21st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Year B
August 26, 2018

The Year of
Fr Francis
Jordan
Sept 8,
2017-2018

The words that I speak to you
are spirit, and they are life.

John 6:63

Life is made up of many choices, big and small; human, spiritual and religious. Like Peter in today's Gospel, the choice we make for Jesus is the choice for love. If we choose Jesus then the hunger of the world as well as the tears of a baby affects us. What we do in love for others comes from this choice, and we need to fill our lives with Christ to be able to share this love in big and small ways. We need the company of other choosers, the community of faith and of the church that we share at today's Eucharist. Donal Neary SJ www.messenger.ie/bookshop/bookshop

104TH WORLD DAY OF MIGRANTS: SUNDAY AUGUST 26

"Every stranger who knocks at our door is an opportunity for an encounter with Jesus Christ, who identifies with the welcomed and rejected strangers of every age." [Matt: 25:35-43]

From the Message of His Holiness Pope Francis on the 104th World Day of Migrants & Refugees 2018.

If you would like to read the pope's full message, please log on to:

AND FROM THE BIBLE SOCIETY ... Will you provide Bibles to Iraqi refugees?

Iraqi Christians have faced persecution. They've been threatened. They've fled their homes. But it's reawakened their faith - and now, many are asking for Bibles. It's hard for us to imagine what it means to receive a Bible when you've lost everything, but let me tell you what one refugee said. Ghassan fled Iraq with his wife and two girls when ISIS came to their house and threatened to kill the family unless they left or converted to Islam. "Our faith is deep within us so we were not ready to give that up," said Ghassan. "We were in desperate need of financial help... but we were more in need of spiritual help." The Society's team in the region helped the family in practical ways and provided them with the Bible they longed for. God's word gave them hope and comfort in their darkest hours. "I may have lost all my property and my money, but I have gained Jesus Christ - and this was real gain," said Ghassan.

All donations are gratefully accepted, but, for example, $100 will help teach young refugees to read in a Bible-based literacy class. If you would like to donate or know more, contact the Bible Society, 1300 242 537 or go to the web.

BAPTISM PRESENTATION THIS WEEKEND
We welcome at the 9am Mass this weekend Roy & Adiba Chikwem who present their son to his new faith community in preparation for his upcoming baptism in September:

May you share many, many more.

KEEPING ON TRACK TO PLENARY COUNCIL 2020

This parish's journey toward the process of potential change at Plenary 2020 commenced with the meeting held for interested parishioners last Tuesday evening, and we thank Sean Pearson and Anne Lovell for their commitment to encouraging us all to have our say and contribute to the Council's agenda.

Keeping on track, over the month of September Anne and Sean will meet with our ministry leaders [Sept 11], hold another information session for those who want to know more about Plenary Council 2020, and then the first of the Listening and Dialoguing sessions to form and hone our submission [September 25]. At the same time, we encourage you to broaden your knowledge by logging on to sites such as www.plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au, from which we quote:

Together, we are on a journey of listening to God by listening to one another. We invite all Australians to engage in an open and inclusive process of listening, dialogue and discernment about the future of the Catholic Church in Australia. Your voice is needed – join in! Speak boldly and with passion, listen with an open and humble heart. With faith and guided by God's Holy Spirit, we journey together, toward the future.

The need to care for our creation is even more urgent today. Christian churches all over the world will be celebrating the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation on 1 September, and the Season of Creation between 1 September and 4 October – the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi.
