TRULY, TRULY, I SAY TO YOU,
UNLESS A GRAIN OF WHEAT
FALLS INTO THE EARTH AND
DIES, IT REMAINS ALONE; BUT IF IT DIES, IT BEARS MUCH FRUIT.

John 12:24

As we approach Holy Week and our celebration of Christ's mystery, his death and resurrection being our opening to the fullness of life, today we read in the gospel that anyone who loves his life, loses it, any anyone who hates his life in this world will keep it for eternal life. This challenges each of us to recognise just how different a vision of life we must have if we are to serve and follow Jesus Christ.

Feast of St. Joseph Monday March 19

Remember, O St. Joseph, the most chaste spouse of the Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who implored your help and sought your intercession was left unaided. Full of confidence in your power I fly unto you and beg your protection. Despise not my humble petition, O Guardian of the Redeemer, but in your bounty, hear and answer me. Amen.
