

St Patrick's Parish Gosford

The Communities of St Patrick's East Gosford,
St Francis of Assisi Somersby & Holy Trinity Spencer
Neighbourhoods of Grace, entrusted to the care of the Salvatorians.

Love is a powerful action. We seek wholeness in the love of God. We pursue it in a lifelong companion. We give it selflessly to our children and withhold it from our enemies. Love is an action we take part in daily.

How can you love well? Fortunately, the Bible is packed with verses about love that applies to all relationships! Below you will find verses, and even some encouraging quotes, about how to give love and receive love. Find truth to pierce your heart and mind, whether it be

"And I am convinced that nothing can ever separate us from God's love. Neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither our fears for today nor our worries about tomorrow—not even the powers of hell can separate us from God's love. No power in the sky above or in the earth below—indeed, nothing in all creation will ever be able to separate us from the love of God that is revealed in Christ Jesus our Lord." Romans 8:38-39 in loving God, family, your enemy, or yourself, just to name a few.

It is love that changes the world.

"Though the mountains be shaken and the hills be removed, yet my unfailing love for you will not be shaken nor my covenant of peace be removed," says the Lord, who has compassion on you."

Isaiah 54:10

"The LORD your God is in your midst, a mighty one who will save; he will rejoice over you with gladness; he will quiet you by his love; he will exult over you with loud singing."

Zephaniah 3:17

LOVE WITH FOOD PARCELS

FOR HOMELESS IN GOSFORD, STARTING SOON.

Fr Greg will talk this weekend about a new initiative for our Parish. One where we can all show our love of our fellow human beings, especially those less fortunate than ourselves.

Fr Greg envisions having a collection point for non perishable food parcels in the foyer of the church, similar to the way we collected back to School supplies for the victims of the Bush Fires. During each Mass the food parcels will be brought to the altar with the ofetory procession.

These food parcels will be distributed to the organisations in the Gosford area who feed the homeless on the Central Coast.

GOSFORD HOSPITAL VISITATION

A PLEA FOR YOUR ASSISTANCE

Gosford Parish is responsible for ensuring that Catholic patients [from all parishes] have the opportunity to receive the Blessed Eucharist on a Sunday by sending a team in each Friday to visit those nominated.

Unfortunately though our volunteer numbers are dwindling due to ill health and we are now in urgent need and are hoping to find those who would be willing to take on this ministry.

We won't pull any punches, NSW Health has imposed a number of regulations and requirements which need to be met and the most daunting for some is the idea of undertaking a 40 hour CPE course, and receiving a number of vaccinations to protect both patient and visitor but if you aren't daunted, please call our Parish Office to have your questions answered.

Sadly, if more volunteers aren't found we will be facing a situation where the ministry will have to cease and the sick will be deprived of the opportunity to receive the Eucharist. We look forward to hearing from you.

A big thank you to Mabel Kan for electing to become a pastoral visitor!

SACRAMENTAL RETREAT FOR CHILDREN WHO PARTICIPATED IN THE SACRAMENTAL PROGRAM IN 2019

Students who made their First Eucharist at the end of last year, having completed their other sacraments, are warmly invited with their parents/carers to attend a short retreat at St Patrick's on Saturday 15th February, following 9 am mass. There will be short sessions with a guest speaker and discussion groups/activities for children and adults both together and separately, and we will finish with a light lunch in the school hall at about 11:30.

Please RSVP to sacramental coordinator Fran Mathey on 0427 773 317 or franceshanna@yahoo.com by Friday 7th February.

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF THE SICK

TUESDAY FEBRUARY 11, 2020

PASTORAL VISITS

Fr Greg would like to commence 2020 with a commitment to visiting the sick in their homes or place of location throughout the year and invites you to let the Parish Office know if you or someone you know would like this.

The International Day of the Sick is the perfect launch date and at the foyer today you will find a sheet on which to place your name and address to organise a visit on Feb 11 [or you may prefer to call the office directly].

Please take this opportunity for a chat and to receive the Blessing of the Sick, and remember, this is a continuing pastoral ministry and therefore we invite you to call us whenever there is need or a desire to be visited.

ANNUAL SALVATORIAN SEMINARY COLLECTION

22-23 FEBRUARY 2019

Each year in our Salvatorian parishes, we ask for support for our seminaries in Poland and Philippines where future priests for Australia are educated. Your generous contributions help in the training and education of our young seminarians and the upkeep of our seminaries. At present, the present the Australian Salvatorian region has seven candidates undergoing their formation in the Philippines.

This year, our deacon Paul Tran SDS will join each mass to talk about his experience in the Salvatorian community. If you did not know, Paul is from Bão Lộc in the southern part of Vietnam. Paul attended the Salvatorian Mother of the Savior Formation House seminary in Manila the Philippines and is currently on assignment in the Gosford parish.

We invite you to unite in prayer for our young Seminarians as well as for vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life. Salvatorian envelopes will be available on the weekend of 22-23 February.

Thank you in anticipation for your generosity, and God bless you all, Fr Greg.

NOVEL CORONAVIRUS -

NO DISTRIBUTION OF THE CHALICE

You will have seen the extensive media coverage regarding the outbreak of novel coronavirus. Although NSW Health has deemed the risk of the virus to the general public as low, a number of precautionary recommendations have been issued in order to limit its spread.

In light of these guidelines, Bishop Anthony has asked that as from 30/01/2020, the chalice is not to be shared at any Masses but is to be reserved to the Celebrant(s) only.

1. All Ministers of Communion (Ordinary and Extraordinary) are to be diligent in the use of hand sanitizer prior to the distribution of Communion.
2. These measures are to be publicly and clearly communicated to all congregations at Mass.
3. Such precautions remain in force until the end of February, upon which time Bishop Anthony will review the situation in light of any further developments.

NEXT MOVIE NIGHT - 29th February.

Movie:-

SAMSON (M)

This movie is an exciting adventure story and, let's face it, it's exciting in any case to see biblical stories come to life on screen. Samson, empowered by God with supernatural strength, endangers his destiny with his impulsive decisions that lead to betrayal by a wicked prince and a beautiful temptress. When Samson calls on God once more, he turns imprisonment and blindness into final victory. Samson is an inspiring movie for a family movie night. (Judges 13 to Judges 16)

LENTEN LISTENING 2020

A Lenten Program offered by the Diocese of Broken Bay

This Lenten program experience draws on the rich Scripture texts of this Year A Lenten Season, and invites us to reflect on these in conjunction with the Plenary Council themes, to discern what the Spirit is saying to us in our own local parish communities today.

This will be a process of communal discernment, rather than individual discernment. The process is one of prayer, contemplation, sharing with one another and seeking God's direction, guided by the Holy Spirit.

Each week will look at one of the 6 themes arising from the Plenary Council, and follow the discernment process as outlined in the Plenary Council, Let's Listen & Discern. Plenary Council 2020 Phase 2 Listening and Discernment guide. The themes are as follows:

Week 1: Prayerful and Eucharistic

Week 2: Missionary and Evangelising

Week 3: Inclusive, Participatory and Synodal

Week 4: Humble, Healing and Merciful

Week 5: Open to Conversion, Renewal and Reform

Week 6: A Joyful, Hope-Filled and Servant Community

Each session lasts 2 hours.

This is a privileged time to spend with each other in our faith family, to discern where God is calling us within our own parish communities, and leading to positive actions going forward.

A copy of this resource will be mailed out to all parishes this week, and will be made available online at: <https://www.bbcatholic.org.au/parish-community/plenary-council/our-resources>

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

PS 94:6-7

O come, let us worship God and bow low before the God who made us, for he is the Lord our God.

FIRST READING

IS 58:7-10

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Your light will shine like the dawn.

Thus says the Lord: Share your bread with the hungry, and shelter the homeless poor, clothe the man you see to be naked and turn not from your own kin.

Then will your light shine like the dawn and your wound be quickly healed over.

Your integrity will go before you and the glory of the Lord behind you.

Cry, and the Lord will answer; call, and he will say, 'I am here.' If you do away with the yoke, the clenched fist, the wicked word, if you give your bread to the hungry, and relief to the oppressed, your light will rise in the darkness, and your shadows become like noon.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

PS 111:4-9. R. V.4

(R.) A light rises in the darkness for the upright.

He is a light in the darkness for the upright: he is generous, merciful and just.

The good man takes pity and lends, he conducts his affairs with honour.

(R.) A light rises in the darkness for the upright.

The just man will never waver: he will be remembered for ever.

He has no fear of evil news; with a firm heart he trusts in the Lord.

(R.) A light rises in the darkness for the upright.

With a steadfast heart he will not fear; open-handed, he gives to the poor; his justice stands firm for ever.

His head will be raised in glory.

(R.) A light rises in the darkness for the upright.

SECOND READING

1 COR 2:1-5

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

I came to you to proclaim Christ crucified.

When I came to you, brothers, it was not with any show of oratory or philosophy, but simply to tell you what God had guaranteed. During my stay with you, the only knowledge I claimed to have was about Jesus, and only about him as the crucified Christ. Far from relying on any power of my own, I came among you in great 'fear and trembling' and in my speeches and the sermons that I gave, there were none of the arguments that belong to philosophy; only a demonstration of the power of the Spirit. And I did this so that your faith should not depend on human philosophy but on the power of God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

JN 8:12

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the light of the world, says the Lord; the man who follows me will have the light of life.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL

MT 5:13-16

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

You are the light of the world.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'You are the salt of the earth. But if salt becomes tasteless, what can make it salty again? It is good for nothing, and can only be thrown out to be trampled underfoot by men.

'You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill-top cannot be hidden. No one lights a lamp to put it under a tub; they put it on the lamp-stand where it shines for everyone in the house. In the same way your light must shine in the sight of men, so that, seeing your good works, they may give the praise to your Father in heaven.'

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

CF. PS 106:8-9

Let them thank the Lord for his mercy, his wonders for the children of men, for he satisfies the thirsty soul, and the hungry he fills with good things.

SCRIPTURE COMMENTARY

BY DIANNE BERGANT CSA

It is very clear from this passage from the prophet that communion with God is dependent upon the fulfilment of social responsibility. Those who have been admitted into the embrace of the covenant are expected to care for the needs of their covenant sisters and brothers in both body and soul. The blessings that follow this kind of selfless living all suggest some form of deliverance. They will be drawn from the darkness of night or fear or suffering into the dawn of hope or happiness; their wounds will be healed; their righteousness (vindication) will be known to all; and they will be under the protection of God.

In the responsorial psalm the image of the righteous person is placed before us for our imitation. This image is grounded in the theology of retribution. Although reward is promised to the upright, these blessings/rewards do not come without a price. The psalm itself suggests that a righteous person has been repudiated. This is a very serious situation in a society that holds to a strict honour/shame code. However, the righteous one does not submit to the fear of disgrace, but relies on the power of God. Even in the face of trouble, the righteous one is filled with trust in the Lord.

Paul maintains that there is nothing extraordinary about himself. Rather than hamper the spread of the gospel, his lowliness will advance the manifestation of the power of God. He did not try to impress his hearers with his intelligence or his clever speech. He wanted the faith of the community to be grounded in God and not in the cleverness of some preacher. He was more concerned that they be touched by the power of the gospel itself. From the outset, he was committed to the crucified Jesus Christ and this became the hallmark of his preaching. The proclamation of Christ crucified was the most scandalous feature of the Christian message for Jew and Greek alike, and yet it was the heart of Paul's teaching. His message was bold but his ministerial approach was humble and unassuming.

Jesus employs two metaphors to characterise the essence of discipleship: salt and light. These metaphors point to what the disciples do for others rather than to what discipleship does for the disciples themselves. Salt is not only essential for life, but it is also valuable for preserving, seasoning, and purifying food and for fertilising. In a sense, its value resides in the way it acts on another substance. The same is true about light. True disciples are the light that shines forth in the darkness of ignorance or faithlessness. They enlighten others not by words but by their manner of living. It is this manner of living that declares to the world that the reign of God has indeed been established in their midst, and that the age of fulfilment has dawned.
