11th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year B June 17, 2018

The Year of Fr Francis
Jordan
Sept 8,
2017-2018

Today the unique message of Jesus is summed up by his use of the phrase 'kingdom of God' and his unique way of speaking about it was the parable. The kingdom he speaks of is not the after-life but an expression of how God wants the world to be. So all Jesus' parables of the kingdom deal with God's will for the world and how his grace is at work around us. As such, they offer both comfort and challenge. Today's parables stress that we must not fret or worry but rather trust that the kingdom will come because God wants it to. They are an invitation to take time to consider how the plan of God unfolds around us in ways that are both surprising and sure.

'IN THE YEAR OF YOUTH AND TOWARDS THE PLENARY COUNCIL'
A SPIRITUAL LETTER BY BISHOP PETER COMENSOLI ON 'GROWING YOUNG IN CHRIST'

Uploaded on our website and also available at the foyer today [limited copies] is the recent Spiritual Letter written by Bishop Peter on Growing Young in Christ which gives us great insight into this theme and you are encouraged to either log on and read it if you have access, or take home a copy today.

PLENARY COUNCIL 2020

◆ 2018: A Year of Listening. ◆ 2019: A Year of Discerning. ◆ 2020: A year of Proposing

Since becoming Pope in 2013, Francis has constantly called for synodality, more participatory processes, and better forms of pastoral dialogue to listen to everyone. In response, Australia's bishops have determined that for the 2020 Council "the scope of the consultation and discernment processes will be inclusive of the whole Catholic community in its breadth and diversity" and its agenda "generated by genuine consultation with the whole Church".

Perth Archbishop Timothy Costelloe SDB, president of the Plenary Council, states:
"We are embarking together on an important initiative that holds great promise for the Catholic Church in Australia. ... The Pope's prayer reminds us of our great need for the wisdom, harmony and openness to God's will, which are the gift of the Holy Spirit, without which the Plenary Council will not bear the appropriate fruit which we pray will renew the face of the Church in Australia."

For we the people of the Church, Australia has not had a Plenary Council for about 80 years, so it is something new for most of us. We understand though that if the Council is to have any positive and lasting effects on our Australian Church we have to be interested and involved. To that end, each parish in Australia has been asked to appoint an Animator to be the link between the people and the Council. Below is a description of the role and it is anticipated that it will require no more than 15-20 hours in 2018. Please consider whether you would like to be our animator and speak with Father, or the office.

THE ROLE OF THE ANIMATOR IS TO:

- Raise awareness and distribute Plenary Council guides for local listening sessions;
- Lead and encourage others to lead such local sessions using these guides;
- Register listening sessions taking place within our community so that Bishop Peter might also visit and hear the faith of our people;
- Encourage all participants to share the feedback of their dialogue with their local Parish Pastoral Councils, school staff and teams, community leaders and social support centres for their local discernment and action, and also upload these responses to the national Plenary Council website at <http://plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au/>
- Share new information about Plenary Council 2020 as it comes to hand and serve as the primary liaison with the diocesan Plenary Council Working Group throughout 2018.

CATHOLIC CHURCH IN NSW WILL WORK WITH GOVERNMENT ON REFORMS

A news article of interest taken from www.bbcatholic.org.au: June 12, 2018

The Catholic Archdiocese of Sydney, along with the ten other Catholic dioceses of New South Wales, will work with the NSW Government in relation to its policy response to the civil litigation recommendations of the Royal Commission which will make it easier for survivors of child sexual abuse to access the civil justice system. Since last year, the Catholic Church in NSW has been consulting with the NSW Government about the civil litigation and criminal justice law reform needed to address the Royal Commission's findings.

The NSW Dioceses have indicated support for the Commonwealth Redress Scheme endorsed recently by the NSW Government.

The NSW Government's civil litigation reforms announced today support the establishment of legal entities with sufficient assets to meet claims to be put forward as proper defendants.

"For some time now the Archdiocese of Sydney has been assisting survivors to identify proper defendants and ensuring claims are met," the Archbishop of Sydney, Most Rev. Anthony Fisher OP said today.

"However the NSW Dioceses recognise more can be done to make access to the justice system easier.

"We support having a clear entity as a proper defendant for claims.

"Since last year, we have been consulting with the state government on ways to ensure NSW Dioceses have legal entities that provide certainty, transparency and permanence, along with the financial ability to meet the claims of clerical sexual abuse survivors.

"We are encouraged by these discussions and look forward to a productive outcome in the coming months which will further offer a clear commitment by the Catholic Church to assist in the healing of survivors of abuse," he said.
