SAFEGUARDING MONTH

REFLECTION FOR YOUNG PEOPLE – BY LISA-MARIE CALDERONE-STEWART

Jesus tells us that trust is based on performance. If you have shown yourself to be responsible in small things, then you will be trusted with larger things. If you have shown yourself to be careless or dishonest, even in a small matter, you will not be trusted in a more important matter.

Do these words ring true? How does your trust level – high or low – affect your relationships?

When has your 'track record' with your parents or teachers come back to haunt you? When have you lost trust, and then lost an opportunity for something you wanted?

When has your track record with your parents or teachers helped you? When have you proven yourself to be responsible so that you earned a privilege you wanted?

Jesus warns us that we cannot be a slave to two masters – God and money. We must decide which is more important, and then live our life accordingly.

Do you think that Jesus is implying that you can't have any money? Or do you think Jesus is concerned only with an excess of money, a preoccupation with material things, and the greed that makes us jealous or dissatisfied with what we have?

If Jesus were to rate teenagers based on excess of money, preoccupation with material things, and a tendency toward greed, jealousy, and dissatisfaction, how well would most teenagers do? How well would you do?

LUKE 16:1 – 13

You cannot be slaves both of God and of money.

Why is money such a problem? Why is greed so common? How do people learn to become so selfish? - Lisa-Marie Calderone-Stewart

We are now approaching the end of the month of safeguarding and can see such poignant words from one of our young people. Not only showing the wider community how to think clearly but having the courage to speak up.

So, maybe we could all take on board her thoughts and see if we can improve our own lives and the lives of those around us.

We all have the intelligence, the sense of right and wrong and the ability to control our emotions to ensure we learn to trust ourselves and so trust each other.

Very well-considered words, Lisa Marie, thank you.

A MISSING ITEM FROM THE WORK SACRISTY

There is a very small gold spoon used to put the incense into the Thurible. This spoon was one of the items recently donated by Josie McGuinness. If anybody has seen it or stumbles across it could you please let the Parish Office know.

On Monday October 7, the Long Weekend. There will be a communion service, replacing Mass.

BLESSING OF OUR MEMORIAL TREE

After the 9 am Mass next Sunday, September 29, we invite all parishioners to be present at the blessing of the Memorial Tree we will place in the church's York Street garden in remembrance of all the vulnerable - men, women and children - who have been hurt by the actions of others, especially by those in our Church. We feel it is very important to publicly acknowledge those who have been hurt not only in a display of remorse for the past but a reminder that we all need to be vigilant in working towards the promise of a safer future. Please join us

DAYLIGHT SAVING STARTS SUNDAY OCTOBER 6.

PARISH NEWS AND NOTICES

FR GEORGE JOINS US NEXT SUNDAY

Fr George Kolodziej SDS, Australian Superior of the Salvatorian Order, will be our guest at St Patrick's next Sunday only which is also Social Justice Sunday, and a fitting day to launch our annual Salvatorian Appeal in support of the Salvatorian Missions worldwide and seminary in the Philippines where our own Deacon Paul has been studying. We look forward to Fr George being with us once more at the altar, and especially during this month when we also focus on our need for safeguarding vigilance in protection of the vulnerable. The envelopes will be available this weekend for the collection on September 29.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

I AM THE SALVATION OF THE PEOPLE, SAYS THE LORD.

Should they cry to me in any distress,
I will hear them, and I will be their
Lord for ever.

FIRST READING

AM 8:4-7

A reading from the prophet Amos

The Lord God spoke against those who buy the poor for money.

Listen to this, you who trample on the needy and try to suppress the poor people of the country, you who say, 'When will New Moon be over so that we can sell our corn, and sabbath, so that we can market our wheat?

Then by lowering the bushel, raising the shekel, by swindling and tampering with the scales, we can buy up the poor for money, and the needy for a pair of sandals, and get a price even for the sweepings of the wheat.'

The Lord swears it by the pride of Jacob, 'Never will I forget a single thing you have done.'

The Word of the Lord

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 112:1-2. 4-8. R. SEE VV.1. 7

(R.) Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor.

Praise, O servants of the Lord, praise the name of the Lord!

May the name of the Lord be blessed both now and for evermore!

(R.) Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor.

High above all nations is the Lord, above the heavens his glory.

Who is like the Lord, our God, who has risen on high to his throne yet stoops from the heights to look down, to look down upon heaven and earth?

(R.) Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor.

From the dust he lifts up the lowly, from the dungheap he raises the poor to set him in the company of princes, yes, with the princes of his people.

(R.) Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor.

SECOND READING

1 TM 2:1-8

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to Timothy

Let prayers be offered to God for everyone; he wants all people to be saved.

My advice is that, first of all, there should be prayers offered for everyone – petitions, intercessions and thanksgiving – and especially for kings and others in authority, so that we may be able to live religious and reverent lives in peace and quiet. To do this is right, and will please God our saviour: he wants everyone to be saved and reach full knowledge of the truth. For there is only one God, and there is only one mediator between God and mankind, himself a man, Christ Jesus, who sacrificed himself as a ransom for them all. He is the evidence of this, sent at the appointed time, and I have been named a herald and apostle of it and – I am telling the truth and no lie – a teacher of the faith and the truth to the pagans.

In every place, then, I want the men to lift their hands up reverently in prayer, with no anger or argument.

The Word of the LORD

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

2 COR 8:9

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus Christ was rich but he became poor, to make you rich out of his poverty.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

LK 16:1-13

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

You cannot be slaves both of God and of money.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'There was a rich man and he had a steward who was denounced to him for being wasteful with his property. He called for the man and said, "What is this I hear about you? Draw me up an account of your stewardship because you are not to be my steward any longer." Then the steward said to himself, "Now that my master is taking the stewardship from me, what am I to do? Dig? I am not strong enough. Go begging? I should be too ashamed. Ah, I know what I will do to make sure that when I am dismissed from office there will be some to welcome me into their homes."

'Then he called his master's debtors one by one. To the first he said, "How much do you owe my master?" "One hundred measures of oil," was the reply. The steward said, "Here, take your bond; sit down straight away and write fifty." To another he said, "And you, sir, how much do you owe?" "One hundred measures of wheat," was the reply. The steward said, "Here, take your bond and write eighty."

'The master praised the dishonest steward for his astuteness. For the children of this world are more astute in dealing with their own kind than are the children of light.

'And so I tell you this: use money, tainted as it is, to win you friends, and thus make sure that when it fails you, they will welcome you into the tents of eternity. The man who can be trusted in little things can be trusted in great; the man who is dishonest in little things will be dishonest in great. If then you cannot be trusted with money, that tainted thing, who will trust you with genuine riches? And if you cannot be trusted with what is not yours, who will give you what is your very own?

'No servant can be the slave of two masters: he will either hate the first and love the second, or treat the first with respect and the second with scorn. You cannot be the slave both of God and of money.'

Parish Safeguarding Presentation

by the Office for Safeguarding (Chancery)

BRISBANE WATER AND TUGGERAH LAKES DEANERY'S

(The Parishes of: Kincumber, Woy Woy, Gosford, Terrigal, Wyoming and The Entrance, Toukley-Lake Munmorah, Warnervale, Wyong)

- Saturday 19 October 2019, 10.00am to 12 noon
@ Our Lady of the Rosary, 241 The Entrance Road, The Entrance
- Wednesday 23 October 2019, 11.00am to 1.00pm
@ Our Lady of the Rosary, 241 The Entrance Road, The Entrance

All Parish Staff, Volunteers and those interested in learning more about Safeguarding are invited to attend.

The Diocese seeks to ensure children and vulnerable people are provided with the fundamental right to be kept safe and respected. This right is held sacred in our Gospel, international and local laws and within our Church policy and practice.

Topics covered in the presentation include:

- ◆ Introduction to Safeguarding
- ◆ What we learnt from the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse
  - ◆ Our Commitment to Safeguarding
- ◆ Introduction to the National Catholic Safeguarding Standards
  - ◆ Best Practice for Safeguarding in the Parish

These two sessions will have the same content; therefore, you will only need to attend once.
