ST PATRICK'S YEAR OF TRUST

Receive the sign of the cross on your forehead. Put on the mind of Christ, from the folly of whose cross God's wisdom was manifest.

Receive the sign of the cross on your ears, that in the cries of the abused and betrayed you may hear the voice of the Lord.

Receive the sign of the cross on your eyes, darkened by tears, denials and cover-ups, that they may be brightened in the light of Christ.

Receive the sign of the cross on your lips, silenced by fear and the shock of scandal, that you may respond to the word of God and speak justice and truth in love.

Receive the sign of the cross over your heart, broken in pain and uncertainty, disillusionment and disappointment, that Christ may dwell there by faith.

FR FRANCIS JORDAN SDS

"Pray all the time with deepest humility and greatest confidence. Let nothing keep you from it."

Fr Francis Jordan is credited with many inspirational quotes that we will place here.

POPE FRANCIS' MARCH 2019 INTENTION

Christian Communities

That Christian communities, especially those who are persecuted, feel that they are close to Christ and have their rights respected.

WELCOME AND THANK YOU FR GEORGE

We are delighted to welcome Fr George Kolodziej, the Regional Superior for the Salvatorian Order. Fr George is at St Patrick's today to celebrate with us for St Patrick's Day.

LENTEN PASSPORT PROGRAM 2019

The Lenten Children's program is designed to give formation about this season to families in Gosford Parish.

All children and their families are invited to come to Mass on Sundays during the Lenten season at the parish churches. There will be a special program including children's Liturgy and children's homilies to learn more about Lent and its observances.

After each attended Mass on these six Sundays, children can collect a special sticker and place them on their Lenten passport on the corresponding spot. Anyone who brings their Lenten passport to church on Palm Sunday with a minimum of 4 stickers in it (including Palm Sunday) will receive a prize (a brand-new toy!).

This program is designed to help us better understand the true meaning of Lent. All children up to Year 6 at school are invited to participate.

Get a Passport from the Church foyer this Sunday and then get a sticker for your passport each week in Lent.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

Join us for our first Grace Conversations for 2019 with our home grown guest speaker, Kelly Paget. On top of being a life long parishioner of Gosford Parish, a wife to Chris and mother to 3 little boys, Kelly works for the Office of the Bishop in the role of Senior Advisor. Kelly's beginnings in ministry are strongly grounded in Salvatorian spirituality and she brings a unique perspective into understanding the charism of Fr Francis Jordan and his Mission.

The evening will include a talk on Fr Francis and the Salvatorian Mission, time for small group discussion and fellowship around supper.

Please RSVP to the Parish Office.

GENESIS 15:5-12,17-18 †

God enters into a Covenant with Abraham, the man of faith

Taking Abram outside, the Lord said, 'Look up to heaven and count the stars if you can.' 'Such will be your descendants,' he told him. Abram put his faith in the Lord, who counted this as making him justified.

'I am the Lord' he said to him 'who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans to make you heir to this land.' 'My Lord,' Abram replied 'how am I to know that I shall inherit it?' He said to him, 'Get me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove and a young pigeon.' He brought him all these, cut them in half and put half on one side and half facing it on the other; but the birds he did not cut in half. Birds of prey came down on the carcasses but Abram drove them off.

When the sun had set and darkness had fallen, there appeared a smoking furnace and a firebrand that went between the halves. That day the Lord made a Covenant with Abram in these terms:

'To your descendants I give this land, from the wadi of Egypt to the Great River.'

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PSALM 26(27):1,7-9,13-14

The Lord is my light and my salvation.

The Lord is my light and my help; whom shall I fear?

The Lord is the stronghold of my life; before whom shall I shrink?

The Lord is my light and my salvation.

O Lord, hear my voice when I call; have mercy and answer.

Of you my heart has spoken: 'Seek his face.'

The Lord is my light and my salvation.

It is your face, O Lord, that I seek; hide not your face.

Dismiss not your servant in anger; you have been my help.

The Lord is my light and my salvation.

I am sure I shall see the Lord's goodness in the land of the living.

Hope in him, hold firm and take heart.

Hope in the Lord!

The Lord is my light and my salvation.

SECOND READING

PHILIPPIANS 3:20-4:1 †

Christ will transfigure our bodies into copies of his glorious body.

For us, our homeland is in heaven, and from heaven comes the saviour we are waiting for, the Lord Jesus Christ, and he will transfigure these wretched bodies of ours into copies of his glorious body. He will do that by the same power with which he can subdue the whole universe.

So then, my brothers and dear friends, do not give way but remain faithful in the Lord. I miss you very much, dear friends; you are my joy and my crown.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL

LUKE 9:28-36

Jesus is transfigured before them.

Jesus took with him Peter and John and James and went up the mountain to pray. As he prayed, the aspect of his face was changed and his clothing became brilliant as lightning. Suddenly there were two men there talking to him; they were Moses and Elijah appearing in glory, and they were speaking of his passing which he was to accomplish in Jerusalem. Peter and his companions were heavy with sleep, but they kept awake and saw his glory and the two men standing with him. As these were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, 'Master, it is wonderful for us to be here; so let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.' – He did not know what he was saying. As he spoke, a cloud came and covered them with shadow; and when they went into the cloud the disciples were afraid. And a voice came from the cloud saying, 'This is my Son, the Chosen One. Listen to him.' And after the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. The disciples kept silence and, at that time, told no one what they had seen.

The Gospel of the Lord.

NEXT SUNDAYS READINGS:

1st: Exodus 3:1-8,13-15

2nd: Cor 10:1-6,10-12

Gospel: Luke 13:1-9

COMMENTARY ON THE READINGS

On the second Sunday of Lent, we move from Jesus' retreat to the desert and temptation by the devil to the glory shown in Jesus' Transfiguration. On the first Sunday of Lent, our Gospel always tells the story of Jesus' temptation in the desert. On the second Sunday, we always hear the story of Jesus' Transfiguration.

The report of Jesus' Transfiguration is found in each of the Synoptic Gospels—Matthew, Mark, and Luke. The context for Luke's Transfiguration story is similar to that found in both Matthew and Mark. The Transfiguration occurs after Peter's confession that Jesus is the Messiah and Jesus' prediction about his Passion. After the prediction there is a discussion of the cost of discipleship in each of these Gospels. The placement of the Transfiguration story close to Peter's confession and Jesus' prediction encourages us to examine the Transfiguration in the larger context of the Paschal Mystery.

The Transfiguration occurs on a mountain in the presence of just three of Jesus' disciples—Peter, James and John. These are among the first disciples that Jesus called in Luke's Gospel. We recently heard this Gospel at Mass, on the fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time. Only Luke's Gospel, which often describes Jesus at prayer, indicates that Jesus is praying as his appearance changes to bright white. Luke indicates that the three disciples were sleeping while Jesus prayed. They will be sleeping again as Jesus prays in the Garden of Gethsemane before his Passion and death.

As they awake, Peter and the disciples see Jesus Transfigured and Elijah and Moses present with Jesus. Elijah and Moses, both significant figures in the history of Israel, represent Jesus' continuity with the Law and the Prophets. In Matthew's and Mark's Gospels, there is reference to conversation among Jesus, Elijah, and Moses, but only Luke's Gospel explains that this conversation is about Jesus' later accomplishments in Jerusalem. Luke describes this as his exodus, connecting Jesus' Passion, death, and Resurrection with the Israelite's Exodus from Egypt.

On witnessing Jesus' Transfiguration and seeing Jesus with Elijah and Moses, Peter offers to construct three tents for them. Having just awoken, perhaps Peter's offer was made in confusion. We also notice that Peter reverted from his earlier confession that Jesus is the Messiah, calling Jesus "master" instead. As if in reply to Peter's confusion, a voice from heaven speaks, affirming Jesus as God's Son and commanding that the disciples listen to him. This voice from heaven recalls the voice that was heard at Jesus' baptism which, in Luke's Gospel, spoke directly to Jesus as God's Son.

In his Transfiguration, we see an anticipation of the glory of Jesus' Resurrection. In each of the reports of the Transfiguration, the disciples keep secret what they have seen. Not until they also witness his Passion and death will the disciples understand Jesus' Transfiguration. We hear this story of Jesus' Transfiguration early in Lent, but we have the benefit of hindsight. In our hearing of it, we anticipate Jesus' Resurrection even as we prepare to remember Jesus' Passion and death. <https://www.lojolapress.com/>
