DROUGHT RELIEF PRAYER CAMPAIGN

The Catholic Bishops of Australia have announced a National Prayer Campaign for Drought to take place during November. People across the country are encouraged to pray for the gift of rain, for people affected by the drought and to provide practical support, where possible. The Bishops note that large parts of the country are directly affected by the drought, but the impact is national – and so should the response be national. Access resources and find out more at: www.catholic.org.au/drought

All who have loved ones there may be particularly interested in attending.

THE CWF BRINGS JOY!

This week, we will be sharing Rachel and Clare's stories about their experience as students and now catechists themselves!

There will be a CWF video shown at Masses on the weekend of 2/3 Nov. The video highlights CCD as one of the Diocesan services funded by CWF.

In the CWF video this week we meet Rachel and Clare who are two catechists from Epping/Carlingford Parish. As students, they attended a Public School in our Diocese where they received weekly lessons from a Catholic Special Religious Education (SRE) teacher (catechist) who was supported by CCD. Clare even converted to Catholicism thanks to her positive experience with SRE. Currently, 15 children from Public Schools are preparing for 1st Communion in our Parish. Perhaps someone you know has benefited from a SRE class in a Public School. This is made possible through Parish catechist teams, CCD and donations to CWF. How can you contribute? Call Alain (0414273654) to enquire about joining our catechist team.

Here's the link to the CWF video - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-zTVi5eXq0s&t=4s>

CF. PS 37:22-23

Forsake me not, O Lord, my God; be not far from me!

Make haste and come to my help, O Lord, my strong salvation!

FIRST READING

WIS 11:22 – 12:2

A reading from the book of Wisdom

You have mercy on all things because you love everything that exists.

In your sight, Lord, the whole world is like a grain of dust that tips the scales, like a drop of morning dew falling on the ground.

Yet you are merciful to all, because you can do all things and overlook men's sins so that they can repent.

Yes, you love all that exists, you hold nothing of what you have made in abhorrence, for had you hated anything, you would not have formed it.

And how, had you not willed it, could a thing persist, how be conserved if not called forth by you?

You spare all things because all things are yours, Lord, lover of life, you whose imperishable spirit is in all.

Little by little, therefore, you correct those who offend, you admonish and remind them of how they have sinned, so that they may abstain from evil and trust in you, Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 144:1-2. 8-11. 13-14. R. SEE V.1

(R.) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

I will give you glory, O God my King, I will bless your name for ever.

I will bless you day after day and praise your name for ever.

(R.) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in love.

How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures.

(R.) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing.

They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God.

(R.) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The Lord is faithful in all his words and loving in all his deeds.

The Lord supports all who fall and raises all who are bowed down.

(R.) I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

SECOND READING

2 THES 1:11 – 2:2

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

The name of our Lord Jesus Christ will be glorified in you and you in him.

We pray continually that our God will make you worthy of his call, and by his power fulfil all your desires for goodness and complete all that you have been doing through faith; because in this way the name of our Lord Jesus Christ will be glorified in you and you in him, by the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

To turn now, brothers, to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and how we shall all be gathered round him: please do not get excited too soon or alarmed by any prediction or rumour or any letter claiming to come from us, implying that the Day of the Lord has already arrived.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JN 3:16

Alleluia, alleluia!

God loved the world so much, he gave us his only Son, that all who believe in him might have eternal life.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

LK 19:1-10

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

The Son of Man came to seek and to find that which was lost.

Jesus entered Jericho and was going through the town when a man whose name was Zacchaeus made his appearance; he was one of the senior tax collectors and a wealthy man. He was anxious to see what kind of man Jesus was, but he was too short and could not see him for the crowd; so he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to catch a glimpse of Jesus who was to pass that way. When Jesus reached the spot he looked up and spoke to him: 'Zacchaeus, come down. Hurry, because I must stay at your house today.' And he hurried down and welcomed him joyfully. They all complained when they saw what was happening. 'He has gone to stay at a sinner's house' they said. But Zacchaeus stood his ground and said to the Lord, 'Look, sir, I am going to give half my property to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody I will pay him back four times the amount.' And Jesus said to him, 'Today salvation has come to this house, because this man too is a son of Abraham; for the Son of Man has come to seek out and save what was lost.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

CF. PS 15:11

You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, O Lord.

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

The universal love and providence of the creator is celebrated in this most unusual reading from Wisdom. This passage depicts a creator who is personally involved with every dimension of the natural world. We find here the same cosmic power as seen in other creation passages, but it is coupled with love and mercy. We also see the immensity of God, and the love that God has for creation. Just as the power of the creator is matched by the love of the creator, so is this love manifested through mercy. Perhaps an even more daring statement concerns the imperishable spirit of God that exists in all things.

The responsorial psalm opens with an acclamation closely associated with God's name revealed at the time of the reestablishment of the covenant (cf. Exod 34:6). In these two verses covenant language abounds. God is described as gracious, compassionate, and filled with lovingkindness. The works of the Lord include everything that God has made as well as everything that God has done. There is a comprehensiveness to this call for praise. The faithful of the Lord are those who are holy, those who are bound to God in covenant loyalty. It is not enough that they enjoy the privilege of belonging to God's kingdom. Through them, God invites the entire universe to participate in it.

Paul addresses two very important issues: the fruition of the Christians' calling by God; and the correct teaching about the final coming of Christ. He addresses the Christians with familial titles, indicating both his relationship with them as together constituting children of God and members of the church, and his personal commitment to them. The goal of Christian maturity is the glorification of the name of Jesus. Paul insists that Christian living is based, not on the performance of good works, but on faith in Jesus. Paul taught that in faith and through baptism, Christians have died with Christ and risen with him, and now live resurrected lives. He also taught that fulfilment has not been brought to its ultimate completion. Paul teaches an 'already-but-not-yet' eschatology.

The story of Zacchaeus demonstrates once again the mission of Jesus to seek and to save what is lost. Despite his obvious disrepute, Zacchaeus is described as possessing several very honourable qualities. His interest in seeing Jesus overrode any shame he may have experienced in having to climb the tree. He responded immediately to Jesus, and the sincerity of his transformation is seen in the extent of his restitution. The narrative draws bold lines of contrast between Jesus' attitude toward this man and that of the people who witnessed the encounter. Jesus insisted that only those who are lost can be found; only those who are perishing can be saved. Those who revere themselves as righteous seldom understand this and, as a result, miss opportunities for their own salvation.

A HUGE THANK YOU

FROM JOSIE MCGUINNESS AND FAMILY.

Josie wished to thank all those kind people who helped and attended the Memorial Mass offered for Ian, her late husband.

Thank you, the Most Rev Dr David Ranson who celebrated Mass for Ian and gave a beautiful and well-articulated homily. The supper afterwards was attended by almost all those who attended the Mass.

Josie would especially like to thank Cecilia, Margaret and Eunice, for their help in setting up the Jordan room and cleaning up afterwards.
