A Mustard Seed

It's impossible your head tells you.
There's just too much to do.
Everything's a mess.
Hope is lost.

But still...
Don't you have at least a little bit of faith?
A tiny seed.

Inside there's a plan, a hope, a dream of great possibilities.

Within a small seed of faith, resides all the power of God.

Plant the seed.
Water it carefully, lovingly, then let the Lord take control.

In even just a shred of faith in God
You'll find promises - of Christ's victory in your life, of faith moving mountains, of the resurrections, and a heavenly destination.

Life eternal begins today.
Start living it now.

Then join with others living in the Spirit, each one giving all through a grain of faith. Countless mountains, moving across nations building up the glorious Kingdom of God.

*Faith
as small as a mustard seed,
can move mountains.*

Matt 7:20

Thoughts of Fr Francis Jordan

Hope comes from faith! We must have great faith, and without great faith we cannot have hope or confidence in God, or hope in the Lord!

Pope Francis invites the faithful to pray the Rosary in October

Pope Francis' invitation

The Holy Father has decided to invite all the faithful, of all the world, to pray the Holy Rosary every day, during the entire Marian month of October, and thus to join in communion and in penitence, as the people of God, in asking the Holy Mother of God and Saint Michael Archangel to protect the Church from the devil, who always seeks to separate us from God and from each other.

The Holy Father met with Fr. Frédéric Fornos, S.J., international director of the World Network of Prayer for the Pope, and asked him to spread this appeal to all the faithful throughout the world, inviting them to conclude the recitation of the Rosary with the ancient invocation "Sub Tuum Praesidium", and with the prayer to Saint Michael Archangel that he protect us and help us in the struggle against evil (cf. Revelation 12, 7-12).

The prayer – the Pontiff affirmed a few days ago, on 11 September, in a homily at Santa Marta, citing the first book of Job – is the weapon against the Great Accuser who "goes around the world seeking to accuse". Only prayer can defeat him. The Russian mystics and the great saints of all the traditions advised, in moments of spiritual turbulence, to shelter beneath the mantle of the Holy Mother of God pronouncing the invocation "Sub Tuum Praesidium".

Sub Tuum Praesidium

The invocation "Sub Tuum Praesidium" is recited as follows:

"Sub tuum praesidium confugimus Sancta Dei Genitrix. Nostras deprecationes ne despicias in necessitatibus, sed a periculis cunctis libera nos semper, Virgo Gloriosa et Benedicta".

[We fly to thy protection, O Holy Mother of God. Do not despise our petitions in our necessities, but deliver us always from all dangers, O Glorious and Blessed Virgin].

With this request for intercession the Holy Father asks the faithful of all the world to pray that the Holy Mother of God place the Church beneath her protective mantle: to preserve her from the attacks by the devil, the great accuser, and at the same time to make her more aware of the faults, the errors and the abuses committed in the present and in the past, and committed to combating without any hesitation, so that evil may not prevail.

Prayer to Saint Michael

The Holy Father has also asked that the recitation of the Holy Rosary during the month of October conclude with the prayer written by Leo XIII:

"Sancte Michael Archangele, defende nos in proelio; contra nequitiam et insidias diaboli esto praesidium. Imperet illi Deus, supplices deprecamur: tuque, Princeps militiae caelestis, Satanam aliosque spiritus malignos, qui ad perditionem animarum pervagantur in mundo, divina virtute, in infernum detrude. Amen".

[Saint Michael Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; may God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen].

The Rosary is a synthesis of the mysteries of Christ: we contemplate them with Mary, who allows us to see with her eyes of faith and love.

Pope Francis Reflects on the Rosary.

Here I would like to emphasise the beauty of a simple contemplative prayer, accessible to all, great and small, the educated and those with little education. It is the prayer of the Holy Rosary. In the Rosary we turn to the Virgin Mary so that she may guide us to an ever closer union with her Son Jesus to bring us into conformity with him, to have his sentiments and to behave like him. Indeed, in the Rosary while we repeat the Hail Mary we meditate on the Mysteries, on the events of Christ's life, so as to know and love him ever better. The Rosary is an effective means for opening ourselves to God, for it helps us to overcome egotism and to bring peace to hearts, in the family, in society and in the world.

-from the book Mother Mary: Inspiring Words from Pope Francis

Do not be ashamed to recite the Rosary alone, while you walk along the streets

to school,

to the university,

to work,

or as you commute by public transport.

- 9 When the fifth mystery is completed, the Rosary is Customarily concluded with the Hail Holy Queen, and the Sign of the Cross.

Sign Of The Cross

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The Apostles Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, Creator of Heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Spirit. born of the Virgin Mary, He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; he ascended into Heaven sits at the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Holy Catholic Church, the Communion of Saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting, Amen.

Our Father

Our Father, who art in Heaven; hallowed by Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. Amen

Hail Mary

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of death. Amen

Glory Be

Glory be to the Father, to the Son and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning is now and ever shall be, world without end, Amen.

O My Jesus

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins, save us from the fires of hell, and lead all souls to Heaven, especially those in most need of your Mercy. Amen.

Hail, Holy Queen

Hail, Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy towards us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed Fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement. O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

The Living Word

First Reading Hab 1:2-3; 2:2-4
A reading from the prophet Habakkuk
The just will live by faithfulness.

How long, Lord, am I to cry for help
 while you will not listen;
 to cry 'Oppression!' in your ear
 and you will not save?
 Why do you set injustice before me,
 why do you look on where there is tyranny?
 Outrage and violence, this is all I see,
 all is contention, and discord flourishes.
 Then the Lord answered and said,
 'Write the vision down,
 inscribe it on tablets
 to be easily read,
 since this vision is for its own time
 only:
 eager for its own fulfilment, it does not deceive;
 if it comes slowly, wait,
 for come it will, without fail.
 See how he flags, he whose soul is not
 at rights,
 but the upright man will live by his faithfulness.'

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm Ps 94:1-2, 6-9. R. v. 8

(R.) If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Come, ring out our joy to the Lord;
 hail the rock who saves us.
 Let us come before him, giving thanks,
 with songs let us hail the Lord. (R)

Come in; let us bow and bend low;
 let us kneel before the God who made us for he is our God and we
 the people who belong to his pasture,
 the flock that is led by his hand. (R)

O that today you would listen to his voice!
 'Harden not your hearts as at Meribah,
 as on that day at Massah in the desert
 when your fathers put me to the test;
 when they tried me, though they saw my work.' (R)

Second Reading 2 Tm 1:6-8, 13-14
A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy
Never be ashamed of witnessing the Lord.

I am reminding you to fan into a flame
 the gift that God gave you when I laid my hands on you. God's gift was not a spirit of timidity, but the Spirit of power, and love, and self-control. So you are never to be ashamed of witnessing to the Lord,
 or ashamed of me for being his prisoner;
 but with me, bear the hardships for the sake of the Good News, relying on the power of God.
 Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. You have been trusted to look after something precious; guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation 1 Pt 1:25

Alleluia, alleluia!
 The word of the Lord stands for ever;
 it is the word given to you, the Good News.
 Alleluia!
 Alleluia!

Gospel Lk 17:5-10
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke
If you had faith!

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' The Lord replied, 'Were your faith the size of a mustard seed you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea", and it would obey you.
 "Which of you, with a servant ploughing
 or minding sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, "Come and have your meal immediately"?
 Would he not be more likely to say, "Get my supper laid; make yourself tidy and wait on me while I eat and drink. You can eat and drink yourself afterwards"? Must he be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told? So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, "We are merely servants: we have done no more than our duty."'

The Gospel of the Lord

Reflection

by Diane Bergant CSA

*In our struggles to be faithful disciples, we frequently must endure periods when we feel abandoned by God. When we have been intent on serving God with genuine devotion, such times are particularly trying, for one would expect that God would not withdraw consolations. When this happens, the broken heart and the strained spirit cry
 out to God in complaint: How long?
 Why? We have all been worn down by life, tempted to give up, too weary to go on.
 Faith in God is a gift for which we pray.
 It enables us to accomplish marvellous feats; with it we can move mountains. As unprofitable servants, we do not earn it;
 we have no right to claim it as our own.
 We are the ones from whom faithful service will be expected. We will be sent to plough the fields and tend the sheep.
 We will be called to serve at table.
 The faith that is ours has been mediated to us through the community. We have heard about God and about Jesus from others, from our parents and families,
 from our teachers and those who preach,
 from those with whom we work and play.
 Faith comes from God, but through the mediation of the community. Timothy received faith from his mother and grandmother. It was strengthened in him through the imposition of Paul's hands and through his preaching of the word of God. Furthermore, what Paul taught had first been handed down to him from those who preceded him.*

The Catholic Parish of Pittwater

Fifty years of caring and support.

There's no substitute for that kind of experience.

Ann Wilson and her brother John Garling have more than 50 years' experience in supporting Northern Beaches families through arranging a funeral.

Their family-operated funeral homes are renowned for their professionalism, compassion and understanding.

Staff pride themselves on easing the burden of worry with attention to detail and impeccable service.

For peace of mind, enquire about the Ann Wilson Pre Arranged Funeral Plan.
