Second Sunday of Easter

Year B
8 April 2018

Last Sunday we cried out with joy that 'Today Christ is risen! Christ has conquered evil and death.' This theme is so central for us that we need an extended time to ponder the day of resurrection: so here we are again today thinking about the day he rose. Easter day is the day he told us that our sins were forgiven, it is the day he charged us to be forgiving. On Easter day he gave us new life, and charged us to be life-giving. So as we stand here celebrating resurrection, how do we stand in our lives as people claiming this belief?

*On one occasion, I heard these words: My daughter, tell the whole world about My Inconceivable mercy. I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls, and especially for poor sinners. On that day the very depths of My tender mercy are open. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon those souls who approach the fount of My mercy. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment. * [our emphasis]. On that day all the divine floodgates through which grace flow are opened. Let no soul fear to draw near to Me, even though its sins be as scarlet. My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity. Everything that exists has come forth from the very depths of My most tender mercy. Every soul in its relation to Me will contemplate My love and mercy throughout eternity. The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy. [St Faustina. Diary 699]

CONGRATULATIONS JUDITH PRINSEN!
We offer our belated congratulations to Judith Prinsen who after receiving instruction on the sacrament of Confirmation received it at the Easter Vigil Mass last Saturday evening. We thank Cecilia Coughlin for instruction of both Judith and Fay who was Received into the Church at the Vigil.

VOLUNTEER BOOKKEEPER POSITION
We advise with regret of the stepping back of volunteer bursar Gary Smith from the bookkeeper's role.
Gary has been with us since mid August last year and has gone over and above in meeting the needs of the role and brought to it a wealth of expertise which we value highly. However his circumstances have changed, and we must now open the position up to one, or even two persons to share the load, volunteer replacements who have bookkeeping experience and who would like to donate their time to the parish in this way.
If you are interested please chat with Father or you may call Gary on 0466 016 036 for further information.

MOVIES WITH MEANING Saturday April 28 @ the Jordan Room following the 6pm Mass
"Risen" is a movie in which we witness the manhunt that changed the course of human history! Risen is the epic Biblical story of the Resurrection, as told through the eyes of a non-believer. Clavius, a powerful Roman military tribune, and his aide, Lucius, are tasked with solving the mystery of what happened to Jesus in the weeks following the crucifixion, in order to disprove the rumours of a risen Messiah and prevent an uprising in Jerusalem. PS: Don't forget to bring a plate to share for dinner.

PARISH GOLF DAY
Fri May 11, 12 for 12.30pm

ALTAR SOCIETY MEMBERS NEEDED
Do we have any one, or two, or more for that matter, who may be interested in the ministry of the sanctuary, the most precious place in the church building? No great skills are needed and training in popping the flowers into the vase to best affect would be given. We don't discriminate—men or women welcome - and it's only once a month! Hopefully some will take up the challenge and give the office a call for more information.

CANCER PRAYERS MASS

@ OUR LADY'S NURSES OF THE POOR CHAPEL, COOGEE

The bus will depart at 8.30am sharp from Victoria Street. A booking sheet will be available next Sunday at the foyer. In consideration of others, please only place your name on the list if you know you will be able to go. Thank you.

Eileen O'Connor's Story

The tomb of Eileen O'Connor lies inside the convent's chapel at Coogee, where each year on January 10, the anniversary of her death, the congregation she founded, remove the top of the vault to reveal her coffin. The rim of the vault is then surrounded by flowers and it has become a tradition for pilgrims who come to pray beside the tomb to commemorate the anniversary of her death by laying rosary beads on her coffin. Christened Eily Rosaline O'Connor, Eileen as she was known, was born on 19 February 1892 in Melbourne. The eldest of four to Irish parents, she was three years old when she fell from her pram and severely damaged her spine. Despite many operations, nothing could be done to alleviate the terrible pain, and later when X-rays could be taken, it was discovered her spine had been pushed out of alignment to an angle of 80 degrees.

The deformity should have prevented Eileen from walking, but with typical perseverance and courage, and despite intense and continuous pain, she managed to stand and at times even walk. But for the most part during her childhood, she was bedridden or needed help to move.

Although she was enrolled at Richmond parish school, her disability and the intense pain meant she was often too ill, and with few friends of her own age and little opportunity for the normal preoccupations of childhood, she turned to her family and her religion for comfort.

At age 10, she moved with her family to Sydney where her father had been offered a job as a senior clerk. Surgical and medical treatment for Eileen continued. But these were a drain on family resources and when her father died suddenly in 1911, the family faced financial hardship. Coogee parish priest, Fr Edward McGrath found accommodation for the family and witnessed the courage of the then 19-year-old Eileen, who coped with pain so severe that at times she would collapse unconscious. Deeply religious, Eileen claimed to have received a visitation from the Holy Mother who encouraged her to accept her suffering for the good of others. She told only Fr McGrath of this vision and he in turn shared with her his ambition to establish a congregation of nurses to serve the poor. Eileen was filled with enthusiasm for the venture and moved into a rented house in Coogee in 1915 - which would become known as Our Lady's Home and serve as the convent for the new congregation.

Despite her disability, Eileen was a tireless worker and inspirational leader, and when the community of "Our Lady's Nurses of the Poor," elected her as the congregation's first superior there was little surprise. The work of the Brown Nurses as they became known consisted of visiting the poor who were sick in their own homes and nursing them and also caring for the frail and aged.

Eileen supervised the work and directed the spiritual development of the congregation. But when a group of Sacred Heart Missionaries alleged an improper relationship between Eileen and co-founder of the congregation, Fr McGrath found himself banned from officiating as a priest. He appealed to Rome. Eileen, so incensed at such outrageous claims, and with the assistance of a nurse travelled to the Vatican in 1911 in support of his cause. Granted an interview with Pope Benedict XV she influenced his decision to reinstate Fr McGrath.

Returning to Australia, she continued to be an inspiring devoted leader of her congregation, but by now was almost entirely bedridden. Ill health continued to dog her and after years of suffering chronic tuberculosis of the spine, she died on 10 January 1921. Just 29 years old she was buried at Randwick cemetery. Sixteen years later when her body was exhumed to be reinterred beneath the chapel at the convent Our Lady's Nurses of the Poor, it was found to be in a state of perfect preservation.

On March 22, 2018 the Catholic Archbishop of Sydney, Most Rev. Anthony Fisher OP, began the formal process for the beatification of Eileen O'Connor.
