do use in the Mass. After the Our Father, the priest prays the prayer that begins, "Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil..." and the people respond with the doxology. The doxology is not found in the Bible, but it is very ancient. It was first found in The Didache, also called "The Teaching of the Twelve Apostles," which dates probably from about the year AD 90. It was a letter of instruction to early converts to Christianity. Protestantism dates only to the sixteenth century, so the doxology is actually a Catholic prayer. Some scholars and the catechism (#2760) indicate that the doxology was connected to the celebration of the Eucharist and was not used apart from it. Remember, both the Lord's Prayer and the Eucharist were part of the "mysteries of faith," things taught only to believers. Ironically, a remnant of a prayer used during the celebration of the Eucharist has come to be used widely by many Christian churches that do not celebrate the Eucharist! Truth is indeed stranger than fiction!

BRINGING HOME THE GOSPEL

Once again, we see Jesus' concern for the poor. Go, sell what you have, and give to the poor... then come follow me. Jesus asks us not just to give from our own pockets, but also to truly identify with the poor. Christian love requires more than charity. It demands empathy and a willingness to fight for justice.

When Jesus spoke of justice he was talking about treating people fairly, honouring commitments, setting things right and definitely justice for all. His sense of righteousness went beyond a legalistic understanding of reward and punishment. It involved relieving suffering, healing relationships and making sure everyone was fed. It is this broader understanding of justice that we are asked to mirror in our own lives and help our children hunger and thirst for in theirs.

Children seem to develop a sense of righteousness at an early age, but it is usually centered on themselves. As they grow, they become concerned about fair treatment for friends and loved ones. It is our job to help them to eventually develop empathy for people they don't know.

We can help youngsters appreciate basic justice by rewarding and disciplining them fairly, but we must also foster a broader understanding and a more active approach. Listen intently as they talk about their own experiences of injustice and those of their friends, pray about the situation and work out possible solutions. Later, call attention to injustices in the larger community and follow the same steps. Coming to appreciate "justice for all" is a gradual process that begins at home and leads to every corner of the world.

FAMILY RESPONSE:

Go through the newspaper, a news magazine or watch the evening news together. Find one news story from your community or the larger world, talk about and decide if there is anything you can do to help. Say a prayer asking for God's help.

PERSONAL RESPONSE:

If you could choose one particular area of need to volunteer in, what would it be? What is keeping you from giving your time now?

WEEKLY SOCIAL JUSTICE CHALLENGES

World Food Day is celebrated on October 16. It was created to raise awareness of problems in food supply and distribution and to raise money to support projects to aid in the cultivation of food plants and the distribution of food. Your challenge this week is to support the purpose of World Food Day in one of two ways. You might choose to advocate with your national legislators for just food distribution for those in need around the world. Or you might want to make a donation to Catholic Relief Services, Catholic Charities, or the Catholic Worker movement to support an organization which works to provide food to those who go to bed hungry every night.

PASTORAL CARE FOR THE HOMEBOUND

Our clergy and pastoral care ministers bring the sacraments of Eucharist, reconciliation, and anointing of the sick to parishioners who are unable to participate because of illness or aging. For more information and to arrange receiving the sacraments, contact Parish Office.

CARE FOR CREATION TIPS

"Then Jesus looked around and said to his disciples, 'How hard it will be for those who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God!'"
 –Mark 10:23.

Jesus knew that wealth and possessions can keep people from enjoying the simple pleasures in life and confuse priorities. This week, what manufactured resources can you turn away from so that you can enjoy the natural beauty of creation? As you turn away from some technology or gadgets this week, consider when you may have fallen into the trap of putting technology and possessions above people and relationships.

Sharing the Gospel

With God's help, you can do anything. You can play computer games. You can climb across the monkey bars. You can build a birdhouse or clean a birdcage. You can draw a person or a beautiful flower. You can ride a bike without training wheels. You can play soccer or hit baseballs. You can train a dog. You can plant a garden. Ask God to help. He will give you the strength to solve your problems.

Prayer

Lord, make me strong in mind and body.

Mission

With difficult jobs, I will say, "I can do this with God's help."
